INTRODUCTION

Pursuant to section 1125 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), Lexington Precision Corporation ("LPC") and its wholly-owned subsidiary Lexington Rubber Group, Inc. ("LRGI"), as debtors and debtors in possession (together, the "Debtors" or "Lexington"), in jointly-administered cases under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Chapter 11 Cases"), submit this disclosure statement (the "Disclosure Statement") to all holders of Claims against and Interests in the Debtors in connection with the Debtors' Fourth Amended Joint Plan of Reorganization Under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, dated April 19, 2010, as modified May ~~23~~, 24, 2010 (as may be further modified, the "Plan"), attached hereto as Exhibit A. Unless otherwise defined herein, capitalized terms used herein will have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Plan. Please note that to the extent any inconsistencies exist between the Disclosure Statement and the Plan, the Plan governs.

The purpose of this Disclosure Statement is to provide holders of Claims and Interests with adequate information about (1) the Debtors' history and businesses, (2) the Chapter 11 Cases, (3) the Plan and alternatives to the Plan, (4) the rights of holders of Claims and Interests under the Plan, and (5) other information necessary to enable holders of Claims and Interests to make an informed judgment as to whether to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

The Debtors have developed the Plan in order to provide equitable treatment to all of their creditors, while also eliminating over $50,000,000 of their consolidated indebtedness, which will place the Debtors in a position to take advantage of significant growth opportunities. Pursuant to the Plan, each holder of Senior Subordinated Notes (i) will receive a cash payment in the amount of 51% of its Allowed Claim (the "Cash-Out Percentage") or (ii) may elect (the "Class 5 Stock Election") to receive a number of shares of New LPC Common Stock equal to the (x) the product of its Allowed Claim and the Cash-Out Percentage, divided by (y) $10.00. The funds necessary to make payments to holders who do not select the Class 5 Stock Election, plus additional funds needed for working capital, will be provided by Commercial Finance Services 407, LLC, or one of its affiliates (the "Plan Investor") pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement with the Debtors, under which the Plan Investor will purchase, at a price of $10.00 per share, shares of New LPC Common Stock for an aggregate investment of at least $22 million (including amounts spent to purchase Senior Subordinated Notes prior to the Effective Date).

The Debtors selected the Plan Investor after an extensive marketing effort led by their financial advisors, W.Y. Campbell & Company ("Campbell"), and have determined that the proposed investment, as represented by the Stock Purchase Agreement, represents the highest value achievable in the market at this time and under the current circumstances. These circumstances include:

- Continued disruption in credit markets and lack of availability of traditional sources of debt capital;

- The Debtors' inability, after more than a year of efforts, to obtain traditional debt financing sufficient to fund a plan of reorganization that would provide a meaningful recovery for creditors and leave the Reorganized Debtors with adequate working capital;
- Detrimental effects of extended Chapter 11 Cases on the Debtors' efforts to generate new business and maintain existing business;
- The costs to the estates in professionals fees and other reorganization expenses of continued Chapter 11 Cases;
- The expiration of the Debtors' exclusive period to file a plan of reorganization;
- Existence of a prior competing plan of reorganization proposed by creditor constituencies and providing for a recovery to holders of unsecured claims that is substantially inferior to the recovery provided to such holders under the Debtors' Plan.

The Debtors recommend that all holders of Claims vote to accept the Plan because the Plan will provide unsecured creditors the greatest recovery possible under the circumstances.

Please note that not all holders of Claims or Interests are entitled to vote. If you are entitled to vote, a ballot will be enclosed with this Disclosure Statement. For more information as to which holders of Claims and Interests may vote, please refer to Section V.B, "Classification and Treatment of Classified Claims and Interests" on page 48. For voting procedures and important deadlines, please refer to Section X, "Voting Procedures and Requirements" on page ~~99~~101.

On [], 2010, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Bankruptcy Court") approved this Disclosure Statement as providing adequate information to allow a holder of a Claim or an Interest to make an informed judgment as to whether to accept or reject the Plan. Please note that the Bankruptcy Court's approval of this Disclosure Statement does not constitute a determination by the Bankruptcy Court as to the fairness or merits of the Plan or as to the accuracy or truth of the statements, information, and data contained in this Disclosure Statement.

On [], 2010, the Bankruptcy Court will hold a hearing to consider whether to approve and confirm the Plan (the "Confirmation Hearing"). The Confirmation Hearing may be adjourned from time to time without notice. For more information on the confirmation process, please refer to Section XI, "Confirmation of the Plan" on page 96.

Forward-looking statements are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause the Debtors' actual results or performance to be materially different from the future results or performance expressed in or implied by those statements. Some of those risks and uncertainties include:

- Unanticipated price reductions for the Debtors' products as a result of competition;
- Changes in the cost of raw materials;
- Strength or weakness in the North American automotive market;
- Changes in the competitive environment;
- Unanticipated operating results;
- Changes in economic conditions;
- Changes in interest rates;
- Financial difficulties encountered by customers or suppliers of the Debtors;
- Labor interruptions at the Debtors' facilities or at their customers' or suppliers' facilities;

- The Debtors' ability to develop adequate policies regarding and testing of internal control over financial reporting; and
- Other risks as disclosed in Section VII of this Disclosure Statement.

The use of forward-looking statements should not be regarded as a representation that any of the projections or estimates expressed in or implied by those forward-looking statements will be realized, and actual results may vary materially. There can be no assurance that any of the forward-looking statements contained herein will prove to be accurate. All forward-looking statements are expressly qualified by the discussion above.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

A. Summary of Classification and Treatment of Claims and Interests Under the Plan

The following summarizes the classification of Claims and Interests under the Plan and the respective distributions and recoveries to each such Class. The following summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Plan. For a more detailed description of the terms of the Plan, please refer to Section V, "The Plan" on page 45.

The Plan provides for 19 classes of Claims and Interests. D. Overview of the Chapter 11 Process

Chapter 11 is the principal business reorganization chapter of the Bankruptcy Code. Under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, a debtor is authorized to reorganize its business for the benefit of itself and all parties in interest. In addition to permitting the rehabilitation of a debtor, chapter 11 promotes equality of treatment of similarly situated claims and similarly situated equity interests with respect to the distribution of a debtor's assets.

The commencement of a chapter 11 case creates an estate that is comprised of all of the legal and equitable interests of the debtor as of the filing date. The Bankruptcy Code provides that the debtor may continue to operate its business and remain in possession of its property as a "debtor in possession."

The consummation of a plan of reorganization is the principal objective of a chapter 11 reorganization case. A plan of reorganization sets forth the means for satisfying claims against and interests in a debtor. Confirmation of a plan of reorganization by the bankruptcy court having jurisdiction over a particular chapter 11 case makes the plan binding upon a debtor, any issuer of securities under the plan, any person acquiring property under the plan and any creditor of, or holder of an equity interest in, a debtor. Subject to certain limited exceptions, the confirmation order discharges a debtor from any debt that arose prior to the date of confirmation of the plan and substitutes therefor the obligations specified under the confirmed plan.

In order to solicit acceptances of a proposed plan, however, section 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code requires a debtor and any other plan proponent to conduct such solicitation pursuant to a disclosure statement containing adequate information of a kind, and in sufficient detail, to enable a hypothetical reasonable investor to make an informed judgment about the plan. The Debtors are submitting this Disclosure Statement in accordance with the Disclosure Statement Order and the requirements of section 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code.

III.

OVERVIEW OF THE DEBTORS' OPERATIONS AND THE CHAPTER 11 CASES

A. Description of the Debtors' Operations

The Debtors' operations are conducted through two operating groups, the Rubber Group and the Metals Group, which are described below. The business of the Rubber Group is conducted by LRGI, and the assets utilized in that business are owned by LRGI, a Delaware corporation, and a wholly-owned subsidiary of LPC, which is also a Delaware corporation. The business of the Metals Group is conducted by LPC, and the assets utilized in that business are owned by LPC. The following table sets forth actual net sales for the Rubber Group and the Metals Group for 2007, 2008, and 2009 (dollar amounts in thousands):

	2007 Actual		2008 Actual		2009 Estimate

1. The Rubber Group

The Rubber Group is a leading manufacturer of tight-tolerance, molded rubber components that are sold to customers who supply the automotive aftermarket, to customers who supply the automotive original-equipment manufacturers (“OEMs”), and to manufacturers of medical devices. The following table sets forth the Rubber Group’s actual net sales to each of its principal markets for 2007, 2008, and 2009 (dollar amounts in thousands):

	2007		2008		2009
	Actual		Actual		Estimate
Automotive Aftermarket	$ 22,034	29.5 %	$ 26,569	42.7 %	$ 26,564	51.8 %
Automotive OEM	35,799	48.0	18,006	28.9	10,078	19.7
Medical Devices	15,928	21.4	16,300	26.2	14,281	27.9
Other Industries	826	1.1	1,403	2.2	338	0.6
Total	$ 74,587	100.0 %	$ 62,278	100.0 %	$ 51,261	100.0 %

The Rubber Group currently has two production facilities, each of which is a stand-alone business unit, with a complete management team. The Jasper, Georgia facility specializes in insulators for automotive ignition systems and seals for automotive wire harnesses, and the Rock Hill, South Carolina facility specializes in components for medical devices and seals for automotive wire harnesses. During the third quarter of 2009, the Debtors completed the closure of their automotive connector seal facility in Vienna, Ohio and the corresponding transfer of their automotive connector seal business to the Jasper, Georgia and Rock Hill, South Carolina facilities. The Rubber Group has a significant presence as a supplier in the automotive aftermarket, the automotive OEM market and the medical device market.

a. The Automotive Aftermarket

In the automotive aftermarket, the Rubber Group supplies insulators to manufacturers who produce ignition-wire sets for automotive-parts retailers. The Debtors believe that the Rubber Group is the leading supplier of insulators for automotive ignition systems to the automotive aftermarket, with an estimated North American market share of 50%.

b. The Automotive OEM Market

In the automotive OEM market, the Rubber Group has focused on two principal products, insulators for automotive ignition systems and seals for automotive wire harnesses. The Debtors believe that the Rubber Group is one of the two largest suppliers of connector seals in North America and the second largest manufacturer of insulators for automotive ignition systems to the North American automotive OEM market. The Debtors believe that the Rubber Group’s sales of insulators to the OEM market have been limited by customer concerns about the Debtors’ financial condition; however, the Rubber Group has recently been awarded significant amounts of new business for insulators for automotive ignition systems in new vehicles and the Debtors believe that the Rubber Group’s market share of ignition system insulators for the OEM segment will increase significantly in the immediate future.

c. The Medical Device Market

In the medical device market, the Rubber Group has chosen to avoid commodity products that are characterized by lower quality requirements and extreme price competition. Instead, the Rubber Group concentrates on medical components that require high levels of quality and process repeatability, such as seals for laparoscopic surgery devices, injection sites for intravenous medication delivery systems that are assembled using high-speed, automated assembly machinery, and plunger tips for syringes used in applications where dosages must be controlled with precision. The Debtors believe that the Rubber Group has become a leading supplier of these types of components because of its capabilities in product design and materials development and because its molding technology offers excellent process repeatability and product quality.

d. The Rubber Group's Competitive Strengths

The Rubber Group's leading market positions, high profit margins, and prospects for growth once the Debtors' financial issues are behind them are a function of its ability to offer its customers a one-stop source for the development and delivery of complex molded-rubber components, with high quality and at competitive prices. The Rubber Group has developed industry-leading capabilities in every step of the process from product-concept through delivery of a completed component or assembly, including materials development, mold-making, rubber mixing, molding, process automation, and process management.

- (i) Materials Development. Any new product development initiative begins with the selection of the appropriate compound to meet the product specification at a low cost. The Rubber Group has extensive experience in molding of numerous elastomers and works closely with its customers to choose the optimal material for any given application. The Rubber Group's in-house mixing operation in Jasper, Georgia, is equipped with a complete facility for materials development, including lab-style mixers, mills and molding presses, and analytical equipment for testing all critical performance characteristics. In addition, the Rubber Group's Rock Hill, South Carolina, facility contains an analytical laboratory that is utilized for detailed analysis of polymers, fillers, and contaminants.
- (ii) Mold-Making. The Rubber Group has invested over $14 million in a state-of-the-art mold-making operation within the Debtors' North Canton, Ohio facility (the "Engineering Center"). Through this investment, the Rubber Group controls 100% of its mold-making activities and has the capability to produce flashless molds, cut-in-plate molds, standard injection molds, and LSR injection molds. The mold-making operation permits the Rubber Group to significantly reduce turnaround times for prototype molds, production molds, modifications, and repairs. Moreover, the strong relationship between the Rubber Group's mold-making operation and its production-molding operations has enabled the Rubber Group to make numerous technological advances in both its mold-making and its molding processes.

Unlike most rubber molding businesses, the Rubber Group utilizes high-tolerance, “flashless” molds whenever possible. In a flashless mold, each cavity is comprised of a separate stack of precisely-machined, self-registering inserts that are assembled in multiple, hinged plates. The inserts have thousands of laser-cut vents that permit gases to escape from the cavities during the molding process while limiting flash extension to nominal levels. As illustrated in the following table, flashless molds offer multiple benefits compared to conventional cut-in-plate molds.

Attribute	Resulting Benefit
Produce tighter-tolerance components	Parts are easier to assemble and exhibit better end-use performance
Forces on mold surface are balanced	Parts remain concentric and symmetrical even after extensive mold usage
Cavities are vented	Trapped air issues are minimized, improving quality and reducing scrap
Most secondary operations, such as deflashing, trimming, and die-cutting, are eliminated	Lower risk of damaged parts and contamination; reduced costs
Part handling is reduced	Lower risk of contamination
Extended mold life	Lower mold cost over the life of the part; less deterioration in part quality over time
Individual cavities can be replaced.	Molds have full cavitation at all times, increasing productivity and reducing costs

- (iii) Automation. The Rubber Group makes extensive use of automation throughout its operations to improve productivity, reduce labor costs, and improve the quality of its products. A substantial portion of the Rubber Group’s automation equipment is designed and built at the Engineering Center. This gives the Rubber Group a competitive advantage because its automation equipment is less expensive than similar equipment that could be purchased from outside vendors and is designed specifically to optimize the Rubber Group’s manufacturing processes.
- (iv) Proprietary Press Controls. The Rubber Group currently operates over 200 rubber molding presses, all of which are equipped with proprietary programmable logic controllers (“PLCs”) designed and built at the Engineering Center. PLCs permit the Rubber Group to select the optimal processing parameters for each mold and ensure strict adherence to those parameters, in order to maximize quality and minimize costs. PLCs collect and store large amounts of data that can be used to determine the root cause of any molding problem.

- (v) Management Operating System. The Debtors have developed a management operating system that is used on a real-time basis to ensure the efficient operation of every area of each plant. The system increases management effectiveness, accountability, and communication. As a result, management is able to more closely control labor cost, productivity, and overall performance. The management operating system establishes performance expectations and enables management to hold every operator, supervisor, and department accountable for meeting these expectations. Performance is measured and evaluated on a short-interval basis, usually every two hours, so that real-time adjustments can be made to bring performance into line with expectations.

e. Facilities of the Rubber Group; Capacity for Growth

The Rubber Group operates two modern production facilities encompassing 161,000 square feet of floor space. All of the operating facilities are owned by the Debtors.

All of the Rubber Group's facilities and equipment are well-maintained. Because of reductions in volume and increases in productivity, each of the Rubber Group's plants has substantial unused capacity in all functional areas at current volume levels. As a result, management believes that the Rubber Group can accommodate the sales growth reflected in the Projected Financial Statements (from $51.3 million in 2009 to $79.7 million in 2012) without the need for significant additional capital expenditures for plant and equipment.

The Rubber Group's production facilities are supported by a 42,000 square foot Engineering Center and a materials-development and rubber-mixing facility within the Jasper, Georgia facility. The Engineering Center and the materials development facility have helped the Rubber Group to differentiate itself from many other custom molders by offering its customers a number of proprietary services, including, materials development to determine the optimal material for the component, and automation to produce complete assemblies. When coupled with the Rubber Group's low-cost manufacturing operations and outstanding quality record, these services have made the Rubber Group a market leader in each of the markets it serves.

f. Insulators for Automotive Ignition Systems

Insulators for automotive ignition systems (aftermarket and OEM) represent the Rubber Group's largest product category, accounting for approximately 57.7% of the Rubber Group's net sales for all of 2009.

Insulators are molded rubber components that are used in ignition systems to seal and insulate the terminals on the spark plug and the distributor in a traditional ignition system, and the connection between the coil and the spark plug in a coil-on-plug style ignition system. Insulators, which are also called "boots" and "nipples," are sold to tier-one suppliers that assemble ignition-wire sets for the automotive OEMs and for retailers serving the automotive aftermarket, like AutoZone, Advance Auto Parts, NAPA, and O'Reilly.

The Debtors believe that the Rubber Group is North America's largest manufacturer of insulators, with 2009 sales volume of 201 million units, representing net sales of approximately $30.1 million, and the leading supplier of insulators to companies, including General Cable and Standard Motor Products, that supply ignition-wire sets to automotive-parts retailers. During 2009, the Rubber Group's sales of insulators to the automotive aftermarket were $26.5 million, which represents an estimated North American market share in excess of 62%.

The Rubber Group is also a major supplier of insulators to companies that supply ignition-wire sets to the automotive original equipment manufacturers. Through its customers, Prestolite Wire, Diamond Electric, and Ford, the Rubber Group is a major supplier of insulators used on new Ford and Chrysler vehicles produced in North America. For 2009, the Rubber Group's sales of insulators for new vehicles were $3.1 million, which represents an estimated North American market share of approximately 27%.

The Rubber Group has become the leading supplier of insulators in North America, while continuing to achieve significant profit and cash flow margins, for the following reasons:

- (i) Product Knowledge. Because the Jasper facility is focused almost exclusively on the production and sale of insulators, the Rubber Group has developed vast knowledge of the product and its end-markets. This knowledge enables the Rubber Group to provide invaluable assistance to its customers in designing insulators with superior performance characteristics, while minimizing cost.
- (ii) Cost Competitiveness. The same product focus has enabled the Rubber Group to develop cost-effective methods for delivering each type of insulator, including:
 - A. High-cavitation tools for high-volume parts;
 - B. Flashless tools for 180° parts;
 - C. Unique, hybrid tools blending flashless and cut-in-plate technology, for certain difficult-to-mold insulators;
 - D. Proprietary automation for molding, demolding, inspection, and assembly; and
 - E. Offshore sourcing of lower-volume parts.
- (iii) Proprietary Materials. The Rubber Group has developed an extensive library of proprietary materials for the insulator market. These materials enable the Rubber Group to meet demanding specifications (including engine temperatures as high as 600° F) at a competitive price.

- (iv) The Broadest Aftermarket Product Line. The Rubber Group has developed a very broad line of insulators for the automotive aftermarket by:
 - A. Investing more than $7 million over the past ten years to build over one hundred high-cavitation tools for the aftermarket;
 - B. Making further significant investments to acquire the right to use excess capacity on many of the high-cavitation tools owned by its OEM customers to supply the aftermarket; and
 - C. Developing reliable, low-cost, off-shore sourcing for lower volume aftermarket parts.

Although the Rubber Group is already the leading supplier of insulators in North America, the Projected Financial Statements reflect a significant increase in sales of insulators once the Chapter 11 Cases are concluded. Management believes that this growth is achievable for the following reasons:

- (i) New Programs Awarded or Considered Highly Likely. The Rubber Group received orders to build production tooling from a number of suppliers to the Automotive OEMs, including Robert Bosch, Diamond Electric Manufacturing, Prestolite Wire and Remy, Inc., on programs with an annualized value of approximately $7.0 million at full volume and is quoting significant amounts of additional business for these customers. Based upon customer feedback, the management of the Rubber Group believes that its pricing is highly competitive and that it is highly likely that a meaningful portion of this additional business will be awarded to the Debtors.
- (ii) Ford Potential. Ford Motor Company has stated a desire to source additional insulators with the Debtors as soon as they are satisfied with the resolution of the Chapter 11 Cases.
- (iii) Aftermarket Strength. The Rubber Group is expected to continue to capture market share in the aftermarket due to:
 - A. Its innovative product design;
 - B. Its program of continuing to build high-cavitation molds for high-volume parts;
 - C. Its off-shore sourcing of low-volume parts; and
 - D. The inability of its competitors to match the Rubber Group's prices, quality, and service.

g. Molded Rubber Components for Medical Devices

Components for medical devices are the Rubber Group's second largest product line, accounting for 27.9% of the Rubber Group's net sales for 2009.

Manufacturers of medical devices use molded rubber components in a wide variety of applications, including medication delivery systems, syringes, laparoscopic surgery devices, and catheters. The Rubber Group has chosen to avoid commodity-type components (like plunger tips for inexpensive syringes) that are characterized by lower quality requirements and intense price competition and to focus its marketing efforts on components that require the high levels of quality and process repeatability that the Rubber Group is able to offer. These types of products include seals for laparoscopic surgery devices, injection sites for intravenous medication delivery systems that are assembled using high-speed automated machinery, and plunger tips for syringes used in applications where dosages must be controlled with precision.

The Rubber Group is rapidly becoming a leading supplier for these types of components because of its technical capabilities, including:

- (i) Product Design. The Rubber Group uses proprietary computer simulation software to help its customers design components that function optimally in their required application and can be produced without significant problems.
- (ii) Materials Development. The Rubber Group's extensive materials library and its experience with a broad range of elastomers enable it to develop the optimal material for each application at a competitive price.
- (iii) Tight-Tolerance, Flashless Molds. The Rubber Group's state-of-the-art flashless molds allow it to:
 - A. Maintain part concentricity, which is critical to the functioning of high-speed assembly equipment and to the delivery of precise dosages, even after extensive mold usage;
 - B. Deliver consistently flash-free parts; and
 - C. Hold extremely tight tolerances on even the most difficult features, including seals with very thin walls.
- (iv) Proprietary Press Controls. The Rubber Group's proprietary press controls allow it to provide its customers with a high level of assurance regarding process repeatability and traceability.
- (v) In-House Automation Capability. The Rubber Group's in-house automation design/build capability enables it to solve difficult assembly, inspection, and packaging issues for its customers.

The following is a description of the Rubber Group's principal products for the medical device industry, by application.

- (i) Medication Delivery Systems. The Rubber Group supplies a variety of molded rubber products used in medication delivery applications that require high levels of quality and process repeatability. Medication delivery products include injection sites for intravenous medication delivery systems that are assembled using high-speed, automated assembly equipment, and plunger tips for syringes used in applications where dosages must be controlled with precision. Medical applications that utilize the Rubber Group's rubber components include renal dialysis, insulin delivery, anesthesia delivery, oncology, cardiac care, and cosmetic surgery (Botox delivery). The Debtors believes growth opportunities in this product segment are strong because:
 - A. Demand for the products should increase as the average age of the population increases;
 - B. Device-makers will continue to move to higher-speed assembly, which should increase the need for suppliers with the ability to produce consistently symmetrical parts; and
 - C. There is expected to be meaningful growth in applications where dosages must be tightly controlled.
- (ii) Laparoscopic Surgery Devices. Laparoscopic surgery is a minimally-invasive surgical technique in which the surgeon enters the patient's body through a number of relatively small punctures rather than through a large incision. Laparoscopic surgery is growing at a rapid pace because it offers a number of benefits that reduce both the cost and the risk of surgical procedures, including significantly shorter operating and recovery times, significantly shorter overall hospital stays, and substantially reduced risk of infection. Since 2005, the Rubber Group has built significant relationships with three of the major manufacturers of laparoscopic surgery devices, and has received purchase orders for 21 different components for such devices. Many of these programs are in the early stages of their life-cycle and are expected to grow significantly in volume over the next several years.

The Debtors believe that the Rubber Group is in the early stages of a period of meaningful growth in its medical components business. A substantial portion of projected future growth is attributable to major programs that are currently ramping up with existing customers. The balance is attributable primarily to new projects currently in the development stage, both with existing customers and with new customers that have been attracted to the Rubber Group's capabilities.

Based upon discussions with a number of large customers, including, Ethicon Endo-Surgery, Inc., Smiths Medical, Delphi Corporation, and Ford Motor Corporation, the Debtors believe that substantial incremental business may be made available to them upon their emergence from chapter 11 with a reduced debt level. The Debtors are confident that they have in place the infrastructure and the equipment to take advantage of these new business opportunities profitably and without the need for significant additional investment in plant and equipment.

h. Connector Seals for Automotive Wire Harnesses

Connector seals for automotive wire harnesses are the Rubber Group's third-largest product line, accounting for approximately 13.0% of the Rubber Group's estimated net sales for 2009.

Connector seals are molded rubber components that are utilized in automotive wire harnesses to protect the electrical connections throughout the vehicle from the effects of harmful elements like oil, water, salt, and dust.

There are three standard types of connector seals. Single-wire seals, which seal individual wire connections, and perimeter seals, which seal the closures of plastic connector housings, are commodity products and are subject to significant price competition. Multi-hole seals, which seal up to 121 wire connections, are specialty items that require far more technical expertise and command higher margins.

The Debtors believe that the Rubber Group is one of North America's two largest manufacturers of connector seals, with estimated 2009 sales volume of over 215 million units. During the third quarter of 2009, the Debtors completed the closure of their stand-alone connector seal facility in Vienna, Ohio and the transfer of their connection seal manufacturing business to their Jasper, Georgia, and Rock Hill, South Carolina facilities. The Debtors undertook this consolidation because the reduction in the size of their connector seal business made it unlikely that this business could be returned to an adequate level of profitability as a stand-alone business unit.

The Rubber Group's sales of connector seals have declined significantly in recent years for the following reasons:

- (i) Customer in-sourcing of a number of commodity-type seals;
- (ii) Customer re-sourcing of some connector seals due to price increases implemented by the Rubber Group in 2005 and 2006;
- (iii) Customer concerns about sourcing new business with an already-dominant supplier viewed as having financial issues; and
- (iv) The industry-wide reduction in domestic car and truck production.

Despite these sales declines, the Rubber Group continues to be a leader in the manufacture of connector seals, while maintaining profit and cash flow margins above the norm for the automotive supply industry, for the following reasons:

- (i) Product Design. The Rubber Group's focus on connector seals, coupled with its proprietary computer simulation software, has made the Rubber Group uniquely capable of assisting its customers in designing the seals for their electrical connectors.
- (ii) Competitive Advantages in Multi-Hole Seals. The Rubber Group has developed very cost-effective technology for manufacturing large volumes of the highly-complex, multi-hole seals that have become the industry standard. This technology encompasses:
 - A. State-of-the-art, flashless tools that eliminate the need for most costly deflashing operations;
 - B. Advanced wasteless molding technology, utilizing proprietary cold pots that minimize material waste;
 - C. Proprietary "split-pin" technology that facilitates demolding without tears or flashed-over holes;
 - D. High-cavitation tools that increase productivity and reduce cost; and
 - E. Use of automated inspection equipment to meet stringent customer quality requirements.

i. Financial Performance of the Rubber Group

The following table sets forth the actual income from operations of the Rubber Group for 2007 and 2008 and its estimated income from operations for 2009 and the reconciliation of the Rubber Group's income from operations to its Earnings Before Interest, Taxes, Depreciation, and Amortization ("EBITDA") for those periods (dollar amounts in thousands).

Please refer to Exhibit F, attached hereto, for the reconciliation of the Debtors' consolidated loss from continuing operations for 2008 and their estimated consolidated loss from continuing operations for 2009 to their estimated consolidated Earnings Before Interest, Taxes, Depreciation, and Amortization ("EBITDA").

EBITDA is not a measure of performance under U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") and should not be considered in isolation or used as a substitute for income from operations, net income, net cash provided by operating activities, or other operating or cash flow statement data prepared in accordance with GAAP. The Debtors have presented EBITDA here and elsewhere in this Disclosure Statement because management uses

EBITDA as a supplemental measure to evaluate the operating performance of the Debtors' business and believes that it provides a useful measure for comparing period to period performance among their business units because it does not include period to period fluctuations in taxes, interest costs, costs associated with capital investments, and certain non-operating items, and because certain financial covenants in the Debtors' senior, secured credit agreements have been and will, in the future, be calculated using variations of EBITDA. Nevertheless, EBITDA has material limitations when used as a measurement of performance, including the following:

- (i) EBITDA excludes interest expense. Cash interest payments represent a reduction in cash available to the Debtors, and accruals for interest expense represent an obligation to pay cash interest in the future.
- (ii) EBITDA excludes provisions for taxes. Cash payments of taxes represent a reduction in cash available to the Debtors, and accruals for non-cash taxes represent an obligation to pay cash taxes in the future.
- (iii) EBITDA excludes depreciation and amortization related to buildings, equipment, and tooling. Although depreciation and amortization are noncash charges, they represent the consumption, over a projected period, of assets that produce revenue. EBITDA also does not reflect the capital expenditures required for the replacement of these depreciated assets.
- (iv) EBITDA does not reflect reorganization items, which represent revenues, expenses, realized gains and losses, and provisions for losses that can be directly associated with the reorganization and restructuring of our business under chapter 11. Reorganization items that are expenses represent a reduction in cash available to the Debtors, either currently or in the future.
- (v) EBITDA does not reflect cash provided or used as a result of changes in the Debtors' working capital.
- (vi) The Debtors' definition of EBITDA may not be the same as the definition of EBITDA used by other companies, including companies in the industries in which the Debtors operate. As the number of differences in the definition of EBITDA increases, the usefulness of EBITDA as a comparative measure decreases. The definition of EBITDA used here is different from the definition of EBITDA used to calculate compliance with the financial covenants in the loan agreements governing the Prepetition Credit Agreement, the Prepetition Loan Agreement, the Amended and Restated Secured CapitalSource Credit Agreement and the Amended and Restated Secured CSE Loan Agreement.

To compensate for the shortcomings of EBITDA as a financial measure, it is important to use financial data derived under GAAP. In particular, the Debtors monitor income from operations, both in dollars and as a percentage of net sales.

The following table sets forth the actual operating results and EBITDA of the Rubber Group for 2007 and 2008 and its estimated operating results and EBITDA for 2009 (dollar amounts in thousands) and reconciles those numbers to GAAP numbers:

¹ During the last six months of 2008, the Rubber Group experienced a dramatic downturn in sales of components used in automotive original equipment, which resulted in operating losses at our connector-seal facility in Vienna, Ohio. Because of these losses and because we did not believe that it would be possible to return this facility to an adequate level of profitability in the foreseeable future, during the first quarter of 2009, we decided to close this facility and move the production to our other rubber molding facilities. The relocation of the connector-seal business to our other rubber molding facilities was completed during the third quarter of 2009. The estimated operating results of the Rubber Group for 2009 include (i) $3,138,000 of net sales at the Vienna facility, (ii) $903,000 of costs incurred to restructure the connector seal business and (iii) $2,305,000 of operating losses incurred at the Vienna, Ohio, facility. EBITDA at the Vienna, Ohio, facility during 2009, including the relocation expenses, was negative $2,376,000. Excluding the results of the Vienna, Ohio, facility during 2009, the Rubber Group's estimated EBITDA for 2009 totaled $10,723,000, or 22.3%.

2. The Metals Group

The Metals Group consists of the Debtors' machining business located in Rochester, New York. The Metals Group manufactures a variety of high-volume components that are machined from aluminum, brass, steel, and stainless steel bars and blanks. The Metals Group primarily uses multiple spindle screw machines and specially-designed rotary transfer machines that allow the Metals Group to perform multiple forming operations on a part at the same time. The components produced by the Metals Group include airbag inflator components, solenoids for transmissions, fluid handling couplings, hydraulic valve blocks, power steering components, and wiper-system components, primarily for use by the automotive OEMs. The Metals Group derives competitive advantage from its ability to design and build automated inspection equipment that utilizes visual and mechanical sensing to verify the critical features of complex components.

The following table sets forth the Metals Group's actual net sales to each of its principal markets for 2007, 2008, and 2009 (dollar amounts in thousands):

	2007	2008	2009
	Actual	Actual	Estimate
Automotive OEM	$ 11,597 83.9%	$ 8,764 81.5%	$ 8,867 86.0%

Total	$ 13,821 100.0%	$ 10,751 100.0%	$ 10,306 100.0%

The Metals Group's automotive OEM customers have historically included such major domestic suppliers as BorgWarner, Cooper-Standard Automotive, Delphi, and Jiffy-Tite. Over the past twenty-four months, the Metals Group has been awarded substantial volumes of additional business by these customers as well as a number of new customers.

a. The Metals Group's Competitive Strengths

The Metals Group has a number of competitive advantages within the markets it serves, which have enabled it to build a solid base of customers. These advantages include:

- (i) The ability to design and build specialized manufacturing equipment, which allows the Metals Group to offer its customers comparatively short lead times and low prices;
- (ii) The ability to design and build automation equipment for many of its processes, which allows the Metals Group to offer its customers excellent quality and low prices; and
- (iii) The ability to design and build automated inspection equipment that utilizes visual and mechanical sensing to verify the critical features of complex components.

b. Financial Performance of the Metals Group

3. Non-Operating Assets

In addition to the Rubber Group and the Metals Group, the Debtors own certain assets that are unrelated to their ongoing business. The Debtors plan to dispose of such assets in an orderly fashion. The most significant of those assets are discussed below.

a. Land in East Ellijay, Georgia

The Debtors own a parcel of commercial land consisting of approximately 20 acres with approximately 1,560 feet of frontage on State Highway 515 in East Ellijay, Georgia. The site was originally acquired for use as a potential plant site, however, the adjacent area has seen extensive commercial development. An independent appraisal of this property, dated June 10, 2008, indicates that the value of this property has increased significantly, making it uneconomical to consider building a manufacturing plant there. The Debtors have substantially completed the grading work necessary to prepare the property for sale and expect to commence marketing of this parcel after the Chapter 11 Cases are concluded.

The Debtors also own six residential lots aggregating 6.6 acres abutting this commercial property.

b. Land and Buildings in Lakewood, New York

The Debtors own a 93,000-square-foot manufacturing building on 4.9 acres of land in Lakewood, New York that is occupied by the purchaser of the Debtors' former die casting business, under a lease that expires on December 31, 2010. The lessee pays the Debtors $159,000 per year, triple-net, and has an option to purchase the facility for $1,595,000. The lease provides for a single, two-year renewal option. If the renewal option is exercised, the lease rate and the purchase option will increase by a factor based upon the change in the Consumer Price Index.

The Debtors also own a vacant 10,000-square-foot building on 2.5 acres adjacent to the leased property discussed above.

c. Land and Buildings in Vienna, Ohio

The Debtors also own a 52,540 square-foot industrial building on 24.95 acres of land in Vienna, Ohio that was formerly used in connection with the Debtors' connector seals business. As set forth in further detail in Section III.A.1 herein, the connector seals business was consolidated into the Rock Hill, South Carolina, and Jasper, Georgia, facilities.

4. The Debtors' Employees

As of December 31, 2009, the Debtors employed approximately 493 permanent employees, of which 101 were salaried employees and 362 were hourly employees, and 30 were temporary employees. The Debtors believe that their relationship with their employees is good. The Debtors' operations at their Rock Hill, South Carolina facility are subject to a collective bargaining agreement with the United Steel Workers of America, AFL-CIO that expires in 2012. Because the Rock Hill facility is an "open-shop," only certain of its hourly employees are covered by the collective bargaining agreement.

B. Significant Indebtedness

The Debtors' significant prepetition indebtedness is described below. In addition to this indebtedness for money borrowed, the Debtors have prepetition trade accounts payable and other general unsecured claims of approximately $6 million.

1. The Prepetition Credit Agreement

The Debtors are parties to that certain Credit and Security Agreement, dated as of May 31, 2006 (the "Prepetition Credit Agreement"), with CapitalSource Finance LLC ("CapitalSource"), as collateral agent, administrative agent, and lender, Webster Business Credit Corporation, as lender and co-documentation agent, and any other lenders party thereto (collectively, the “Credit Agreement Lenders”), as amended pursuant to that certain First Amendment and Default Waiver Agreement, dated as of November 20, 2006 (the “Default Waiver Agreement”). The Credit Agreement provides for: (i) a revolving credit facility in the maximum aggregate amount of $17.5 million, including letters of credit, and (ii) an equipment term loan in the original principal amount of $12.5 million.

Pursuant to the Prepetition Credit Agreement, CapitalSource, as agent for the Credit Agreement Lenders, holds first priority liens on, and security interests in, substantially all of the Debtors’ assets other than real estate and second priority liens on the Debtors’ real estate.

The Debtors used the amounts borrowed under the Prepetition Credit Agreement to fund general working capital requirements. As of the Commencement Date, approximately $22.6 million, including outstanding letters of credit, was outstanding under the Prepetition Credit Agreement.

As described in greater detail in Section V.B.1.b, “Class 2(a) – CapitalSource Secured Claims against LPC (Impaired)” on page 48,49, pursuant to the Plan, Claims arising from the Prepetition Credit Agreement are classified as Class 2(a) Claims. On account of their Allowed Claims, holders of Class 2(a) Claims will receive payments over time as provided in the Amended and Restated Secured CapitalSource Credit Agreement.

2. The Prepetition Loan Agreement

The Debtors also are parties to that certain Loan and Security Agreement, dated as of May 31, 2006 (the “Prepetition Loan Agreement”), with CSE Mortgage LLC (“CSE”), as lender, collateral agent, and administrative agent, DMD Special Situations, LLC (“DMD”), as lender, and any other lenders party thereto (collectively, the “Loan Agreement Lenders,” and together with the Credit Agreement Lenders, the “Prepetition Secured Lenders”), as amended pursuant to the Default Waiver Agreement. The Loan and Security Agreement provides for two real estate term loans, Term Loan A and Term Loan B, in the original principal amounts of $11 million and $4 million, respectively.

Pursuant to the Prepetition Loan Agreement, CSE, as agent for the Loan Agreement Lenders, holds first priority liens on, and security interests in, the Debtors’ real estate, and second priority liens on substantially all of the Debtors’ other assets.

The Debtors used the amounts borrowed under the Prepetition Loan Agreement to fund general working capital requirements. As of the Commencement Date, approximately $9.8 million principal amount was outstanding under Term Loan A, and $4 million principal amount was outstanding under Term Loan B.

As described in greater detail in Section V.B.1.c, “Class 2(b) – CSE Secured Claims against LPC (Impaired)” on page 49, pursuant to the Plan, Claims arising from the Prepetition Loan Agreement are classified as Class 2(b) Claims. On account of their Allowed Claims, holders of Class 2(b) Claims will receive payments over time as provided in the Amended and Restated Secured CSE Loan Agreement.

3. Senior Subordinated Notes

Pursuant to an indenture, dated as of December 18, 2003 (as supplemented thereafter, the “Indenture”), between Wilmington Trust Company, as indenture trustee (the “Indenture Trustee”), and LPC, there are issued and outstanding $34.18 million in principal amount of unsecured Senior Subordinated Notes due August 1, 2009, which bear interest at the rate of 12% per annum (the “Senior Subordinated Notes”). Interest on the Senior Subordinated Notes is payable quarterly on February 1, May 1, August 1, and November 1 of each year. As of the Commencement Date, approximately $9.1 million of accrued interest was outstanding with respect to the Senior Subordinated Notes.

Approximately 22.7% of the Senior Subordinated Notes are held by Michael A. Lubin and Warren Delano, the co-Chief Executive Officers of the Debtors, and their families and affiliates. As of the Commencement Date, approximately 74.4% of the Senior Subordinated Notes were held by a group of six hedge funds that formed an ad hoc committee (the “Ad Hoc Committee”) to negotiate with the Debtors prior to the Commencement Date. Three members of the Ad Hoc Committee and the Indenture Trustee originally served as members of the Creditors’ Committee in the Chapter 11 Cases. On or about February 12, 2010, two of these members resigned from the Creditors’ Committee after the Plan Investor purchased such members’ Senior Subordinated Notes.

As described in greater detail in Section V.B.1.f, “Class 5 – Senior Subordinated Note Claims (Impaired)” on page 51, pursuant to the Plan, Claims arising from the Senior Subordinated Notes are classified as Class 5 Claims. Each holder of a Class 5 Claim will receive, in full satisfaction of its Allowed Senior Subordinated Note Claim, as soon as reasonably practicable after the later of (i) the Effective Date and (ii) the date such Claim becomes Allowed, Cash in the amount equal to 51% (the “Cash-Out Percentage”) of its Allowed Senior Subordinated Note Claim; provided, however, that in lieu of such distribution, such holder may elect to receive, in full satisfaction of its Allowed Senior Subordinated Note Claim, a number of shares of New LPC Common Stock equal to (x) the product of its Allowed Senior Subordinated Note Claim and the Cash-Out Percentage (i.e., ~~51.0~~51%), divided by (y) $10.00.

4. Junior Subordinated Note

LPC is indebted to Michael A. Lubin, Chairman of the Board of the Debtors, in respect of an unsecured Junior Subordinated Note due November 1, 2009 in the principal amount of $347,000, which was originally issued on December 18, 2003, and bears interest at the rate of 13% per annum (as amended, the “Junior Subordinated Note”). Interest on the Junior Subordinated Note is payable quarterly on February 1, May 1, August 1, and November 1 of each year. As of the Commencement Date, $75,000 of accrued interest was outstanding with respect to the Junior Subordinated Note.

As described in greater detail in Section V.B.1.g, “Class 6 – Junior Subordinated Note Claims (Impaired)” on page 51, pursuant to the Plan, Claims arising from the Junior Subordinated Note are classified as Class 6 Claims. The holder of the Class 6 Claims has agreed not to, and will not, receive a distribution under the Plan.

C. The Asbestos Cases

LPC is one of many defendants named in approximately 3,500 pending asbestos-related actions before the Court of Common Pleas of Cuyahoga County, Ohio (“Asbestos Actions”). In each case, the plaintiffs generally allege that LPC or one of its predecessors produced a product containing asbestos, with which the plaintiffs came into contact during the course of their careers. Generally, none of the complaints allege any specific facts as to which products LPC allegedly produced that contained asbestos or the time of exposure.

LPC has denied and continues to deny any liability with respect to the Asbestos Actions. To date, the Debtors have not been found liable on any asbestos-related Claims and approximately 1,000 cases have been dismissed.

To date, Liberty Mutual and Home Insurance Company, who insured the Debtors for certain periods of time against asbestos-related injuries, have paid 100% of the Debtors’ defense costs. On June 13, 2003, Home Insurance Company became subject to a state insurance liquidation proceeding. Since then, Liberty Mutual has continued to pay the Debtors’ defense and other asbestos-related costs.

The Debtors believe the Liberty Mutual insurance policies provide the following coverage:

Period	Coverage
1985-86	$500,000 in aggregate coverage and up to the same per occurrence
1986-87	$1,000,000 in aggregate coverage and up to the same per occurrence
1987-88	$1,000,000 in aggregate coverage and up to the same per occurrence
1988-89	$2,000,000 in aggregate coverage for property damage and bodily injury, $1,000,000 per occurrence, $1,000,000 in aggregate coverage for products liability

In addition to the Liberty Mutual and Home Insurance Company insurance, LPC is a beneficiary of certain excess liability coverage provided by Fireman’s Fund. The Debtors believe Fireman’s Fund provides additional insurance coverage for Asbestos-Related Claims to the extent the Liberty Mutual or Home Insurance Company policies provide coverage. The Debtors believe that the Fireman’s Fund coverage is as follows:

Period	Coverage
3/15/77-6/1/78	$5,000,000 in excess coverage
6/1/78-10/10/78	$5,000,000 in excess coverage
10/10/78-06/01/79	$1,000,000 in excess coverage
6/1/79-6/1/80	$5,000,000 in excess coverage
6/1/80-6/1/81	$5,000,000 in excess coverage
6/1/81-6/1/82	Unknown

Period	Coverage
6/1/82-6/1/83	$5,000,000 in excess coverage

It should be noted that there may be filed certain Asbestos Related Claims with respect to years for which there may not be any insurance coverage. As described below, and as provided for in the Plan, the lack of insurance coverage for a valid and enforceable Asbestos Related Claim will not preclude the holder of such claim from receiving a distribution under the Plan.

As described in greater detail in Section V.B.1.j, “Class 9 – Asbestos-Related Claims (Impaired)” on page 52, pursuant to the Plan, Asbestos-Related Claims are classified as Class 9 Claims. After the Effective Date, each Asbestos-Related Claim will be adjudicated in the forum in which such Claim had been pending prior to the Commencement Date; provided, however, that any claimant who has filed an Asbestos-Related Claim, but has not commenced a proceeding prior to the Commencement Date, will as promptly as possible after the Effective Date commence a proceeding in a court of competent jurisdiction other than the Bankruptcy Court, subject to any and all defenses that any defendant may have thereto, including without limitation, statute of limitations, laches, and any other defense. To the extent that the proceeds of the Asbestos Insurance Policies are sufficient to cover the recovery on any Asbestos-Related Claim as determined by a final and non-appealable order or judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction (the “Adjudication Amount”), the holders of such Asbestos-Related Claims will be permanently and forever stayed, restrained, and enjoined from taking any action for the purpose of, directly or indirectly, collecting, recovering, or receiving payment of, on, or with respect to any Asbestos-Related Claim against the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors (other than against the Asbestos Insurance Policies). To the extent the proceeds of the Asbestos Insurance Policies do not cover the entire Adjudication Amount for any specific Asbestos-Related Claim, the Reorganized Debtors will pay in Cash as promptly as possible after the determination of the Adjudication Amount of such Asbestos-Related Claim 80% of the difference between such Adjudication Amount and the proceeds of the Asbestos Insurance Policies (the “Insurance Proceeds Deficiency”); provided, however, that if the Insurance Proceeds Deficiency exceeds $2,000, the holder of such Asbestos-Related Claim will receive (a)(i) Cash in the amount of eight percent (8%) of such Insurance Proceeds Deficiency as soon as reasonably practicable after the date of determination of the Adjudication Amount of such Asbestos-Related Claim, and (ii) an additional nine (9) semi-annual Cash payments, each in an amount equal to 8.6% of such Insurance Proceeds Deficiency, commencing three (3) months after the earlier of the Effective Date or the date such Claim is Allowed, or (b) in lieu of such distribution and in full satisfaction of its Claim, such holder may elect to receive a Cash payment in an amount equal to 51% of the Insurance Proceeds Deficiency on the later of (x) the Effective Date or (y) the date such Claim becomes Allowed.

Nothing in this Disclosure Statement or the Plan is an admission of any liability by the Debtors or insurance coverage by Liberty Mutual or Fireman’s Fund. Further, the treatment provided to holders of Asbestos-Related Claims is not an admission of any liability by the Debtors or insurance coverage by Liberty Mutual or Fireman’s Fund.

D. Significant Events Leading to the Commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases

Historically over 75% of the Debtors' business represented sales of rubber and metal components used by tier-one automotive suppliers, which provide automotive parts to domestic original OEMs. Over the past decade, there has been a substantial decline in the market share of the Detroit-based OEMs. Since 2005, but during 2008 and 2009 in particular, there has been a meaningful reduction in the aggregate number of vehicles produced annually in the U.S. by all manufacturers. These factors have caused tier-one suppliers, particularly those focused on the Detroit-based OEMs, to experience declining sales and increased pricing pressures. This challenging industry environment has been exacerbated by industry-wide efforts to reduce inventory levels throughout the automotive supply chain, which has caused the overall decline in retail sales of automobiles to have a magnified impact on sales of component suppliers like the Debtors.

The Debtors have responded to the reduction in OEM sales by restructuring their operations to reduce costs, which has enabled the Debtors to maintain superior operating and EBITDA margins despite declining sales and to increase their focus on their automotive aftermarket and medical device businesses.

1. Liquidity Crisis

Notwithstanding operational restructuring and efforts to diversify the Debtors' business, the industry-wide reduction in automotive OEM orders began to affect the Debtors in a significant way in mid-2006. Although the Debtors were able to maintain superior margins, the reduction in sales to the automotive OEMs had a significant impact on the Debtors' overall cash flow. At the same time, the Debtors' Rock Hill, South Carolina facility, which produces components for the medical device industry, was preparing to launch a major new program for one of the world's largest manufacturers of laparoscopic surgical devices and was incurring start-up expenses of approximately $150,000 per month in that effort. The combination of these factors caused a significant drain on the Debtors' cash.

On November 1, 2006, a regular, quarterly interest payment was due in respect of the Senior Subordinated Notes. As a result of the liquidity issues described above, the Debtors were not in a position to make the scheduled payment on the due date or within the thirty-day grace period. The failure to make this interest payment within the grace period constituted a default under the Indenture, and by February 1, 2007, that default triggered a cross-default under the Prepetition Credit Agreement and the Prepetition Loan Agreement. Shortly after November 1, 2006, certain holders of the Senior Subordinated Notes organized and formed the Ad Hoc Committee.

2. Restructuring Efforts

From November 2006 through mid-March 2007, the Debtors held extensive discussions with the Prepetition Secured Lenders and the Ad Hoc Committee in an effort to negotiate a financial restructuring that would resolve the Debtors' liquidity issues. In mid-March 2007, the Debtors reached agreements with the Prepetition Secured Lenders and the Ad Hoc Committee on a standstill arrangement while the Debtors pursued potential asset sales and refinancing arrangements in order to stabilize their finances and maximize value for all stakeholders. Upon entering into the standstill agreement, the Debtors engaged Campbell to assist them in seeking a refinancing or a sale of all or a portion of the Rubber Group.

The Debtors obtained the standstill agreement with the Prepetition Secured Lenders by agreeing to pay interest at two points above the contract rates, and to pay financing fees, and fees and expenses of outside counsel, financial advisors, and appraisers. The incremental payments aggregated approximately $2.2 million between November 1, 2006 and the Commencement Date. In addition, in return for a standstill agreement with the Ad Hoc Committee, the Ad Hoc Committee required, as a condition to its forbearance, an increase in the rate of interest on the Senior Subordinated Notes from 12% to 16% until the Senior Subordinated Notes were paid in full or until LPC filed a petition for relief under the Bankruptcy Code. The incremental interest accrued on the Senior Subordinated Notes totaled approximately $2.3 million as of the Commencement Date.

Thereafter, the Debtors began their asset sale and refinancing efforts. Despite an extremely difficult economic environment, the Debtors, assisted by Campbell, were able to obtain a number indications of interest for all or portions of LRGI. Based upon those indications of interest and the advice of Campbell, the Debtors concluded that, notwithstanding the Debtors' negative book net worth calculated in accordance with GAAP, the value of the Debtors' assets far exceeded their liabilities.

Upon reviewing the various sale proposals, the Debtors' determined that the course of action that offered the best prospect of maximizing value was to proceed with a non-binding proposal, subject to due diligence, from a multi-national manufacturer of rubber products having annual sales of over $4 billion (the "Rock Hill Buyer") to purchase LRGI's facility in Rock Hill, South Carolina, which produces molded rubber components primarily for use in medical devices, at a price of $32 million in cash, subject to a standard purchase price adjustment provision related to increases or decreases in working capital (the "Rock Hill Sale"). The Rock Hill Facility had $16 million in net sales for 2007, and the net book value of that facility was $5.3 million on December 31, 2007. The sale would have generated a pre-tax gain of approximately $26 million for U.S. federal income tax purposes, all of which was anticipated to be sheltered by the Debtors' net operating loss carryforward (subject to possible alternative minimum taxes).

In conjunction with that sale process, the Debtors began to seek senior secured financing arrangements that would have enabled them, upon the closing of the Rock Hill Sale, to repay the Prepetition Secured Lenders, make substantial payments in respect of the Senior Subordinated Notes, and finance the operations and growth of the Debtors' remaining businesses. The Debtors were able to obtain a non-binding proposal, subject to due diligence, from a prospective institutional lender (the "Potential New Secured Lender") for a $36.7 million senior secured credit facility that, had it closed, would have enabled the Debtors to (i) repay the Prepetition Secured Lenders, (ii) pay all accrued interest (aggregating approximately $8.8 million at February 29, 2008) on the Senior Subordinated Notes, and (iii) pay approximately 50% of the outstanding principal amount of the Senior Subordinated Notes held by non-affiliates of the Debtors. The balance of the Senior Subordinated Notes held by non-affiliated holders would have remained outstanding, with a 5-year maturity and a cash-pay interest rate of 12%. The Junior Subordinated Note and the Senior Subordinated Notes held by the affiliated holders would have been converted to common stock, reducing the Debtors' remaining debt by an additional $8 million.

In mid-January 2008, the Debtors advised the Ad Hoc Committee that they believed that, in order to move forward with the Rock Hill Sale and the related financing, they required an extension of the standstill arrangement, which was due to expire on January 24, 2008, to April 30, 2008; the requested extension reflected the time periods requested by the Rock Hill Buyer and the Potential New Secured Lender in order to permit them to complete their respective due diligence investigations. The Ad Hoc Committee responded by delivering a proposed form of extension agreement that contained certain provisions that the Debtors and their advisors considered untenable, including the Ad Hoc Committee's right to veto the Rock Hill Sale and a mere two-week extension of the standstill arrangement, subject to further extension at the Ad Hoc Committee's sole discretion. The Debtors made extensive efforts to obtain the Ad Hoc Committee's agreement to the Rock Hill Sale and negotiate further extensions of the standstill agreement. After the Debtors and the Ad Hoc Committee were unable to come to agreement, the Debtors began preparations for chapter 11.

In a final effort to avoid the expense and disruption of a chapter 11 case, the Debtors made two additional restructuring proposals. The first proposal, which was made to the Ad Hoc Committee, included a conversion of a portion of the Senior Subordinated Notes to common stock based upon the values reflected by the offers received during the abandoned sale process. The Ad Hoc Committee rejected the recapitalization proposal because it believed, based upon its valuation of the Debtors, that it would not have provided a full recovery to the holders of the Senior Subordinated Notes.

The second proposal was made to Jefferies High Yield Trading ("Jefferies"), the largest holder of the Senior Subordinated Notes with approximately 37.1% of the issue. That proposal provided for a full conversion of the Senior Subordinated Notes to equity. After negotiations between the Debtors and Jefferies, and a counterproposal by Jefferies, the Debtors and Jefferies were not able to reach an agreement.

In light of the foregoing, the Debtors determined that the only available method to protect the interests of all stakeholders was to seek protection under the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors believed that the short-term standstill arrangements under which they had been operating for approximately a year prior to the Commencement Date were having a significant adverse effect on their business because of customer concerns about awarding additional business to a company with an uncertain future, and that further delay would only exacerbate the negative impact.

E. The Chapter 11 Cases

1. Commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases and the “First-Day” Orders

On April 1, 2008, the Debtors filed voluntary petitions commencing the Chapter 11 Cases. Shortly thereafter, the Debtors obtained a series of orders from the Bankruptcy Court designed to minimize any disruption to the Debtors’ business operations and to facilitate the Debtors’ reorganization.

a. Case Administration Orders

The Bankruptcy Court entered a number of procedural orders to streamline and simplify the administration of the Chapter 11 Cases. These orders: (i) authorized the joint administration of the Chapter 11 Cases; (ii) established notice procedures; (iii) granted an extension of time to file the Debtors’ schedules and statements; and (iv) authorized the mailing of initial notices and all other mailings directly to parties in interest and the filing of a list of creditors without claim amounts in lieu of a matrix. In addition, the Debtors obtained orders authorizing the engagement of Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP and Campbell as legal and financial advisors, respectively.

b. Critical Obligations

To allow the Debtors to maintain certain critical operations during the Chapter 11 Cases, the Bankruptcy Court authorized certain payments on prepetition obligations. The Bankruptcy Court authorized the Debtors to satisfy certain outstanding obligations including those relating to: (i) wages, compensation, and employee benefits; (ii) sales and use taxes; and (iii) claims of common carriers, equipment processors, and warehouses.

c. Customer and Employee Programs

Further, the Bankruptcy Court granted authority to continue certain business operations. Among other things, the Bankruptcy Court authorized the Debtors to: (i) continue certain customer service programs; and (ii) continue certain workers compensation and all other insurance policies.

d. Financing Arrangements

In order to assure that the Debtors had adequate financing to continue their operations throughout the term of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Bankruptcy Court authorized the Debtors to: (i) use the Prepetition Secured Lenders’ cash collateral and obtain $4 million in unsecured postpetition financing; (ii) continue their centralized cash management system as modified to reflect the authorization to use cash collateral; and (iii) maintain their existing bank accounts and forms.

2. Appointment of the Creditors' Committee

Pursuant to section 1102(a) and (b) of the Bankruptcy Code, on April 11, 2008, the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York (the "U.S. Trustee") appointed the seven-member Creditors' Committee to represent the interests of all unsecured creditors in the Chapter 11 Cases. The current Creditors' Committee consists of five members:

Wilmington Trust Company;
Valhalla Capital Partners, LLC;
Momentive Performance Materials, Inc.;
Wacker Chemical Corporation; and
Environmental Products & Services of Vermont, Inc.

Jefferies High Yield Trading and Wilfrid Aubery, LLC once served on the Creditors' Committee, but have since resigned since selling their Senior Subordinated Notes to the Plan Investor, as described in Section IV.A of the Plan. Valhalla Capital Partners, LLC, Jefferies High Yield Trading and Wilfrid Aubery, LLC also served on the Ad Hoc Committee, as described in Section III.B.3, "Senior Subordinated Notes" on page 31.

3. Debtor in Possession Financing/Use of Cash Collateral

To fund their continued operations during the term of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors obtained authority to use the Prepetition Secured Lenders' cash collateral, which secures the Debtors' obligations under the Prepetition Credit and Loan Agreements. The Debtors also obtained $4 million in unsecured postpetition financing pursuant to the DIP Note, which was issued by the Debtors in favor of Lubin Partners, LLC, William B. Connor, and ORA Associates, LLC on April 21, 2008. Lubin Partners, LLC is an affiliate of Michael A. Lubin, the Chairman of the Debtors' Board of Directors and the Debtors' Co-Chief Executive Officer. William B. Conner currently serves as a member of the Debtors' Board of Directors. To the Debtors' knowledge, ORA Associates is not an insider of the Debtors.

On April 17, 2008, the Bankruptcy Court issued an order authorizing, on a final basis, the use of cash collateral and approved the DIP Note (the "DIP Financing Order"). On March 1, 2010, the Bankruptcy Court approved a third extension of the DIP Note to May 3, 2010 (Docket No. 843). On March 9, 2010, the Bankruptcy Court approved the ninth extension of the use of cash collateral [Docket No. 851]. The Debtors' use of cash collateral currently expires on April 2, 2010. The Prepetition Secured Lenders allege that the Debtors are in default under certain of the cash collateral orders and have reserved their rights regarding such defaults.

As described in Section V.A.4, "Debtor in Possession Loan Claims" on page ~~47~~48, as consented to by the DIP Lenders, the DIP Loan Claims will be satisfied in full through (i) the issuance of 400,000 shares of New LPC Common Stock, and (ii) payment in Cash, on or as soon as reasonably practicable following the Effective Date, of all accrued and unpaid interest through the Effective Date.

4. The Debtors' Exclusive Periods

Section 1121 of the Bankruptcy Code grants a debtor the exclusive right to propose a plan of reorganization during the first 120 days after the commencement of a chapter 11 case. In addition, a debtor also has the exclusive right to solicit votes for the acceptance of any proposed plan during the first 180 days after the commencement of a chapter 11 case. A debtor's exclusive rights may be either terminated or extended for "cause."

On May 21, 2008, the Creditors' Committee filed a motion with the Bankruptcy Court seeking a termination of the Debtors' exclusive rights to propose a plan and solicit acceptances thereof. The Debtors objected. On June 11, 2008, the Bankruptcy Court held a hearing on the matter and reserved judgment.

On July 9, 2008, the Debtors filed a motion to extend their exclusive periods to file a chapter 11 plan and solicit acceptances thereof to October 28, 2008 and December 27, 2008, respectively. On July 17, 2008, the Creditors' Committee withdrew its motion to terminate the Debtors' exclusive periods but indicated its intention to object to the Debtors' motion to extend of the Debtors' exclusive periods for an additional 90 days. On July 22, 2008, the Creditors' Committee filed that objection. On July 29, 2008, the Bankruptcy Court held a hearing on the Debtors' motion to extend the exclusive periods. Thereafter, by decision and order dated July 31, 2008, the Court granted the Debtors an extension of their exclusivity to propose a chapter 11 plan and solicit acceptances thereof to October 28, 2008 and December 27, 2008, respectively.

On October 7, 2008, the Debtors filed a motion to further extend their exclusive periods to file a chapter 11 plan and solicit acceptances thereof to January 26, 2009, and February 25, 2009, respectively. The Creditors' Committee objected to the Debtors' motion. On October 28, 2008, the Bankruptcy Court held a hearing on the Debtors' motion, following which the Bankruptcy Court granted the Debtors' motion.

On January 12, 2009, the Debtors filed a third motion to further extend their exclusive periods to file a chapter 11 plan and solicit acceptances thereof. The Creditors' Committee and the Prepetition Secured Lenders objected to the Debtors' motion. Upon the Debtors' request, the Bankruptcy Court entered a bridge order extending the Debtors' exclusive periods pending a hearing on the Debtors' third extension motion. After hearings on February 23 and 24, 2009, the Court extended the Debtors' exclusive period to file a chapter 11 plan and solicit acceptances thereof to April 30, 2009 and June 1, 2009 respectively.

Upon careful review of the circumstances, the Debtors decided not to seek any further extensions of the exclusive periods. On September 1, 2009, the Prepetition Secured Lenders filed their own chapter 11 plans and a proposed combined disclosure statement with respect thereto. On September 11, 2009, the Creditors' Committee also filed a chapter 11 plan and a proposed disclosure statement with respect thereto, each of which have been subsequently amended. In connection with certain of the objections that were filed to the proposed disclosure statements of the Prepetition Secured Lenders and the Creditors' Committee, on October 5, 2009, the Chapter 11 Cases were reassigned to the Honorable Burton R. Lifland.² On December 16, 2009, the Senior Secured Lenders and the Creditors' Committee withdrew their previous individual chapter 11 plans and filed the joint Committee/Senior Secured Lenders Plan and a proposed disclosure statement therefor. On [___], 2010, the Committee and the Senior Secured Lenders withdrew their joint plan and announced their support for this Plan.

5. The Mediation Process

At the hearing on February 24, 2009 in connection with the Bankruptcy Court's ruling on the Debtors' first motion for extension of their use of cash collateral and the Debtors' third motion to extend the exclusive periods, the Debtors, the Creditors' Committee and the Prepetition Secured Lenders agreed to participate in a mediation to facilitate a resolution of disputed issues between the Debtors and the Creditors' Committee that could lead to an ultimate resolution of the Chapter 11 Cases, including valuation and structure of a potential consensual chapter 11 plan. On March 17, 2009, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order appointing Seymour Preston, Jr. of Goldin Associates as the mediator. Mr. Preston has conducted several mediation sessions with the Debtors and the Creditors' Committee after submission of valuation reports from Campbell and SRR. To date, the mediation has not produced an agreement between the Debtors and the Creditors' Committee.

6. The Claims Reconciliation Process

On June 13, 2008, the Debtors filed their schedules of assets and liabilities, which list all outstanding prepetition claims held against the Debtors as reflected in the Debtors' books and records.

On June 30, 2008, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order establishing August 15, 2008 as the deadline, or bar date, for any claimant other than (i) a counterparty to an executory contract rejected by the Debtors after July 16, 2008 or (ii) a Government Unit to assert a claim against the Debtors in the Chapter 11 Cases by filing a proof of Claim. The claims-filing deadline for a counterparty to an executory contract rejected by the Debtors after July 16, 2008 is discussed under the caption "Rejection Damage Claims" on page ~~64~~65. The deadline for Government Units to file a proof of Claim was September 29, 2008. In early July 2008, the Debtors sent all known holders of Claims, including all claimants scheduled on the Debtors' schedules, notice of the bar dates as well as a proof of Claim form. The notice included information as to how to file a proof of Claim and as to whether filing a proof of Claim is necessary. On July 18, 2008, the Debtors also published the same notice in the national edition of The Wall Street Journal.

For more information on the bar dates and whether you need to file a proof of Claim, please refer to the bar date notice, which can be found at <http://chapter11.epiqsystems.com/lexington>.

² On March 4, 2010, the Chapter 11 Cases were reassigned to the Honorable Shelley C. Chapman.

The Bankruptcy Court has not yet set a deadline for filing requests for payment of Administrative Expense Claims. The deadline for filing requests for payment of Administrative Expense Claims will be established under the Plan, as set forth in Section IV(A)(1) below.

IV.

THE STOCK PURCHASE AGREEMENT

Since May, 2009, the Debtors have engaged in extensive negotiations with a number of prospective investors with respect to a potential investment in the Debtors as part of their emergence from chapter 11. Such negotiations culminated in the execution of the Stock Purchase Agreement, as filed with the Plan Supplement, as well as certain other ancillary agreements described herein.

A. The Plan Investor

Beginning in May, 2009, the Debtors and Campbell engaged in an extensive marketing process of the Debtors and their operations, seeking an investor to assist the Debtors in exiting their Chapter 11 Cases. As part of the marketing process, Campbell contacted a total of 125 potential investors. Of this total, 69 signed non-disclosure agreements and were provided preliminary information on the Debtors and their operations. After further discussions and review of the preliminary information packages, 20 potential investors attended management presentations at which they were provided additional information regarding the Debtors along with the opportunity to meet senior management. At the conclusion of these management presentations, nine parties expressed interest in visiting the Debtors' facilities located in Rock Hill, South Carolina, Jasper, Georgia and Rochester, New York. In addition, these parties were provided access to an online data room that contained financial, operational, environmental and other information necessary for potential investors to conduct confirmatory due diligence.

Despite the highly challenging economic environment, Campbell was able to generate strong interest in a transaction involving the Debtors and their operations. Following the management presentations and facility tours, Campbell received proposals from eight parties. Following additional rounds of negotiations with the bidding parties, the Debtors and Campbell determined that the final proposal submitted by the Plan Investor represented the highest and best value for the Debtors.

In January, 2010, the Plan Investor purchased ~~the~~all of the Senior Subordinated Notes held by Jefferies, and thereafter purchased additional Senior Subordinated Notes from certain other members of the Committee. ~~The purchase price paid by the Plan Investor for such notes equates to the distribution being paid to Senior Subordinated Notes under the Plan and~~ other holders. All of such purchases were made at a price equal to 65% of the principal amount of the Senior Subordinated Notes, which approximated 51% of the Senior Subordinated Note Claims of such holders. The Plan Investor currently holds $24,085,000 principal amount of the Senior Subordinated Notes, which represents approximately 70.5% of the aggregate amount of Senior Subordinated Notes outstanding.

Based on such extensive marketing efforts, the Debtors believe that the Plan Investor and its plan investment, as represented by the Stock Purchase Agreement, constitute the highest and best option available to the Debtors, thereby allowing them to maximize the value of their estates and provide the best recovery to all parties in interest.

B. The Stock Purchase Agreement

Pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement, the Plan Investor will invest at least $22 million (including amounts spent to purchase Senior Subordinated Notes prior to the Effective Date). In exchange for its investment under the Stock Purchase Agreement, the Plan Investor will receive shares of New LPC Common Stock at a purchase price of $10.00. The Debtors will use the proceeds of the investment to fund distributions under the Plan and to provide working capital to the Reorganized Debtors.

The Stock Purchase Agreement is subject to customary warranties and representations, covenants, and closing conditions.

C. Ancillary Agreements

1. The Securityholders Agreement

As part of the Stock Purchase Agreement, Mr. Lubin and Mr. Delano and their affiliates and family members who own 12% Senior Subordinated Notes, (together, the “Affiliated Bondholders”), and Lubin Partners LLC, Mr. William B. Connor, and ORA Associates, LLC (the “DIP Lenders,” and, together with the Affiliated Bondholders, the “Management Members”) and the Plan Investor will enter into a certain securityholders agreement (the “Securityholders Agreement”). The Securityholders Agreement will be filed as part of the Plan Supplement.

The material terms of the Securityholders Agreement are as follows:

- (i) Board of Directors. Of the seven (7) member Board of Directors for Reorganized LPC, the Chief Executive Officer will be designated as one (1) board member, the Plan Investor will have the right to designate four (4) board members (provided, however, that one of the Plan Investor’s designees will be an “Independent Director,” as defined in the Amended and Restated Secured CapitalSource Credit Agreement and the Amended and Restated Secured CSE Loan Agreement), and the Management Members will have the right to designate two (2) board members if they hold at least 12.5% of the New LPC Common Stock, one (1) board member if they hold at least 5% of the New LPC Common Stock or a board observer if they hold at least 2.5% of the New LPC Common Stock. The Management Members' board designations will each be subject to approval by the Plan Investor, with such approval to not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

- (ii) Actions Subject to Prior Consent. So long as the Management Members have the right to designate a director as described above, Reorganized Debtors shall not take any of the following actions without the consent of a majority of the New LPC Common Stock held by the Management Members: (a) increase the number of directors; (b) amend, alter or repeal any Reorganized Debtor's organizational documents if such amendment or restatement would adversely affect the Management Members, in their capacity as equity holders, disproportionately as compared to the Plan Investor; (c) redeem, purchase, or acquire any stock of Reorganized LPC ("Reorganized LPC Stock") except pursuant to the Securityholders Agreement or on a proportionate basis; (d) generally, enter into any transaction outside the ordinary course of business with the Plan Investor or its affiliates that is on terms that, in the aggregate, are materially less favorable to the Reorganized Company than would be obtainable in a comparable arms-length transaction with a person that is not an affiliate of the Plan Investor; (e) designate certain purchasers of Reorganized LPC Stock as the same class of securityholder as the Management Members; and (f) grant registration rights on a basis that have priority over the registration rights granted to the Management Members and the Plan Investor, except with respect to rights granted based on the size of such investor's holdings.
- (iii) Transfer Restrictions. The Management Members agree that prior to the occurrence of a public offering of the stock of Reorganized LPC resulting in a market float of greater than $50 million (a "Qualified IPO"), the Management Members generally may not transfer any securities except to certain permitted transferees (such as, among other things, certain estate planning transfers, transfers to family members or other members of the group of Management Members) or with the consent of the Plan Investor. Following a Qualified IPO, should one occur, the Management Members may transfer securities without the consent of the Plan Investor in a sale to the public pursuant to an effective registration statement of Reorganized LPC or pursuant to Rule 144, except that under certain specified circumstances such sales may be delayed due to pending or proposed corporate transactions, registrations for the sale of securities or sales of greater than five percent (5%) of the outstanding New LPC Common Stock by the Plan Investor.
- (iv) Tag-Along/Co-Sale Rights. Subject to certain conditions, prior to a Qualified IPO, any stockholder will generally be entitled to participate pro rata in any sale by any other stockholder of New LPC Common Stock to a third party on a proportional basis on the same terms and conditions (including the price and form of consideration), except in the following circumstances: (a) sales of shares of New LPC Common Stock to the public pursuant to a registration statement filed under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or pursuant to Rule 144 thereunder; (b) transfers to certain permitted transferees; (c) a transaction or series of transactions involving the transfer of less than one percent (1%) of the issued and outstanding shares of New LPC Common Stock; (d) a transaction or series of transactions involving the transfer of New LPC Common Stock by the Plan Investor or any of its affiliates that results in the Plan Investor or any of its affiliates retaining ownership of 51% or greater of the issued and outstanding shares of New LPC Common Stock after giving effect to the sale; (e) shares of New LPC Common Stock purchased by Reorganized LPC or any other securityholder pursuant the right of first refusal described below; or (f) shares of New LPC Common Stock purchased in connection with a potential acquisition due to the drag-along rights described below.

- (v) Rights of First Refusal. Prior to a Qualified IPO, the Plan Investor will have the right of first refusal on any sales of securities of Reorganized LPC by Management Members. In the event the Plan Investor elects not to exercise such rights, Reorganized LPC will have a similar right of first refusal. Such rights of first refusal will apply to certain proposed transfers of securities of Reorganized LPC as well as certain involuntary transfers of securities of Reorganized LPC (such as foreclosures, transfers in connection with a bankruptcy by the holder and similar matters). The rights of first refusal shall not apply to: (a) transfers to any affiliate of the transferor, or to certain permitted transferees; (b) transfers to the Plan Investor or its affiliates; (c) transfers to Reorganized LPC; (d) any sale to the public pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act or Rule 144; (e) transfers pursuant to tag-along rights described above; or (f) transfers pursuant to drag-along rights described below.
- (vi) Drag-Along Rights. Prior to a Qualified IPO, the Plan Investor will have the right to require all other holders to join in any sale by the Plan Investor of New LPC Common Stock to a third party in any transaction in which the Plan Investor is selling all of its New LPC Common Stock on the same terms and conditions and for the same consideration. In the event that all or substantially all of the assets of Reorganized LPC are proposed to be sold, the holders of New LPC Common Stock other than the Plan Investor will agree to vote in favor of such a transaction.
- (vii) Preemptive Rights. Each party to the Securityholders Agreement shall have the preemptive rights to purchase any additional Reorganized LPC Stock (or other securities convertible into Reorganized LPC Stock) proposed to be sold by Reorganized LPC from time to time ratably in accordance with such party's ownership of New LPC Common Stock. The preemptive rights shall not apply to: (a) New LPC Common Stock issued at the time of entry into the Securityholders Agreement; (b) securities offered to the public pursuant to a registration statement; (c) securities issued in certain corporate transactions approved by the board of directors of Reorganized LPC; (d) New LPC Common Stock issued as compensation to employees, officers, directors and consultants of the Reorganized Debtors; (e) securities issued in connection with stock splits, stock dividends and recapitalizations; and (f) up to $5 million of New LPC Common Stock issued to affiliates of Plan Investor within sixty (60) days after entry into the Securityholders Agreement.

- (viii) Information Rights. So long as the Management Members continue to hold at least 2.5% of the outstanding New LPC Common Stock, subject to certain conditions, each Management Member will have the right to receive monthly financial statements, annual financial statements and the annual consolidated budget and business plan of the Reorganized Debtors.
- (ix) Registration Rights. At any time nine (9) months after a Qualified IPO, the Plan Investor will have the right to one (1) demand for public registration of its New LPC Common Stock. After a Qualified IPO, the Plan Investor and the Management Members each receive customary piggyback registration rights.

2. The Management Incentive Plan

After the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors will implement a certain management incentive plan (the "Management Incentive Plan") pursuant to which the Reorganized Debtors will issue ten-year warrants or options to certain members of management exercisable for 20% of the New LPC Common Stock ~~after~~before dilution (the "MIP Warrants"). The MIP Warrants will be exercisable initially at a price equal to $10.00 per share, increasing at the rate of 20% per annum. The final terms of the Management Incentive Plan are still under negotiation.

In addition to the MIP Warrants, the Reorganized Debtors may issue warrants or options to certain members of the Reorganized Debtors' board of directors who are not employees of the Plan Investor which may equal up to 3% of the New LPC Common Stock on a fully diluted basis.

3. Employment Agreements

As one of the closing conditions to the Stock Purchase Agreement, among others, after the Effective Date, Mr. Lubin and Mr. Delano will enter into certain employment agreements with the Reorganized Debtors, which must be acceptable to the Plan Investor. The Plan Supplement will include a disclosure of any compensation for any officer of the Reorganized Debtors or member of the new Boards who is an "insider" under the Bankruptcy Code.

V.

THE PLAN

This Section of the Disclosure Statement summarizes the Plan, which is attached hereto as Exhibit A. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Plan. To the extent any inconsistencies exist between the Disclosure Statement and Plan, the Plan governs.

A. Summary and Treatment of Unclassified Claims

The Plan does not classify all Claims and Interests. In particular, Claims incurred during the course of the Chapter 11 Cases (i.e., Administrative Expense Claims) and Priority Tax Claims are unclassified. A summary of these Claims is set forth below.

1. Administrative Expense Claims

Administrative Expense Claims are the actual and necessary costs and expenses of the Chapter 11 Cases that are allowed under sections 503(b) and 507(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. Such expenses include, but are not limited to, amounts owed to vendors providing goods and services to the Debtors during the Chapter 11 Cases and tax obligations incurred after the Commencement Date. Other Administrative Expense Claims include the actual, reasonable, and necessary professional fees and expenses of the advisors to the Debtors and Creditors' Committee that were incurred during the pendency of the Chapter 11 Cases.

Such notice must include at a minimum (i) the name of the Debtor(s) that are purported to be liable for the Claim, (ii) the name of the holder of the Claim, (iii) the amount of the Claim, and (iv) the basis for the Claim. Failure to file and serve such notice timely and properly will result in the Administrative Expense Claim being forever barred and discharged.

(b) Allowance of Administrative Expense Claims. An Administrative Expense Claim with respect to which notice has been properly filed and served pursuant to Section 2.1(a) of the Plan will become an Allowed Administrative Expense Claim if no objection is filed on or prior to the Administrative Expense Claims Objection Deadline. If an objection is timely filed, the Administrative Expense Claim will become an Allowed Administrative Expense Claim only to the extent allowed by Final Order or as such Claim is settled, compromised, or otherwise resolved by the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors pursuant to Section 7.4 of the Plan.

(c) Payment of Allowed Administrative Expense Claims. Except to the extent that a holder of an Allowed Administrative Expense Claim (other than a claim covered by Section 2.2, 2.3, or 2.4 of the Plan) agrees to a less favorable treatment, each Allowed Administrative Expense Claim (including any Allowed Claim asserted under section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code) will be paid by the Reorganized Debtors in full, in Cash, in an amount equal to the unpaid portion of such Allowed Administrative Expense Claim on or as soon as reasonably practicable following the later to occur of (i) the Effective Date or (ii) the date on which such Administrative Expense Claim becomes an Allowed Claim; provided, however, that Allowed Administrative Expense Claims (other than a claim covered by Section 2.2, 2.3 or 2.4 of the Plan) against any of the Debtors representing liabilities incurred in the ordinary course of business by any of the Debtors, as Debtors in Possession, or liabilities arising under loans or advances to or other obligations incurred by any of the Debtors, as Debtors in Possession, whether or not incurred in the ordinary course of business, will be paid by the Debtors in the ordinary course of business, consistent with past practice and in accordance with the terms and subject to the conditions of any agreements governing, instruments evidencing, or other documents relating to such transactions.

2. Professional Compensation and Reimbursement Claims

Professional Compensation and Reimbursement Claims are Administrative Expense Claims of professionals seeking compensation for services rendered or reimbursement of expenses incurred through and including the Effective Date under sections 328 and 330 of the Bankruptcy Code.

In the Confirmation Order, the Bankruptcy Court will fix a deadline to file, and set a hearing date to consider, all applications for allowance of Administrative Expense Claims for professional services rendered and expenses incurred through and including the Confirmation Date. Each holder of such a Claim will be paid in Cash in the amount of its Allowed Administrative Expense Claim as soon as practicable following the later of (i) the Effective Date or (ii) the date which such Claim is Allowed. The Debtors are authorized to pay professionals compensation for services rendered and reimburse expenses incurred after the Confirmation Date and until the Effective Date in the ordinary course of business without the need for Bankruptcy Court approval.

3. Indenture Trustee Fee Claims

Indenture Trustee Fee Claims are Administrative Expense Claims of the Indenture Trustee for reimbursement of its reasonable accrued and unpaid fees and expenses under the Indenture including any reasonable fees and expenses of its legal counsel. The Indenture grants the Indenture Trustee a lien (the "Charging Lien") upon and priority in payment with respect to any distributions to holders of the Senior Subordinated Note Claims for payment of any Indenture Trustee Fees Claims arising prior to the Effective Date.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, any fees of the Indenture Trustee for services related to distributions pursuant to the Plan will be paid by the Reorganized LPC after the Effective Date in the ordinary course of business in Cash without the need for an application to, or approval of, any court. The Indenture Trustee's Charging Lien will be discharged solely upon payment in full of the Indenture Trustee Fee Claims. Nothing in the Plan ~~will~~ is deemed to impair, waive, or discharge the Charging Lien ~~with respect to~~ for any fees ~~or~~ and expenses not paid by Reorganized LPC.

4. Debtor in Possession Loan Claims

DIP Loan Claims are all Claims arising under the DIP Note and the DIP Financing Order with respect to the DIP Note. As consented to by the DIP Lenders, holders of the DIP Loan Claims will receive, in full satisfaction thereof, (i) 400,000 shares of New LPC Common Stock, and (ii) on or as soon as reasonably practicable following the Effective Date, payment in Cash of all accrued and unpaid interest through the Effective Date.

5. Priority Tax Claims

A Priority Tax Claim is any Claim of a governmental unit of the kind entitled to priority in payment as specified in sections 502(i) and 507(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Each holder of an Allowed Priority Tax Claim will receive, at the Debtors' or the Reorganized Debtors' option, (i) Cash in the amount of its Allowed Priority Tax Claim on or as soon as practicable following the later of (a) the Effective Date and (b) the date such Claim is Allowed; (ii) equal semi-annual Cash payments in the aggregate amount of its Allowed Priority Tax Claim, with interest at the applicable non-bankruptcy rate, commencing as soon as reasonably practicable after the later of the (a) the Effective Date or (b) the date such Claim is Allowed and continuing over an eighteen (18) month period (but in no event exceeding five (5) years after the Commencement Date); or (iii) such other treatment as will be determined by the Bankruptcy Court to provide the holder of such Allowed Priority Tax Claim deferred Cash payments having a value, as of the Effective Date, equal to such Allowed Priority Tax Claim.

6. Intercompany Claims

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, on the Effective Date, Intercompany Claims will be reinstated and treated in the ordinary course of business.

B. Classification and Treatment of Classified Claims and Interests

Pursuant to the Plan, there are a total of 19 Classes, with Classes 1 through 12 being Claims against or Interests in LPC and Classes 13 through 19 being Claims against or Interests in LRGI.

Unless indicated otherwise, all distributions will be in full satisfaction of each Allowed Claim or Interest and will be made as soon as reasonably practicable after the later of (i) the Effective Date or (ii) in the case of a Claim, the date such Claim is Allowed. Further, claimholders can generally agree to receive less favorable treatment than the treatment provided for by the Plan. Unless otherwise indicated, the Debtors have based the characteristics of the Claims or Interests on the Debtors' books and records.

1. Claims against and Interests in LPC

a. Class 1 – Other Priority Claims against LPC (Unimpaired)

Class 1 Claims are Claims against LPC of a type identified in section 507(a) of the Bankruptcy Code as being entitled to priority in payment (other than Administrative Expense Claims and Priority Tax Claims).

Each holder of an Allowed Other Priority Claim against LPC will receive Cash in the amount of its Allowed Other Priority Claims against LPC. Because Class 1 Claims are not impaired pursuant to the Plan, holders of Other Priority Claims against LPC are conclusively presumed to have accepted the Plan and are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

b. Class 2(a) – CapitalSource Secured Claims against LPC (Impaired)

Class 2(a) Claims are all Claims against LPC arising under the Prepetition Credit Agreement and all Claims of CapitalSource, as agent under the Prepetition Credit Agreement and all lenders thereunder, for adequate protection arising under the Final Cash Collateral Order less all payments made subsequent to the Commencement Date in respect of and Claims under the Final Cash Collateral Order. The Allowed CapitalSource Secured Claim is comprised of outstanding principal amounts as well as the capitalization of certain Prepetition Revolver Lender fees and expenses, including a success fee, which are described in more detail in the Amended and Restated Secured CapitalSource Credit Agreement. The CapitalSource Secured Claim will be Allowed on the Effective Date in an amount stipulated by the Debtors, the Plan Investor and CapitalSource, as collateral agent and administrative agent for itself and other lenders under the Prepetition Credit Agreement, and approved in a Final Order entered by the Bankruptcy Court prior to the date of the Confirmation Hearing.

Each holder of an Allowed CapitalSource Secured Claim against LPC will receive payments over time as provided in the Amended and Restated Secured CapitalSource Credit Agreement beginning on or as soon as reasonably practicable after the later of (i) the Effective Date and (ii) the date such Claim becomes Allowed, except that all actual and reasonable fees, costs, and expenses of the Prepetition Revolver Lenders (including, without limitation, any attorneys' fees and any financial advisors' fees) incurred during the Chapter 11 Cases that have not been paid in accordance with the terms of the Final Cash Collateral Order through the Effective Date, or that have been incurred in connection with the transactions contemplated under this Plan through the Effective Date, will be paid in full in Cash on the Effective Date in an amount not to exceed, when combined with similar amounts owing to the Prepetition Term Loan Lenders, $375,000. An Amended and Restated Secured CapitalSource Credit Agreement is attached as Exhibit 1.7 to the Plan and a summary thereof is attached as Exhibit H hereto. Because Class 2(a) Claims are impaired pursuant to the Plan, holders of CapitalSource Secured Claims against LPC are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

c. Class 2(b) – CSE Secured Claims against LPC (Impaired)

Class 2(b) Claims are all Claims against LPC arising under the Prepetition Loan Agreement and all Claims of CSE, as agent under the Prepetition Loan Agreement and all lenders thereunder, for adequate protection under the Final Cash Collateral Order less all payments made subsequent to the Commencement Date in respect of and Claims under the Final Cash Collateral Order. The Allowed CSE Secured Claim is comprised of outstanding principal amounts as well as the capitalization of certain Prepetition Term Loan Lender fees and expenses, including a success fee, which are described in more detail in the Amended and Restated Secured CSE Loan Agreement. The CSE Secured Claim will be Allowed on the Effective Date in an amount stipulated by the Debtors, the Plan Investor and CSE, as collateral agent for itself and other lenders under the Prepetition Loan Agreement, and approved in a Final Order entered by the Bankruptcy Court prior to the date of the Confirmation Hearing.

Each holder of an Allowed CSE Secured Claim against LPC will receive payments over time as provided in the Amended and Restated Secured CSE Loan Agreement beginning on or as soon as reasonably practicable after the later of (i) the Effective Date and (ii) the date such Claim becomes Allowed, except that all actual and reasonable fees, costs, and expenses of the Prepetition Term Loan Lenders (including, without limitation, any attorneys' fees and any financial advisors' fees) incurred during the Chapter 11 Cases that have not been paid in accordance with the terms of the Final Cash Collateral Order through the Effective Date, or that have been incurred in connection with the transactions contemplated under this Plan through the Effective Date, will be paid in full in Cash on the Effective Date in an amount not to exceed, when combined with similar amounts owing to the Prepetition Revolver Lenders, $375,000. An Amended and Restated Secured CSE Loan Agreement is attached as Exhibit 1.9 to the Plan and a summary thereof is attached as Exhibit I hereto. Because Class 2(b) Claims are impaired pursuant to the Plan, holders of CSE Secured Claims against LPC are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

d. Class 3 – Secured Tax Claims against LPC (Unimpaired)

Class 3 Claims are Claims against LPC that, absent their status as Secured Claims, would be entitled to priority in payment under section 507(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code, and includes any interest on such Secured Tax Claim against LPC that is required to be paid pursuant to section 506(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Each holder of an Allowed Secured Tax Claim against LPC will receive, at the Debtors' election, either: (i) Cash in the amount of its Allowed Secured Tax Claim against LPC; (ii) equal semi-annual Cash payments in the aggregate amount of its Allowed Secured Tax Claim against LPC, with interest at the applicable non-bankruptcy rate, commencing as soon as reasonably practicable after the later of (a) the Effective Date and (b) the date such Claim is Allowed and continuing over an eighteen (18) month period (but in no event exceeding five (5) years after the Commencement Date); or (iii) such other treatment as will be determined by the Bankruptcy Court to provide the holder of such Allowed Secured Tax Claim against LPC deferred Cash payments having a value, as of the Effective Date, equal to such Allowed Secured Tax Claim against LPC. Because Class 3 Claims are not impaired pursuant to the Plan, holders of Secured Tax Claims against LPC are conclusively presumed to have accepted the Plan and are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

e. Class 4 – Other Secured Claims against LPC (Unimpaired)

Class 4 Claims are all Secured Claims against LPC other than CapitalSource Secured Claims, CSE Secured Claims, and Secured Tax Claims and includes any interest on such Other Secured Claims against LPC that is required to be paid pursuant to section 506(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

At the option of LPC or Reorganized LPC, the Debtors may (i) reinstate any Other Secured Claim against LPC or (ii) distribute to each holder of an Allowed Other Secured Claim against LPC (w) Cash in the amount of such Claim, (x) the sale or disposition of proceeds of the Collateral securing such Claim, including any interest to be paid pursuant to section 506(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, up to the value of the holder's security interest, (y) the Collateral securing such Claim and any interest on such Claim to be paid pursuant to section 506(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, or (z) such other distribution as necessary to satisfy the requirements of section 1124 of the Bankruptcy Code. In the event the Debtors elect to treat the Claim under clauses (w) or (x) of this Section, the Liens securing such Claim will be deemed released. Because Class 4 Claims are not impaired pursuant to the Plan, holders of Other Secured Claims against LPC are conclusively presumed to have accepted the Plan and are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

f. Class 5 – Senior Subordinated Note Claims (Impaired)

Class 5 Claims are all Claims against LPC arising under the Senior Subordinated Notes issued pursuant to that certain Indenture, dated December 18, 2003, between Wilmington Trust Company, as Indenture Trustee, and LPC, as issuer, ~~which will include accrued and postpetition interest at 12% per annum~~ for principal and accrued prepetition interest at a rate set forth in the Indenture. For the avoidance of doubt, Senior Subordinated Note Claims exclude interest accruing from and after the Commencement Date.

As soon as reasonably practicable after the later of (i) the Effective Date and (ii) the date such Claim becomes Allowed, each holder of an Allowed Senior Subordinated Note Claim will receive, in full satisfaction of its Allowed Senior Subordinated Note Claim, Cash in the amount equal to the Cash-Out Percentage; provided, however, that in lieu of such distribution, such holder may instead elect to receive, in full satisfaction of its Allowed Senior Subordinated Note Claim, a number of shares of New LPC Common Stock equal to (x) the product of the Allowed Senior Subordinated Note Claim and the Cash-Out Percentage (i.e., 51%), divided by (y) $10.00 (the “Class 5 Stock Election”). Because Class 5 Claims are impaired pursuant to the Plan, holders of Allowed Senior Subordinated Note Claims are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

g. Class 6 – Junior Subordinated Note Claims (Impaired)

Class 6 Claims are all Claims against LPC arising under the Junior Subordinated Note issued by LPC to Michael A. Lubin on December 13, 2003, which will include accrued and postpetition interest at 13% per annum.

As agreed to by the holder of the Junior Subordinated Note, the Junior Subordinated Note shall be cancelled. The Holder of Junior Subordinated Note Claims will not receive a distribution under the Plan and, accordingly, is deemed to have voted to reject the Plan.

h. Class 7 – General Unsecured Claims against LPC (Impaired)

Class 7 Claims are all Unsecured Claims against LPC not classified in any other Class (i.e., Classes 5, 6, 8, or 9).

Each holder of an Allowed General Unsecured Claim against LPC will receive Cash payments in the aggregate amount of 85.4% of such claim as follows, (i) eight percent (8%) of its Allowed General Unsecured Claim against LPC will be paid in Cash as soon as reasonably practicable after the later of (a) the Effective Date and (b) the date such Claim becomes Allowed and (ii) an additional nine (9) equal quarterly Cash payments, each in an amount equal to eight and six-tenths percent (8.6%) of its Allowed General Unsecured Claim against LPC, commencing three (3) months after the later of (a) the Effective Date and (b) the date such Claim becomes Allowed; provided, however, that in lieu of such distribution and in full satisfaction of its Claim, such holder may instead elect to receive a Cash payment in an amount equal to 51% of such Allowed Claim on the later of (x) the Effective Date or (y) the date such Claim becomes Allowed. This stream of payments has a net present value \(using a discount rate of 6% per annum\) of 80% of the Allowed Claims. Because Class 7 Claims are impaired pursuant to the Plan, holders of Allowed General Unsecured Claims against LPC are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

i. Class 8 – Convenience Claims against LPC (Unimpaired)

Class 8 Claims comprise all Unsecured Claims against LPC that are (i) Allowed in the amount of $2,000.00 or less, or (ii) Allowed in a larger amount but reduced to $2,000 by the holder of such Claim.

As described in greater detail in the Disclosure Statement Order, any holder of an Unsecured Claim that elects to reduce the amount of such Claim to $2,000.00 or less must elect to reduce its Claim on its ballot and return the ballot to the Voting Agent before the Voting

Deadline. Any holder of an Unsecured Claim electing to reduce its Claim does not need to vote to accept the Plan to exercise its election.

Each holder of an Allowed Convenience Claim against LPC will receive Cash in the amount of its Allowed Convenience Claim against LPC and, accordingly, Class 8 is not impaired. Because Class 8 Claims are not impaired pursuant to the Plan, holders of Convenience Claims against LPC are conclusively presumed to have accepted the Plan and are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

j. Class 9 – Asbestos-Related Claims (Impaired)

Class 9 Claims are any Asbestos-Related Claims, including Claims arising out of pending litigation against LPC before the Court of Common Pleas in Cuyahoga County, Ohio.

After the Effective Date, each Asbestos-Related Claim will be adjudicated in the forum in which such Claim had been pending prior to the Commencement Date; provided, however, that any claimant who has filed an Asbestos-Related Claim, but has not commenced a proceeding prior to the Commencement Date, will promptly as possible after the Effective Date commence a proceeding in a court of competent jurisdiction other than the Bankruptcy Court, subject to any and all defenses that any defendant may have thereto, including without limitation, statute of limitations, laches, and any other defenses. To the extent that the proceeds of the Asbestos Insurance Policies are sufficient to cover the recovery on any Asbestos-Related Claim as determined by a final and non-appealable order or judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction (the “Adjudication Amount”), the holders of such Asbestos-Related Claims will be permanently and forever stayed, restrained, and enjoined from taking any action for the purpose of, directly or indirectly, collecting, recovering, or receiving payment of, on, or with respect to any Asbestos-Related Claim against the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors (other than against the Asbestos Insurance Policies).

To the extent the proceeds of the Asbestos Insurance Policies are not sufficient to cover the entire Adjudication Amount for any specific Asbestos-Related Claim, the Reorganized Debtors will pay in Cash as promptly as possible after the determination of the Adjudication Amount of such Asbestos-Related Claim 80% of the difference between such Adjudication Amount and the proceeds of the Asbestos Insurance Policies (the “Insurance Proceeds Deficiency”); provided, however, that if the Insurance Proceeds Deficiency exceeds $2,000, the holder of such Asbestos-Related Claim will receive (a) ~~(i)~~ Cash in the amount of eight percent (8%) of such Insurance Proceeds Deficiency as soon as reasonably practicable after the date of determination of the Adjudication Amount of such Asbestos-Related Claim, and ~~(ii)~~ an additional nine (9) equal quarterly Cash payments, each equal to eight and six-tenths percent (8.6%) of such Insurance Proceeds Deficiency, commencing three (3) months after the later of ~~(x)~~ the Effective Date and ~~(y)~~ the date such Claim is Allowed ~~or (b) in lieu of such distribution.~~ This stream of payments has a net present value (using a discount rate of 6% per annum) of 80% of such Insurance Proceeds Deficiency, as of the date such Claim becomes Allowed. In lieu of such stream of payments and in full satisfaction of its Claim, such holder may elect to receive a Cash payment in an amount equal to 51% of the Insurance Proceeds Deficiency on the later of ~~(x)~~ the Effective Date or ~~(y)~~ the date such Claim becomes Allowed.

Nothing in this Disclosure Statement or the Plan is an admission of any liability by the Debtors or insurance coverage by Liberty Mutual or Fireman's Fund. Further, the treatment provided to holders of Asbestos-Related Claims is not an admission of any liability by the Debtors or insurance coverage by Liberty Mutual or Fireman's Fund.

k. Class 10 – Series B Preferred Stock Interests (Impaired)

Class 10 Interests are Interests in LPC arising from issued and outstanding shares of Lexington Precision $8 Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock, Series B.

On the Effective Date, the Series B Preferred Stock Interests will be cancelled. Holders of Series B Preferred Stock Interests will not receive any distributions under the Plan and, accordingly, are deemed to have voted to reject the Plan.

l. Class 11 – LPC Common Stock Interests (Impaired)

Class 11 LPC Common Stock Interests are Interests of any holder of LPC Common Stock.

On the Effective Date, the LPC Common Stock will be cancelled. Holders of LPC Common Stock Interests will not receive any distributions under the Plan and, accordingly, are deemed to have voted to reject the Plan.

m. Class 12 – Other Equity Interests in LPC (Impaired)

Class 12 Other Equity Interests are Interests of any holder of an equity security of any of the Debtors represented by any instrument evidencing an ownership interest in any of the Debtors, whether or not transferable, or any option, warrant, or right, contractual or otherwise, to acquire any such interest, excluding the LPC Common Stock Interests and the Series B Preferred Stock Interests.

All Other Equity Interests will be cancelled. Holders of Other Equity Interests will not receive any distributions on account of such Interests and, accordingly, are deemed to have voted to reject the Plan.

2. Claims against and Interests in LRGI

a. Class 13 – Other Priority Claims against LRGI (Unimpaired)

Class 13 Claims are Claims against LRGI of a type identified in section 507(a) of the Bankruptcy Code as entitled to priority in payment (other than Administrative Expense Claims and Priority Tax Claims).

Each holder of an Allowed Other Priority Claim against LRGI will receive Cash in the amount equal of its Allowed Other Priority Claim against LRGI. Because Class 13 Claims are not impaired pursuant to the Plan, holders of Other Priority Claims against LRGI are conclusively presumed to have accepted the Plan and are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

b. Class 14(a) – CapitalSource Secured Claims against LRGI (Impaired)

Class 14(a) Claims are all Claims against LRGI arising under the Prepetition Credit Agreement and all Claims of CapitalSource, as agent under the Prepetition Credit Agreement and all lenders thereunder, for adequate protection arising under the Final Cash Collateral Order less all payments made subsequent to the Commencement Date in respect of and Claims under the Final Cash Collateral Order. The Allowed CapitalSource Secured Claim is comprised of outstanding principal amounts as well as the capitalization of certain Prepetition Revolver Lender fees and expenses, including a success fee, which are described in more detail in the Amended and Restated Secured CapitalSource Credit Agreement. The CapitalSource Secured Claim will be Allowed on the Effective Date in an amount stipulated by the Debtors, the Plan Investor and CapitalSource, as collateral agent and administrative agent for itself and other lenders under the Prepetition Credit Agreement, and approved in a Final Order entered by the Bankruptcy Court prior to the date of the Confirmation Hearing.

Each holder of an Allowed CapitalSource Secured Claim against LRGI will receive payments over time as provided in the Amended and Restated Secured CapitalSource Credit Agreement beginning on or as soon as reasonably practicable after the later of (i) the Effective Date and (ii) the date such Claim becomes Allowed, except that all actual and reasonable fees, costs, and expenses of the Prepetition Revolver Lenders (including, without limitation, any attorneys' fees and any financial advisors' fees) incurred during the Chapter 11 Cases that have not been paid in accordance with the terms of the Final Cash Collateral Order through the Effective Date, or that have been incurred in connection with the transactions contemplated under this Plan through the Effective Date, will be paid in full in Cash on the Effective Date in an amount not to exceed, when combined with similar amounts owing to the Prepetition Term Loan Lenders, $375,000. An Amended and Restated Secured CapitalSource Credit Agreement is attached as Exhibit 1.7 to the Plan and a summary thereof is attached as Exhibit H hereto. Because Class 14(a) Claims are impaired pursuant to the Plan, holders of CapitalSource Secured Claims against LRGI are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

c. Class 14(b) – CSE Secured Claims against LRGI (Impaired)

Class 14(b) Claims are all Claims against LRGI arising under the Prepetition Loan Agreement and all Claims of CSE, as agent under the Prepetition Loan Agreement and all lenders thereunder, for adequate protection under the Final Cash Collateral Order less all payments made subsequent to the Commencement Date in respect of and Claims under the Final Cash Collateral Order. The Allowed CSE Secured Claim is comprised of outstanding principal amounts as well as the capitalization of certain Prepetition Term Loan Lender fees and expenses, including a success fee, which are described in more detail in the Amended and Restated Secured CSE Loan Agreement. The CSE Secured Claim will be Allowed on the Effective Date in an amount stipulated by the Debtors, the Plan Investor and CSE, as collateral agent for itself and other lenders under the Prepetition Loan Agreement, and approved in a Final Order entered by the Bankruptcy Court prior to the date of the Confirmation Hearing.

Each holder of an Allowed CSE Secured Claim against LRGI will receive payments over time as provided in the Amended and Restated Secured CSE Loan Agreement beginning on or as soon as reasonably practicable after the later of (i) the Effective Date and (ii) the date such Claim becomes Allowed, except that all actual and reasonable fees, costs, and expenses of the Prepetition Term Loan Lenders (including, without limitation, any attorneys' fees and any financial advisors' fees) incurred during the Chapter 11 Cases that have not been paid in accordance with the terms of the Final Cash Collateral Order through the Effective Date, or that have been incurred in connection with the transactions contemplated under this Plan through the Effective Date, will be paid in full in Cash on the Effective Date in an amount not to exceed, when combined with similar amounts owing to the Prepetition Revolver Lenders, $375,000. An Amended and Restated Secured CSE Loan Agreement is attached as Exhibit 1.9 to the Plan and a summary thereof is attached as Exhibit I hereto. Because Class 14(b) Claims are impaired pursuant to the Plan, holders of CSE Secured Claims against LRGI are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

d. Class 15 – Secured Tax Claims against LRGI (Unimpaired)

Class 15 Claims are Claims against LRGI that, absent their status as Secured Claims, would be entitled to priority in payment under section 507(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code, and includes any interest on such Secured Tax Claim against LRGI that is required to be paid pursuant to section 506(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Each holder of an Allowed Secured Tax Claim against LRGI will receive, at the Debtors' election, either: (i) Cash in the amount of its Allowed Secured Tax Claim against LRGI; (ii) equal semi-annual Cash payments in the aggregate amount of its Allowed Secured Tax Claim against LRGI with interest at the applicable non-bankruptcy rate, commencing as soon as reasonably practicable after the later of (a) the Effective Date and (b) the date such Claim is Allowed and continuing over an eighteen (18) month period (but in no event exceeding five (5) years after the Commencement Date); or (iii) such other treatment as will be determined by the Bankruptcy Court to provide the holder of such Allowed Secured Tax Claim against LRGI deferred Cash payments having a value, as of the Effective Date, equal to such Allowed Secured Claim against LRGI. Because Class 15 Claims are not impaired pursuant to the Plan, holders of Secured Tax Claims against LRGI are conclusively presumed to have accepted the Plan and are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

e. Class 16 – Other Secured Claims against LRGI (Unimpaired)

Class 16 Claims are all Secured Claims against LRGI other than CapitalSource Secured Claims, CSE Secured Claims, and Secured Tax Claims and includes any interest on such Other Secured Claim against LRGI that is required to be paid pursuant to section 506(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

At the option of LRGI or Reorganized LRGI, the Debtors may (i) reinstate any Other Secured Claim against LRGI or (ii) distribute to each holder of an Allowed Other Secured Claim against LRGI (w) Cash in the amount of such Claim, (x) the sale or disposition proceeds of the Collateral securing such Claim, including any interest to be paid pursuant to section 506(b)

In the event the Debtors elect to treat the Claim under clauses (w) or (x) of this Section, the Liens securing such Claim will be deemed released. Because Class 16 Claims are not impaired pursuant to the Plan, holders of Other Secured Claims against LRGI are conclusively presumed to have accepted the Plan and are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

f. Class 17 – General Unsecured Claims against LRGI (Impaired)

Class 17 Claims are all Unsecured Claims against LRGI not classified in Class 18.

~~The Plan's default treatment of Class 17 Claims is payment in Cash over time with postpetition and post-Effective Date interest. A holder of a Class 17 Claim, however, can elect to receive a reduced Cash payment upfront. Under the default treatment, each holder of an Allowed General Unsecured Claim against LRGI will receive the sum of 100% of its Allowed General Unsecured Claim plus interest on such Allowed General Unsecured Claim from the Commencement Date through the Effective Date (the "Postpetition Interest"), which sum will be paid over time in Cash in ten (10) quarterly payments with interest from the Effective Date through the date of the last payment (the "Post-Effective Date Interest"). The rate of the Postpetition Interest will be the federal judgment rate or such other rate as the Bankruptcy Court may determine. The rate of the Post-Effective Date Interest will be % or such other amount as the Bankruptcy Court may determine is necessary to pay holders of Allowed General Unsecured Claims against LRGI in full. Instead of payment over time, a holder of an Allowed General Unsecured Claim can receive a reduced Cash payment upfront by making the Class 17 Cash Election (as described below).~~

~~More specifically~~If Class 17 accepts the Plan, each holder of an Allowed General Unsecured Claim against LRGI will receive Cash payments in the aggregate amount of ~~at least~~ 106.75% of such ~~claim (including postpetition~~Claim (which includes interest from the Commencement Date through the date of last payment) as follows, ~~(a)~~ (i) ten percent (10%) of the sum of ~~(a)~~ (i) its Allowed General Unsecured Claim against LRGI and ~~(b) ii) postpetition~~ (b) ii) postpetition interest ~~on such Allowed General Unsecured Claim~~ from the Commencement Date through and including the Effective Date, ~~calculated at the federal judgment rate or such other rate as the Bankruptcy Court may determine, which will be paid,~~ calculated at the federal judgment rate in Cash as soon as reasonably practicable after the later of the Effective Date and the date such Claim is Allowed and ~~(ii) b) an additional nine (9) equal quarterly Cash payments, each in an amount equal to either (I) ten and three quarters percent (10.75%) of the sum of (xi) their~~ (ii) b) an additional nine (9) equal quarterly Cash payments, each in an amount equal to either (I) ten and three quarters percent (10.75%) of the sum of (xi) their its Allowed General Unsecured Claim ~~against LRGI,~~ and (y) ii) postpetition interest ~~on such Allowed General Unsecured Claim~~ from the Commencement Date through and including the Effective Date, ~~calculated at the federal judgment rate or such other rate as the Bankruptcy Court may determine, or (II) such other amount as the Bankruptcy Court may determine is necessary to pay holders of Allowed General Unsecured Claims against LRGI in full, to be paid,~~ calculated at the federal judgment rate commencing three (3) months after the later of ~~(a) the Effective Date or (b) and~~ (a) the Effective Date or (b) and the date such Claim is Allowed; ~~provided, however, that in~~

~~lieu of such distribution and in full satisfaction its claims, such~~. The Plan does not contain any protective covenants for the treatment of the Class 17 Claims.

If Class 17 does not accept the Plan, each holder of an Allowed General Unsecured Claim against LRGI will receive the following stream of Cash payments: (a) an initial Cash payment, payable as soon as practicable after the later of the Effective Date and the date such Claim becomes Allowed, equal to ten percent (10%) of the sum of (i) its Allowed General Unsecured Claim against LRGI and (ii) postpetition interest from the Commencement Date through and including the Effective Date at the rate determined by the Bankruptcy Court and (b) an additional nine (9) quarterly payments, each in an amount determined by the Bankruptcy Court to be adequate to satisfy in full Allowed General Unsecured Claims against LRGI.

In either case, each holder may instead elect to receive Cash in an amount equal to ~~51.051~~ % of the sum of (i) its Allowed Claim and the Postpetition Interest General Unsecured Claim and (ii) postpetition interest from the Commencement Date through and including the Effective Date at the federal judgment rate on the later of (x) the Effective Date and (y) the date such Claim becomes Allowed (the “Class 17 Cash Election”).

Because Class 17 Claims are impaired pursuant to the Plan, holders of General Unsecured Claim against LRGI are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

g. Class 18 – Convenience Claims against LRGI (Unimpaired)

Class 18 Claims comprise all Unsecured Claims against LRGI that are (i) Allowed in the amount of $2,000.00 or less, or (ii) Allowed in a larger amount but reduced to $2,000.00 by the holder of such Claim.

As described in greater detail in the Disclosure Statement Order, any holder of an Unsecured Claim that elects to reduce the amount of such Claim to $2,000.00 or less must elect to reduce its Claim on its ballot and return the ballot to the Voting Agent before the Voting Deadline. Any holder of an Unsecured Claim electing to reduce its Claim does not need to vote to accept the Plan to exercise its election.

Each holder of an Allowed Convenience Class Claim will receive Cash in the amount of its Allowed Convenience Claim against LRGI plus interest on such Allowed Convenience Claim from the Commencement Date through and including the Effective Date calculated at the federal judgment rate or such other rate as the Bankruptcy Court may determine. Because Class 18 Claims are not impaired pursuant to the Plan, holders of Convenience Claims against LRGI are conclusively presumed to have accepted the Plan and are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

h. Class 19 – Interests in LRGI (Unimpaired)

Class 19 Equity Interests are all Interests in LRGI, all of which are owned by LPC. All the Interests in LRGI will be unaltered. Because Class 19 Equity Interests are not impaired pursuant to the Plan, the holder of Interests in LRGI is conclusively presumed to have accepted the Plan and is not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

C. Distributions Pursuant to the Plan

1. Distributions

A Disbursing Agent will make all distributions under the Plan. For all distributions except those made with respect to Allowed Senior Subordinated Notes, Reorganized LPC or its designated agent will be the Disbursing Agent. For distributions made with respect to Allowed Senior Subordinated Notes, the Indenture Trustee, or such other entity as designated by the Debtors, will be the Disbursing Agent.

With respect to Claims, the Disbursement Record Date is three (3) days after the Confirmation Date, at which time the claims registry will be closed. The Disbursing Agent will make distributions to all parties listed in the claims registry as of the Disbursement Record Date based upon the last known address of each party as reflected in the Debtors' schedules, books and records, or in any proofs of claim filed. Any Cash distribution will be made by check or wire transfer or as otherwise provided by any applicable agreements.

No Cash distributions under \$50 will be made unless the holder sends a written request to the Disbursing Agent. No fractional shares of New LPC Common Stock will be distributed under the Plan. If an Allowed Claim results in distribution of a number of shares that is not a whole number, the number of share will be rounded up to the next whole number if the fraction is one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) or greater and rounded down to the next lower whole number if the fraction is less than one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$).

In the event a distribution is returned or is otherwise undeliverable, the Disbursing Agent will use reasonable efforts to locate the holder. If the distribution remains undeliverable one year after the Effective Date, the distribution will revert back to respective Reorganized Debtor.

The Debtors may, but will not be required to, set off against any Claim (for purposes of determining the Allowed amount of such Claim on which distribution will be made) any Claims of any nature whatsoever that the Debtors may have against the holder of such Claim, but neither the failure to do so nor the allowance of any Claim hereunder will constitute a waiver or release by the Debtors of any such Claim the Debtors may have against the holder of such Claim; provided, however, that the Debtors will not exercise setoff rights with respect to the respective Claims of the Prepetition Revolver Lenders, the Prepetition Term Loan Lenders and/or the Agents under the Prepetition Credit Agreement and the Prepetition Loan Agreement or the Final Cash Collateral Order.

2. Surrender or Transfer of the Senior Subordinated Notes

Unless this requirement is waived by LPC or Reorganized LPC, in order to receive any distribution, holders of the Senior Subordinated Notes Claims must surrender or, if the notes are held in the name of, or by a nominee of, the Depository Trust Company, make a book-entry transfer of their Senior Subordinated Notes to the Indenture Trustee, unless the Indenture Trustee is reasonably satisfied that the note was lost, stolen, or otherwise destroyed. If a note is lost, stolen, or otherwise destroyed, the Indenture Trustee may require the holder to (i) submit a lost instrument affidavit and post an indemnity bond, and (ii) hold the Debtors and the Indenture Trustee harmless with respect to any distributions made on any Claims arising from the lost, stolen, or otherwise destroyed note.

If a holder of a Senior Subordinated Note Claim fails to comply with these requirements, as outlined in the preceding paragraph and in Section 5.2(b) of the Plan, within one year of the Effective Date, such holder will be deemed to have no further Claim against the Debtors or their property and will not receive any distributions.

3. Withholding and Reporting Requirements

In connection with the Plan and all instruments issued in connection therewith and distributed thereon, any party issuing any instrument or making any distribution under the Plan, including any party described in Section 6.5 of the Plan, shall comply with all applicable withholding and reporting requirements imposed by any federal, state or local taxing authority, and all distributions under the Plan shall be subject to any such withholding or reporting requirements. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, each holder of an Allowed Claim that is to receive a distribution under the Plan shall have the sole and exclusive responsibility for the satisfaction and payment of any tax obligations imposed by any governmental unit, including income, withholding and other tax obligations, on account of such distribution. Any party issuing any instrument or making any distribution under the Plan has the right, but not the obligation, to not make a distribution until such holder has made arrangements satisfactory to such issuing or disbursing party for payment of any such tax obligations.

D. Implementation of the Plan and Related Documents

1. Restructuring Transactions

On or after the Effective Date, the applicable Debtors and/or the Reorganized Debtors, with the prior written consent of the Plan Investor, may enter into the Restructuring Transactions set forth in the Restructuring Transactions Notice and may take any actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effect a restructuring of their respective businesses or the overall organizational structure of the Reorganized Debtors. The Restructuring Transactions may include one or more mergers, consolidations, restructurings, conversions, dissolutions, or transfers as may be determined by the Debtors with the consent of the Plan Investor to be necessary or appropriate.

The form of each Restructuring Transaction will have to be acceptable to the Plan Investor. In the event a Restructuring Transaction is a merger transaction, upon the consummation of such Restructuring Transaction, each party to such merger shall cease to exist as a separate corporate entity and thereafter the surviving Reorganized Debtor will assume and perform the obligations of each Reorganized Debtor under the Plan.

Implementation of the Restructuring Transactions, if any, will not affect distributions under the Plan. Moreover, the requirements of the Amended and Restated Secured CapitalSource Credit Agreement and the Amended and Restated Secured CSE Loan Agreement will apply to any Restructuring Transaction to be entered into by the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors.

2. Cancellation of Documents, Agreements, and Debt Instruments

As noted in Sections V.A and V.B of this Disclosure Statement, except with respect to Interests in LRGI, Cash payments or other consideration will be distributed pursuant to the Plan in satisfaction of all Claims and Interests and any document, agreement, or debt instrument evidencing any Claim or Interest will be automatically cancelled or superseded, as applicable, upon the Effective Date without any requirement for any further act or action. Affected documents include, but are not limited to, the Prepetition Credit Agreement, the Prepetition Loan Agreement, the DIP Note, the Indenture, the Senior Subordinated Notes, the Junior Subordinated Note, the Series B Preferred Stock Interests, and shares of LPC Common Stock.

3. Charter Amendment

On the Effective Date or as soon as practicable thereafter, Reorganized LPC will file an amendment to LPC's certificate of incorporation (the "Charter Amendment") with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware. The Charter Amendment will amend LPC's certificate of incorporation in order to, among other things, issue the New LPC Common Stock.

The Plan authorizes LPC to file the Charter Amendment without any further corporate action or any action by holders of Claims or Interests.

A copy of the Charter Amendment will be included in the Plan Supplement. As described in Section V.N, the Plan Supplement will be filed at least ten (10) days prior to the Voting Deadline.

4. Stock Purchase Agreement

Pursuant to Section 5.5 of the Plan, Reorganized LPC will be authorized to enter into a Stock Purchase Agreement, substantially in the form of Exhibit 1.91 of the Plan, and to issue the shares of New LPC Common Stock contemplated thereunder without any further corporate action and without any further action by holders of Claims or Interests. Each holder of an Allowed Claim or Interest shall be required to execute and be bound by the Securityholders Agreement as a condition precedent to receiving its allocation of New LPC Common Stock. From and after the Effective Date, the Plan Investor or its designee will be entitled to receive a management fee, customary for sponsored deals of this size and type, in exchange for agreed management services to be provided to Reorganized LPC.

5. The Amended and Restated Secured CapitalSource Credit Agreement

On the Effective Date, the Debtors will be parties to a secured credit facility pursuant to the terms of the Amended and Restated Secured CapitalSource Credit Agreement attached as Exhibit 1.7 to the Plan. The obligations under the Amended and Restated Secured CapitalSource Credit Agreement will have the same security package and ranking as the loans under the Prepetition Credit Agreement.

6. The Amended and Restated Secured CSE Loan Agreement

On the Effective Date, the Debtors will be parties to a secured credit facility pursuant to the terms of the Amended and Restated Secured CSE Loan Agreement attached as Exhibit 1.9 to the Plan. The obligations under the Amended and Restated Secured CSE Loan Agreement will have the same security package and ranking as the loans under the Prepetition Loan Agreement.

7. Corporate Action, Effectuating Documents, and Further Transactions

Prior to, on or after the Effective Date, and pursuant to the Plan, the applicable Debtors and/or the Reorganized Debtors shall take any actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effect a restructuring of their respective businesses or the overall organizational structure of the Reorganized Debtors, which may include one or more mergers, consolidations, restructurings, conversions, dissolutions, transfers or liquidations as may be determined by the Plan Investor to be necessary or appropriate, which includes any Restructuring Transactions.

On the Effective Date, all matters provided for under the Plan that would otherwise require the approval of stockholders or directors of one or more of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors (including, without limitation, the filing of the Charter Amendment; the authorization and issuance of the New LPC Common Stock; any change in the size of the Boards of Directors of the Reorganized Debtors; and any removal, election or appointment, as the case may be, of directors and officers of the Reorganized Debtors) will be deemed to have been approved and such approval will be in effect from and after the Effective Date pursuant to the applicable General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, without the necessity for any further acts by the stockholders or directors of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors.

Upon confirmation of the Plan, the Reorganized Debtors will be authorized to execute, deliver, file, or record such contracts, instruments, releases, indentures, and other agreements or documents (including, without limitation, the Charter Amendment) and take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate and further evidence the terms and conditions of the Plan and any securities to be issued pursuant to the Plan.

8. Issuance of New LPC Common Stock

Pursuant to Section 5.6 of the Plan, Reorganized LPC will be authorized to issue the New LPC Common Stock on, or as soon as reasonably practicable after, the Effective Date without the need for any further corporate action and without any further action by holders of Claims or Interests. Newly issued shares of New LPC Common Stock will be distributed to holders of Allowed Senior Subordinated Note Claims pursuant to Section 4.6 of the Plan, distributed to holders of the DIP Loan Claim pursuant to Section 2.4 of the Plan, and purchased by the Plan Investor pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement.

The shares of New LPC Common Stock to be issued to holders of Allowed Senior Subordinated Note Claims and holders of the DIP Loan Claim under the Plan will be issued pursuant to an exemption from registration provided by section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code and the shares of New LPC Common Stock to be issued to the Plan Investor under the Plan will be issued pursuant to an exemption from registration provided by Section 4(2) of the Securities Act. The shares to be issued to holders of Allowed Senior Subordinated Note Claims and holders of the DIP Loan Claim will generally be freely tradable, subject to (a) any applicable restrictions of the federal and state securities laws, (b) the Securityholders Agreement, and (c) any applicable restrictions of the federal and state securities laws and the restrictions imposed on “underwriters” by section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code (discussed in greater detail in Section VII.B.11 herein, titled “Restrictions on Transfer”). All of the shares of New LPC Common Stock to be issued pursuant to the Plan shall be duly authorized, validly issued and fully paid and non-assessable. Each distribution and issuance referred to in the Plan shall be governed by the terms and conditions set forth in the Plan applicable to such distribution or issuance and by the terms and conditions of the instruments evidencing or relating to such distribution or issuance, which terms and conditions shall bind each Entity receiving such distribution or issuance.

In connection with the distribution of New LPC Common Stock to current or former employees of the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors may take whatever actions are necessary to comply with applicable federal, state, local and international tax withholding obligations, including withholding from distributions a portion of the New LPC Common Stock and selling such securities to satisfy tax withholding obligations including, without limitation, income, social security and Medicare taxes.

9. Exemption From Transfer Taxes

Pursuant to section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, the issuance, transfer, or exchange of notes or equity securities under the Plan, the creation of any mortgage, deed of trust, or other security interest, the making or assignment of any lease or sublease, the occurrence of any intercompany or other Restructuring Transaction, or the making or delivery of any deed or other instrument of transfer under, in furtherance of, or in connection with the Plan, including, without limitation, the New LPC Common Stock, the Amended and Restated Secured CapitalSource Credit Agreement, the Amended and Restated Secured CSE Loan Agreement, any merger agreements or agreements of consolidation, deeds, bills of sale, or assignments executed in connection with any of the transactions contemplated under the Plan, shall not be subject to any stamp, real estate transfer, mortgage recording, sales or use, or other similar tax. All sale transactions consummated by the Debtors and approved by the Bankruptcy Court on and after the Commencement Date through and including the Effective Date, including, without limitation, the transfers effectuated under the Plan, the sale by the Debtors of owned property pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and the assumption, assignment, and sale by the Debtors of unexpired leases of non-residential real property pursuant to section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, shall be deemed to have been made under, in furtherance of, or in connection with the Plan and, thus, shall not be subject to any stamp, real estate transfer, mortgage recording, sales or use, or other similar tax.

E. Provisions for the Treatment of Disputed Claims

1. Objections to Claims and Prosecution of Disputed Claims

Any Claim that is subject to an objection or is otherwise disputed, contingent, or unliquidated will not receive a distribution as provided under the Plan unless and until such Claim, or any portion thereof, is Allowed.

Only the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, may object to a Claim. The Debtors may object to any Claim until the Effective Date and the Reorganized Debtors may object to any Claim from and after the Effective Date. Any objections to Claims will be served and filed with the Bankruptcy Court on or before the later of (i) the one-hundred twentieth (120th) day after the Effective Date, as such date may be extended by order of the Bankruptcy Court and (ii) a date to be fixed by the Bankruptcy Court.

2. Resolution of Administrative Expense Claims and Other Claims

On and after the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors will have the authority to compromise, settle, otherwise resolve, or withdraw any objections to any Claims, including any Administrative Expense Claims or Disputed Claims, other than Professional Compensation and Reimbursement Claims, without further order of the Bankruptcy Court.

3. Claim Estimation

The Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors may request the Bankruptcy Court to estimate any Claim that is disputed, unliquidated, or contingent, regardless of whether the Claim is subject to an objection. If the Bankruptcy Court estimates a Claim, the Bankruptcy Court may elect to estimate either the amount in which the Claim is Allowed or the amount of the Claim, in which case, the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors may pursue supplementary proceedings to disallow such Claim.

All the aforementioned objection, estimation and resolution procedures are intended to be cumulative and not exclusive of one another. Claims may be estimated and subsequently compromised, settled, withdrawn, or resolved by any mechanism approved by the Bankruptcy Court.

4. Payment and Distribution on Disputed Claims

When a Disputed Claim is Allowed, the holder of such Claim will receive the distribution provided by the Plan to the extent such Claim is Allowed.

F. Prosecution of Claims Held by the Debtors

From and after the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors will, as representatives of the Debtors' estates, litigate any claims or causes of action that constituted assets of the Debtors, including, without limitation, any avoidance or recovery actions under sections 541, 544, 545, 547, 548, 549, 550, 551, and 553 of the Bankruptcy Code and any other causes of action, rights to payments of claims that may be pending on the Effective Date or other actions instituted by the Debtors.

G. Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases

1. Assumption of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases

As of the Effective Date, the Debtors will assume all executory contracts and unexpired leases to which the Debtors are a party, except for (i) any executory contract or lease that the Debtors previously assumed, assumed and assigned, or rejected pursuant to a Bankruptcy Court order, (ii) any executory contract or lease, with respect to which the Debtors served and filed before the Confirmation Date a motion to assume, assume and assign, or reject, or (iii) any executory contract or lease listed on Schedule 8.1 of the Plan Supplement.

The Debtors may amend Schedule 8.1 of the Plan Supplement at any time before the Confirmation Date. If the Debtors add an executory contract or lease to Schedule 8.1, the Debtors will provide notice to all counterparties.

Unless otherwise specified, the inclusion of any executory contract or lease on Schedule 8.1 will include any related documents such as amendments, restatements, modifications, supplements or any other document that may affect the underlying executory contract or lease, even if Schedule 8.1 does not include such documents. The inclusion of any executory contract or lease on Schedule 8.1 is not an admission that such document or any related documents is an executory contract or unexpired lease.

2. Cure of Defaults

Prior to assuming any executory contract or unexpired lease, the Debtors must cure any monetary defaults and compensate counterparties for any non-monetary defaults. At least twenty-one (21) days prior to the Confirmation Hearing, the Debtors will serve on all counterparties to executory contracts and unexpired leases a notice indicating a proposed cure amount for the respective contract or lease. Counterparties will have twenty (20) days from the date of service to object to the proposed cure amount. If any objection is filed, the Bankruptcy Court will hold a hearing to resolve such objection.

Notwithstanding Section 8.1 of the Plan and Section IV.F.1 of this Disclosure Statement, the Debtors reserve the right to reject any executory contract or lease if any objection is filed with respect to the cure amount.

3. Rejection Damage Claims

If the Debtors reject an executory contract or lease, the counterparty must assert any Claim by filing a proof of claim with the Debtors' claim agents, Epiq Bankruptcy Solutions LLC, within 30 days following the later of (i) the date of service of the notice of the Effective Date, and (ii) the date of service of the notice of such later rejection date that occurs as a result of a dispute concerning amounts necessary to cure any defaults (solely with respect to the party directly affected by such modification). If the counterparty fails to file a proof of claim, the counterparty will be barred from asserting any Claim related to the rejection of the contract or lease in the future and will not receive any distribution under the Plan.

For more information regarding how to file a proof of claim, please refer to the bar date notice found at http://chapter 11.epiqsystems.com/lexington.

4. Indemnification and Reimbursement of Directors and Officers

All the Debtors' obligations to indemnify and reimburse directors, officers, and employees who served in such positions on or before the Confirmation Date will survive confirmation of the Plan and remain unaffected thereby.

5. Insurance Policies, Compensation and Benefit Programs, and Retiree Benefits

With the exception of any Insurance Policy, employee compensation program, or employee benefit program that is specifically rejected pursuant to a Bankruptcy Court order or listed on Schedule 8.7 of the Plan, the Plan will treat all Insurance Policies and employee compensation and benefit programs as executory contracts and the Debtors will assume all such policies and programs.

To the extent the Insurance Policies are determined not to be executory contracts, they will remain in full force and effect in accordance with their terms and will be treated as unimpaired (as defined in section 1124 of the Bankruptcy Code), including without limitation for purposes of payment of Claims for retrospective premiums, deductibles, and self-insurance retentions.

The Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors will perform the insureds' obligations under the Insurance Policies, whether they are treated as executory or non-executory. The Plan will not, and is not intended to, modify any of the rights or obligations of insurers or the Debtors under any of the Insurance Policies. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, including Article X and anything supervening or preemptory, the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors will be, and intend to remain, bound by all of the terms, conditions, limitations and/or exclusions contained in the Insurance Policies, which will continue in full force and effect. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Plan or the Disclosure Statement, to the extent that there is any inconsistency between the Insurance Policies and any provision of the Plan or Disclosure Statement, the terms of the Insurance Policies will control. No provision of the Plan will (i) expand or alter any insurance coverage under any of the Insurance Policies, or be deemed to create any insurance coverage that does not otherwise exist under the terms of the Insurance Policies, (ii) create any direct right of action against insurers that did not otherwise exist, or (iii) be construed as an acknowledgment either that the Insurance Policies cover or otherwise apply to any Claims or that any Claims are eligible for payment under any of the Insurance Policies.

Notwithstanding any provision of the Plan, including Article X thereof and anything supervening or preemptory, the Plan and Confirmation of the Plan will be without prejudice to any of the insurers' rights, claims and/or defenses in any subsequent litigation in any appropriate forum in which coverage is at issue, including any litigation in which the insurers seek a declaration regarding the nature and/or extent of any insurance coverage under the Insurance Policies.

The Reorganized Debtors will continue to pay all the Debtors' retiree benefits for the same duration for which the Debtors were obligated to provide such benefits.

H. Reservation of "Cram Down" Rights

Because Class 6 (Junior Subordinated Note Claims), Class 10 (Series B Preferred Stock Interests), Class 11 (LPC Common Stock Interests), and Class 12 (Other Equity Interests in LPC) will not receive a distribution under the Plan and are deemed to have voted to reject the Plan, and in the event any other Class of Claims rejects the Plan, the Debtors intend to request that the Bankruptcy Court confirm the Plan in accordance with section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. As described in Section VII.A.2, "Non-Consensual Confirmation" on page ~~79~~80, the Debtors may confirm the Plan without the consent of all parties in interest.

I. Conditions Precedent to the Effective Date of the Plan

The Effective Date will not occur and the Plan will not become effective unless and until the following conditions precedent are satisfied or waived: (i) a Confirmation Order, in form and substance acceptable to the Debtors, the Plan Investor, and the Agents will have been entered and will not be subject to any stay or injunction; provided, however, that the approval of the Agents to the form and substance of the Confirmation Order cannot not be unreasonably withheld; (ii) all actions, documents, and agreements that are necessary to implement the Plan, in a form and substance acceptable to the Debtors, the Plan Investor, and the Agents, will have been completed and be effective; provided, however, that the approval of the Agents to the form and substance of such actions, documents, and agreements cannot not be unreasonably withheld; (iii) other than those conditions that by their nature can only be satisfied at the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement, the Amended and Restated Secured CapitalSource Credit Agreement and the Amended and Restated Secured CSE Loan Agreement, the conditions precedent to the Stock Purchase Agreement, the Amended and Restated Secured CapitalSource Credit Agreement and the Amended and Restated Secured CSE Loan Agreement will have been satisfied or waived by the parties thereto and the Reorganized Debtors shall have access to the Cash contributed by the Plan Investor; and (iv) all authorizations, consents, regulatory approvals, rulings, letters, no-action letters, opinions, or documents that are determined by the Debtors to be necessary to implement the Plan, or that are required by law, regulation, or order, will have been received.

In their sole discretion, the Debtors may waive any of the aforementioned conditions precedent other than item (i) without Bankruptcy Court approval; provided, however, that the conditions set forth in (ii) and (iii) above that require approval of the Agents may only be waived by the Debtors with the consent of the applicable Agents, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Any such waiver may be effected at any time, without notice or leave or order of the Bankruptcy Court and without any formal action.

If the conditions precedent are not satisfied on or prior to the ninetieth (90th) day after the Confirmation Order becomes a Final Order then, upon the Debtors' or the Agents' motion and after notice and a hearing, the Confirmation Order may be vacated, and, as a result, (i) no distributions under the Plan will be made, (ii) the Debtors and all holders of Claims and Interests will be restored to the status quo ante as of the day immediately preceding the Confirmation Date as though the Confirmation Date had never occurred, and (iii) all of the Debtors' obligations with respect to the Claims and Interests will remain unchanged and nothing contained in the Plan will be deemed to constitute a waiver or release of any claims by or against the Debtors or any other Entity or to prejudice in any manner the rights of the Debtors or any other Entity in any further proceedings involving the Debtors.

J. Effects of Confirmation

Upon the Effective Date, all the Debtors' property will vest in the Reorganized Debtors free and clear of all liens, encumbrances, charges, and other interests, except as provided by the Plan, the Amended CapitalSource Credit Agreement and the Amended and Restated Secured CSE Loan Agreement. The Reorganized Debtors may operate their businesses and may use, acquire, and dispose of property free of any restrictions of the Bankruptcy Code or the Bankruptcy Rules, as if no case was pending under any provision or chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

1. Discharge of Claims and Termination of Series B Preferred Stock Interests, LPC Common Stock Interests, and Other Equity Interests

Except as provided in the Plan, the rights afforded in and the payments and distributions to be made under the Plan will be in exchange for and in complete satisfaction, discharge, and release of all Series B Preferred Stock Interests, LPC Common Stock Interests, and Other Equity Interests in and all existing debts and Claims, including any interest accrued on such debts or Claims from and after the Commencement Date, against the Debtors or any of their assets or properties.

Except as provided in the Plan, the rights afforded in and the payments and distributions to be made under the Plan will be in exchange for and in complete satisfaction, discharge, and release of all Series B Preferred Stock Interests, all LPC Common Stock Interests, all Other Equity Interests, and all existing debts and Claims of any kind, nature, or description whatsoever, including any interest accrued on such Claims from and after the Commencement Date, against the Debtors or any of their assets or properties to the fullest extent permitted by section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code. Except as provided in the Plan, upon the Effective Date, all existing Claims against the Debtors, Series B Preferred Stock Interests, LPC

Common Stock Interests, and Other Equity Interests in the Debtors will be, and will be deemed to be, discharged and terminated, and all holders of Claims, Series B Preferred Stock Interests, LPC Common Stock Interests, and Other Equity Interests will be precluded and enjoined from asserting against the Reorganized Debtors, their successors or assignees, or any of their assets or properties, any other or further Claim, Series B Preferred Stock Interest, LPC Common Stock Interests, or Other Equity Interest based upon any act or omission, transaction, or other activity of any kind or nature that occurred prior to the Effective Date, whether or not such holder has filed a proof of Claim or proof of Interest, and whether or not the facts or legal bases therefor were known or existed prior to the Effective Date.

2. Discharge of Debtors

Upon the Effective Date and in consideration of the distributions to be made under the Plan, except as otherwise expressly provided in the Plan, each holder (as well as any trustee or agent on behalf of any holder) of a Claim or Interest and any affiliate of such holder will be deemed to have forever waived, released and discharged the Debtors, to the fullest extent permitted by section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code, of and from any and all Claims, Interests and liabilities that arose prior to the Effective Date. Upon the Effective Date, all such persons will be forever precluded and enjoined, pursuant to section 524 of the Bankruptcy Code, from prosecuting or asserting any such Claim against or Interest in the Debtors.

3. Injunctions and Stays

Except as otherwise expressly provided in the Plan, all persons or entities who have held, hold or may hold Claims or Interests and all other parties in interest, along with their respective present or former employees, agents, officers, directors, principals and affiliates, are permanently enjoined, from and after the Effective Date, from (i) commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding of any kind against the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors with respect to any such Claim against or Interest in the Debtors, (ii) the enforcement, attachment, collection or recovery by any manner or means of any judgment, award, decree or order against the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, (iii) creating, perfecting, or enforcing any encumbrance of any kind against the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors or against the property or interests in property of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, (iv) asserting any right of setoff, subrogation or recoupment of any kind against any obligation due from the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors or against the property or interests in property of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, with respect to any such Claim or Interest, or (v) pursuing any Claim released pursuant to Article XII of the Plan. Such injunction will extend to any successors of the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors and their respective properties and interests in properties.

Unless otherwise provided in the Plan, all injunctions or stays arising under or entered during the Chapter 11 Cases under section 105 or 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, or otherwise, and in existence on the Confirmation Date, will remain in full force and effect until the later of the Effective Date and the date indicated in the order providing for such injunction or stay.

Upon the entry of the Confirmation Order, all holders of Claims or Interests and other parties in interest, along with their respective present or former employees, agents, officers, directors, principals and affiliates will be enjoined from taking any actions to interfere with the implementation or consummation of the Plan.

4. Exculpation

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, as of the Effective Date, none of the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, the Plan Investor, the Creditors' Committee, the Agents, the Prepetition Revolver Lenders, and the Prepetition Term Loan Lenders, the DIP Lenders, and their respective directors, officers, employees, partners, members, agents, representatives, accountants, financial advisors, investment bankers, or attorneys (but solely in their capacities as such) will have or incur any liability for any claim, cause of action or other assertion of liability for any act taken or omitted to be taken since the Commencement Date in connection with, or arising out of, the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, dissemination, confirmation, consummation, or administration of the Plan, property to be distributed under the Plan, or any other act or omission in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, the Plan, this Disclosure Statement or any contract, instrument, document or other agreement related thereto; provided, however, that the foregoing will not affect the liability of any person that would otherwise result from any such act or omission to the extent such act or omission is determined by a Final Order to have constituted willful misconduct, gross negligence, fraud, criminal conduct, intentional unauthorized misuse of confidential information that causes damages, or ultra vires act.

5. Releases of Directors, Officers, and Employees

Subject to Section 10.11 of the Plan, effective as of the Confirmation Date, but subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, and in consideration of the services provided to the Debtors by the present and former directors, officers, and employees of the Debtors, the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, each holder of a Claim or Interest that votes to accept the Plan (or is deemed to accept the Plan), and to the fullest extent permissible under applicable law, as such law may be extended or integrated after the Effective Date, each holder of a Claim or Interest that does not vote to accept the Plan, will release, unconditionally and forever, each present or former director, officer, and employee from any and all claims or causes of action that exist as of the Effective Date and arise from or relate to, in any manner, in whole or in part, the operation of the business of the Debtors, the subject matter of, or the transaction or event giving rise to, the Claim or Interest of such holder, the business or contractual arrangements between any Debtor and such holder, any restructuring of such claim or equity prior to the Commencement Date, or any act, omission, occurrence, or event in any manner related to such subject matter, transaction or obligation, or arising out of the Chapter 11 Cases, including, but not limited to, the pursuit of confirmation of the Plan, the consummation thereof, the administration thereof, or the property to be distributed thereunder; provided, however, that the foregoing will not operate as a waiver of or release from any causes of action arising out of the willful misconduct, gross negligence, fraud, criminal conduct, intentional unauthorized misuse of confidential information that causes damages, or ultra vires acts of any such person or entity.

6. The Plan Investor Release

Notwithstanding anything contained in the Plan to the contrary, on the Effective Date and effective as of the Effective Date, each holder of a Claim who receives a distribution under the Plan shall provide a full discharge and release, and each Entity so released shall be deemed released, to the Plan Investor and its affiliates and each of their respective directors, officers, employees, members, attorneys, financial advisors, accountants, investment bankers, investment advisors, actuaries, professionals, agents and representatives, each in their representative capacities as such, and their respective property from any and all causes of action, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, liquidated or unliquidated, contingent or non-contingent, existing as of the Effective Date in law, at equity, whether for tort, fraud, contract, violations of federal or state securities laws or otherwise, arising from or related in any way to the Debtors, including, without limitation, those in any way related to the Chapter 11 Cases, this Disclosure Statement, or the Plan, provided, however, that the foregoing, the "Plan Investor Release" shall not operate to waive or release any causes of action (i) arising from any contractual obligations, (ii) expressly set forth in and preserved by the Plan, the Plan Supplement or related documents, or (iii) arising from Claims for fraud or willful misconduct.

7. Other Releases

Subject to Section 10.11 of the Plan, effective as of the Confirmation Date, but subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, and in consideration of the services provided to the Debtors by (i) the present and former affiliates, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, and representatives of the Debtors who acted in such capacities after the Commencement Date, (ii) the Plan Investor, (iii) the Creditors' Committee, (iv) the Agents, (v) the Prepetition Revolver Lenders, (vi) the Prepetition Term Loan Lenders, and (vii) the DIP Lenders, (a) the Debtors, (b) the Reorganized Debtors, (c) each holder of a Claim or Interest that votes to accept the Plan but does not elect to "opt-out," (d) each holder of a Claim or Interest that is deemed to accept the Plan, and (e) to the fullest extent permissible under applicable law, as such law may be extended or integrated after the Effective Date, each holder of a Claim or Interest that does not vote to accept the Plan and that does not elect to "opt-out," will release, unconditionally and forever, each present or former affiliate, agent, financial advisor, attorney and representative (and their respective affiliates) of the Debtors, the Plan Investor, the Creditors' Committee, the Agents, the Prepetition Revolver Lenders, the Prepetition Term Loan Lenders, the DIP Lenders, and each of their respective members, officers, directors, agents, financial advisors, attorneys, employees, equity holders, parent corporations, subsidiaries, partners, affiliates and representatives from any and all claims or causes of action that exist as of the Effective Date and arise from or relate, in any manner, in whole or in part, to the operation of the business of the Debtors, the subject matter of, or the transaction or event giving rise to, the Claim or Interest of such holder, the business or contractual arrangements between any Debtor and such holder, any restructuring of such Claim or Interest prior to the Commencement Date, or any act, omission, occurrence, or event in any manner related to such subject matter, transaction or obligation, or arising out of the Chapter 11 Cases, including, but not limited to, the pursuit of confirmation of the Plan, the consummation thereof, the administration thereof, or the property to be distributed thereunder; provided, however, that the foregoing will not operate as a waiver of or release from any causes of action arising out of the willful misconduct, gross negligence, fraud, criminal conduct, intentional unauthorized misuse of confidential information that causes damages, or ultra vires acts of any such person or entity. For the avoidance of doubt, the claims and causes of actions released pursuant to Section 10.10 of the Plan include those claims and causes of action released under the Final Cash Collateral Order.

It should be noted that under applicable non-bankruptcy law, the Debtors would either be vicariously liable for claims against the Debtors' directors, officers, and employees or required to indemnify such individuals from such claims given the Debtors' assumption of their indemnification obligations of their officers, directors, and employees under the Plan. When such claims indirectly affect a debtor's reorganization efforts, courts have found that releases of the type proposed in the Plan are justified. In re Metromedia Fiber Network, Inc., 416 F.3d 136, 142 (2d Cir. 2005); Menard-Sanford v. Mabey (In re A.H. Robbins Co.), 880 F.2d 694, 701 (4th Cir. 1989). Moreover, releases are justified if the plan of reorganization provides, as the Plan does, for full payment of claims or if creditors consent to such releases. Metromedia, 416 F.3d at 142. All holders of Claims and Interest entitled to vote on the Plan may elect to opt out of the release provision of Section 10.10 of the Plan regardless of whether they choose to accept, reject, or not to vote on the Plan.

8. Limits on Releases and Exculpation

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order, the releases set forth in Sections 10.8, 10.9 and 10.10 of the Plan will not effect a release of any claim against a non-Debtor by the United States Government or any of its agencies or any state and local authority whatsoever, including without limitation any claim arising under the Internal Revenue Code, the environmental laws or any criminal laws of the United States or any state and local authority. Nothing in Sections 10.8, 10.9 or 10.10 of the Plan nor the Confirmation Order will enjoin the United States or any state or local authority from bringing any claim, suit, action or other proceeding against a non-Debtor for any liability whatsoever, including, without limitation, any claim, suit or action arising under the Internal Revenue Code, the environmental laws or any criminal laws of the United States or any state or local authority. Other than as set forth in Section 10.7 of the Plan, nothing in the Plan or the Confirmation Order will exculpate any non-Debtor from any liability to the United States Government or any of its agencies or any state or local authority whatsoever, including any liabilities arising under the Internal Revenue Code, the environmental laws or any criminal laws of the United States or any state or local authority.

K. Dissolution of the Creditors' Committee

On the Effective Date, the Creditors' Committee will be dissolved and the members thereof will be released from and discharged of all further authority, duties, responsibilities, and obligations related to and arising from and in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, and the retention or employment of the Creditors' Committee's attorneys, accountants, and other agents, if any, will terminate other than for purposes of filing and prosecuting applications for final allowances of compensation for professional services rendered and reimbursement of expenses incurred in connection therewith.

L. Management of the Reorganized Debtors

On the Effective Date, the management, control, and operation of the Reorganized Debtors will become the responsibility of the Boards of Directors of the Reorganized Debtors.

The initial Board of Directors will consist of seven (7) members each. The CEO, to be appointed by the Plan Investor, will be designated as one (1) board member, four (4) board members will be designated by the Plan Investor (provided, however, that one of the Plan Investor's designees shall be an "Independent Director," as defined in the Amended and Restated Secured CapitalSource Credit Agreement and the Amended and Restated Secured CSE Loan Agreement), one (1) board member will be designated by the Affiliated Bondholders, and one (1) board member will be designated by the DIP Lenders. The Affiliated Bondholders' and the DIP Lenders' designations will each be subject to approval by the Plan Investor, with such approval to not be unreasonably withheld.

Each member of the initial Board of Directors will serve in accordance with the applicable non-bankruptcy law and the certificates of incorporation and by-laws of the Reorganized Debtors.

The Debtors anticipate that the officers of the Reorganized Debtors will be substantially the same as the Debtors' current officers. The Debtors anticipate that Mr. Michael A. Lubin will continue as Chairman of the Board, Mr. Warren Delano will continue as President and Mr. Dennis J. Welhouse will continue as Chief Financial Officer. No later than ten (10) days prior to the last day by which holders of impaired Claims and Interests may vote to accept or reject the Plan, the Debtors will identify in the Plan Supplement all officers and all members of the Boards of Directors of Reorganized LPC and Reorganized LRGI.

M. Jurisdiction and Choice of Law

1. Governing Law

Except to the extent that the Bankruptcy Code or other federal law is applicable, or to the extent that an exhibit hereto or a schedule or document in the Plan Supplement provides otherwise, the rights, duties, and obligations arising under the Plan will be governed by, and construed and enforced in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York, without giving effect to the principles of conflict of laws thereof.

2. Retention of Jurisdiction

The Bankruptcy Court will retain and have exclusive jurisdiction over, in addition to other matters specified in the Plan, any matter arising under the Bankruptcy Code, or arising in or related to the Chapter 11 Cases or the Plan.

N. The Plan Supplement

A draft of the form of each of the Plan Documents to be entered into as of the Effective Date, which will include, among other things, the Charter Amendment, the form of the Stock Purchase Agreement, the Securityholders Agreement, and any other relevant documents that are necessary to allow a holder of Claims to make an informed decision will be contained in the Plan Supplement, which will be filed with the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court no later than ten (10) days prior to the last date on which the holders of Impaired Claims may vote to accept or reject the Plan.

Upon its filing with the Bankruptcy Court, the Plan Supplement may be inspected in the office of the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court during normal court hours. Documents included in the Plan Supplement will be posted at <http://chapter11.epiqsystems.com/lexington> as they become available, but no later than five (5) days prior to the last date by which votes to accept or reject the Plan must be received.

O. Modification, Revocation, or Withdrawal of the Plan

The Debtors reserve the rights to alter, amend, or modify the Plan at any time prior to the Confirmation Date, provided that the Plan, as altered, amended, or modified, satisfies the conditions of sections 1122 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Debtors comply with section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code.

After the Confirmation Date, the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors may institute proceedings in the Bankruptcy Court to remedy any defect or omission or reconcile any inconsistencies in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, with respect to such matters as may be necessary to carry out the purposes and effects of the Plan so long as such action does not materially and adversely affect the treatment of holders of Claims or Interests under the Plan.

A holder of a Claim or Interest that has accepted the Plan will be deemed to have accepted the Plan, as altered, amended, or modified, if the proposed alteration, amendment, or modification does not materially and adversely change the treatment of the Claim or Interest of such holder. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in the Plan, the Plan will not be modified or amended to affect the treatment or amount of the CapitalSource Secured Claim or the CSE Secured Claim without the prior written consent of the Agents.

The Debtors may revoke or withdraw the Plan any time prior to the Effective Date. If the Debtors revoke or withdraw the Plan or the Plan does not otherwise become effective, the Plan will be deemed null and void. In such event, nothing contained herein will be deemed to constitute a waiver or release of any Claims by the Debtors or to prejudice in any manner the Debtors' rights in any further proceedings involving the Debtors.

VI.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION, PROJECTIONS AND VALUATION ANALYSIS

A. Selected Historical and Projected Financial Information

The following historical financial information is attached to this Disclosure Statement as Exhibit C and Exhibit D, respectively:

- LPC's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008 (attached without exhibits) (Exhibit C); and
- LPC's Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2009 (attached without exhibits) (Exhibit D);

The Projected Financial Statements are set forth in their entirety in Exhibit F hereto.

The table set forth below in this Section V(A) sets forth the following data:

- (i) Actual results of continuing operations for 2008;
- (ii) Projected results of continuing operations for 2009, 2010, 2011, and 2012; and
- (iii) Pro forma projected operating results of continuing operations for 2009, adjusted as if the reorganization had been effective as of December 31, 2009.

In preparing the Projected Financial Statements, the Debtors assumed that (i) aggregate unit sales in the automotive aftermarket of replacement components that are critical to the operation and performance of the vehicle will grow at the rate of one percent (1%) per annum; (ii) aggregate unit sales of medical devices will grow at the rate of two percent (2%) per annum; and (iii) the aggregate level of production of new automobiles in North America will be as follows:

- 2009 8.6 million units
- 2010 10.5 million units
- 2011 12.1 million units
- 2012 13.5 million units

The level of demand in the Debtors' end-markets is subject to many factors outside the control of the Debtors, including interest rates, inflation rates, unemployment rates, consumer spending, war, and terrorism. Any one of these or other economic factors could have a significant impact on the operating performance of the Reorganized Debtors.

EBITDA is not a measure of performance under GAAP and should not be considered in isolation or used as a substitute for income from operations, net income, net cash provided by operating activities, or other operating or cash flow statement data prepared in accordance with GAAP. The Debtors have presented EBITDA here and elsewhere in this Disclosure Statement because management uses EBITDA as a supplemental measure to evaluate the operating performance of the Debtors' business and believes that it provides a useful measure for comparing period to period performance among their business units because it does not include period to period fluctuations in taxes, interest costs, costs associated with capital investments, and certain non-operating items, and because certain financial covenants in the Debtors' senior, secured credit agreements have been and will, in the future, be calculated using variations of EBITDA. Nevertheless, EBITDA has material limitations when used as a measurement of performance, including the following:

- (ii) EBITDA excludes interest expense. Cash interest payments represent a reduction in cash available to the Debtors, and accruals for interest expense represent an obligation to pay cash interest in the future.
- (iii) EBITDA excludes provisions for taxes. Cash payments of taxes represent a reduction in cash available to the Debtors, and accruals for non-cash taxes represent an obligation to pay cash taxes in the future.
- (iv) EBITDA excludes depreciation and amortization related to buildings, equipment, and tooling. Although depreciation and amortization are noncash charges, they represent the consumption, over a projected period, of assets that produce revenue. EBITDA also does not reflect the capital expenditures required for the replacement of these depreciated assets.
- (v) EBITDA does not reflect reorganization items, which represent revenues, expenses, realized gains and losses, and provisions for losses that can be directly associated with the reorganization and restructuring of our business under chapter 11. Reorganization items that are expenses represent a reduction in cash available to the Debtors, either currently or in the future.
- (vi) EBITDA does not reflect cash provided or used as a result of changes in the Debtors' working capital.
- (vii) The Debtors' definition of EBITDA may not be the same as the definition of EBITDA used by other companies, including companies in the industries in which the Debtors operate. As the number of differences in the definition of EBITDA increases, the usefulness of EBITDA as a comparative measure decreases. The definition of EBITDA used here is different from the definition of EBITDA used to calculate compliance with the financial covenants in the loan agreements governing the Prepetition Credit Agreement and the Prepetition Loan Agreement.

To compensate for the shortcomings of EBITDA as a financial measure, it is important to use financial data derived under GAAP. In particular, the Debtors monitor income from operations, both in dollars and as a percentage of net sales.

B. Valuation of the Reorganized Debtors

During the course of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors have been advised by Campbell, their financial advisor and investment banker, with respect to the estimated enterprise value of the Debtors. In preparing its estimates of the Debtors' enterprise value, Campbell utilized a number of well-established valuation methodologies, including discounted cash flow, comparable publicly-traded companies, comparable M&A transactions, and sum-of-the-parts, which resulted in enterprise values equal to or greater than the aggregate indebtedness of the Debtors. Notwithstanding these analytical valuations, the Plan is premised on a lower enterprise value that is based upon the proposed investment by the Plan Investor. The Debtors believe that a market-based valuation approach is appropriate under the circumstances because (a) in order to exit chapter 11, the Debtors required (and continue to require) additional capital because of the state of the economy and the conditions in the current credit markets, (b) the process through which the Plan Investor was identified, under the direction of Campbell, was open and exposed the Debtors' business to a substantial number of investors who were likely to consider such an investment, and (c) after the completion of that process, the transaction negotiated with the Plan Investor provided the highest and best value for the Debtors.

Pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement, the Plan Investor will purchase New LPC Common Stock at a purchase price of $10.00 per share (with the aggregate number of New LPC Common Stock purchased by the Plan Investor depending on the number of Claims that make the Class 5 Stock Election). ~~Based upon the issuance of 3,591,500 of total~~ The Debtors project, assuming that none of the holders of Allowed Claims in Classes 7 and 17 choose the respective cash elections, that immediately following the Effective Date, there will be outstanding approximately 3.591 million shares of New LPC Common Stock ~~under the Plan, the aggregate estimated total equity value of the Reorganized Debtors is $35.9, valued at $10.00 per share, and $33.0 million of aggregate indebtedness for money borrowed, and the Debtors will hold approximately $6.8 million in cash.~~ Based upon ~~the anticipated net debt at the Effective Date of approximately $26.2 million, the Reorganized~~ this projection, the Debtors' implied enterprise value is approximately $62.1 million, calculated as followed (in millions of dollars):

New LPC Common Stock (3.59 million shares at $10.00 per share)	$35.9
Indebtedness for money borrowed	33.0
Cash on hand	(6.8)
Net indebtedness	26.2
Implied enterprise value	$62.1

VII.

CERTAIN FACTORS TO BE CONSIDERED

A. Certain Risk Factors Relating to Confirmation of the Plan

1. Risk of Non-Confirmation of the Plan

Although the Debtors believe that the Plan will satisfy all requirements necessary for confirmation by the Bankruptcy Court, there can be no assurance that the Bankruptcy Court will reach the same conclusion or that modifications to the Plan will not be required for confirmation or that such modifications would not necessitate resolicitation of votes.

2. Non-Consensual Confirmation

Because Class 6 (Junior Subordinated Note Claims), Class 10 (Series B Preferred Security Stock Interests), Class 11 (LPC Common Stock Interests), and Class 12 (Other Security Interests) are deemed to reject the Plan, and in the event that any other impaired Class of Claims does not accept the Plan, the Debtors intend to seek confirmation of the Plan in accordance with section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, whereby the Bankruptcy Court may confirm the Plan if at least one impaired Class of Claims has accepted the Plan (with such acceptance being determined without including the vote of any "insider" in such Class), and, as to each impaired

Class that has not accepted the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court determines that the Plan “does not discriminate unfairly” and is “fair and equitable” with respect to the dissenting impaired Classes. The Debtors believe that the Plan satisfies these requirements. For more information on this topic, please refer to Section XI.B, “General Requirements for Confirmation” on page ~~102~~103.

3. Risk of Non-Occurrence of the Effective Date

Although the Debtors believe that the Effective Date will occur soon after the Confirmation Date, there can be no assurance as to such timing. If each of the conditions precedent to the occurrence of the Effective Date has not been satisfied or duly waived on or before the 120th day after entry of the Confirmation Order, the Bankruptcy Court may, upon the Debtors’ motion, vacate the Confirmation Order, in which event the Plan would be deemed null and void.

4. Stock Purchase Agreement, Amended and Restated Secured CapitalSource Credit Agreement, and Amended and Restated Secured CSE Loan Agreement As Conditions Precedent to the Confirmation of the Plan

The Plan Investor has agreed to enter into the Stock Purchase Agreement and has agreed to invest at least $22 million through the purchase of Senior Subordinated Notes and New LPC Common Stock as provided therein. However, the Stock Purchase Agreement is subject a number of conditions precedent that must be satisfied or waived by the parties thereto.

The Prepetition Secured Lenders have agreed to accept the treatment provided under the Amended and Restated Secured CapitalSource Credit Agreement and the Amended and Restated Secured CSE Loan Agreement, as applicable, both of which contain a number of conditions precedent that must be satisfied or waived by the parties thereto.

If any of the closing conditions in the Stock Purchase Agreement, the Amended and Restated Secured CapitalSource Credit Agreement and the Amended and Restated Secured CSE Loan Agreement is not satisfied or waived, the Debtors will not be able to meet a condition precedent for confirmation of the Plan. The Debtors can provide no assurance that the closing conditions in the Stock Purchase Agreement, the Amended and Restated Secured CapitalSource Credit Agreement and the Amended and Restated Secured CSE Loan Agreement will be satisfied or, if not satisfied, waived by the parties thereto.

B. Additional Factors to be Considered

1. The Debtors Have No Duty to Update

Absent a Bankruptcy Court order to the contrary, the Debtors have no duty to update this Disclosure Statement or the attachments hereto. Unless otherwise specified, all statements contained herein and in the attachments hereto are made as of February 28, 2010. Delivery or receipt of this Disclosure Statement after February 28, 2010 does not imply that no changes have occurred in the information contained herein and in the attachments hereto since February 28, 2010.

2. No Representations Outside This Disclosure Statement Are Authorized

The Bankruptcy Court has not authorized any representations concerning or related to the Debtors, these Chapter 11 Cases, or the Plan, other than representations made in this Disclosure Statement, the attachments hereto, and the other solicitation materials from the Debtors that are included with this Disclosure Statement. In arriving at your decision to vote to accept or reject the Plan, you should not rely upon any representations that are not contained herein or included with this Disclosure Statement.

3. Projections and Other Forward Looking Statements Are Not Assured, and Actual Results Will Vary

Certain of the information contained in this Disclosure Statement is, by nature, forward-looking, and contains estimates and assumptions, which might ultimately prove to be incorrect, and projections, which may differ materially from actual future events. Because uncertainties exist with respect to any projection, assumption, or estimate, you should not consider any projection, assumption, or estimate to be an assurance or guarantee of actual results.

4. This Disclosure Statement Is Not Legal or Tax Advice

This Disclosure Statement is not legal, business, or tax advice. You should not construe the contents of this Disclosure Statement as such. Please consult your own legal counsel or accountant, as appropriate, as to any legal, tax and other matters concerning your Claim or Interest.

Please do not rely upon this Disclosure Statement for any purpose other than to determine how to vote on the Plan or whether to object to confirmation of the Plan.

5. No Admission Made

Nothing contained herein will constitute an admission of, or be deemed evidence of, the tax or other legal effects of the Plan on the Debtors or on holders of Claims or Interests.

6. Business Factors and Competitive Conditions

a. Competitive Conditions

In addition to uncertain economic and business conditions, as discussed in Section VI.A. above, the Reorganized Debtors will face competition for business from existing and possibly new competitors. Such competition may affect the overall operating performance of the Reorganized Debtors.

b. Customers

The Debtors believe that the majority of their customer relationships are strong, however, the loss of a significant customer could have a material adverse impact on operating performance.

7. Access to Financing and Trade Terms

The Reorganized Debtors' operations will depend on, among other things, access to working capital through operating cash flow and the availability of customary trade terms from their supplies. While the Debtors believe that projected operating cash flow and improved trade credit will provide adequate cash to finance the operations of the Reorganized Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors may nonetheless require greater funding. No assurance can be given that additional financing will be available on terms favorable or acceptable to the Reorganized Debtors. If the Reorganized Debtors meet their projected cash flows, the Debtors believe that their suppliers will continue to provide customary terms; however, no assurances can be given.

8. Variances from the Projected Financial Statements

The fundamental premise of the Plan is the deleveraging of the Debtors and the implementation and realization of the Debtors' business plan, as reflected in the Projected Financial Statements. The Projected Financial Statements reflect numerous assumptions concerning the Reorganized Debtors' anticipated future performance, some of which may not materialize. Such assumptions include assumptions concerning the general economy, business conditions in the industries in which the Debtors operate, and the ability of the Debtors to obtain additional business from existing and new customers. The Debtors believe that the assumptions underlying the Projected Financial Statements are reasonable; however, unanticipated events and circumstances that may occur subsequent to the preparation of the Projected Financial Statements may affect the actual financial results of the Reorganized Debtors. Therefore, the actual results achieved throughout the periods covered by the Projected Financial Statements are likely to vary from the projected results, and such variations may be material and adverse.

9. Significant Holders

As a result of the Plan and the Stock Purchase Agreement, the Plan Investor and the Management Members will own a majority of the New LPC Common Stock.

10. Dilution of New LPC Common Stock

It is anticipated that the Board of Directors of the Reorganized Debtors will adopt the Management Incentive Plan. If the Board distributes the MIP Warrants, and/or any equity interests, or options to acquire such equity interests, to management or employees, it is contemplated that such distributions will dilute the New LPC Common Stock issued on account of Claims under the Plan and the ownership percentage represented by the New LPC Common Stock distributed under the Plan.

11. Illiquid Market

The New LPC Common Stock will not be listed on any national securities exchange. Accordingly, no assurance can be given that a holder of such securities will be able to sell them in the future or as to the price at which any sale may occur. If a holder of such securities is able to sell them in the future, the price of the securities could be higher or lower than the value ascribed to them in this Disclosure Statement, depending upon many factors, including prevailing interest rates, markets for similar securities, industry conditions, and the performance of, and investor expectations for, Reorganized LPC.

12. Restrictions on Transfer

The shares of New LPC Common Stock issued to the Plan Investor will be “restricted securities” within the meaning of Rule 144 under the Securities Act and may not be resold without registration under the Securities Act unless resold pursuant to an exemption from registration.

Holders of the New LPC Common Stock issued to holders of Allowed Senior Subordinated Note Claims or holders of the DIP Loan Claim who are deemed to be “underwriters” as defined in section 1145(b) of the Bankruptcy Code will be unable to offer or sell such securities except pursuant to an available exemption from registration under the Securities Act and under equivalent state securities or “blue sky” laws. This would include persons who (a) purchase a Claim with a view to distribution of any security to be received in exchange for the Claim other than in ordinary trading transactions, (b) offer to sell securities issued under the Plan for holders of such securities, (c) offer to buy securities issued under the Plan from persons receiving such securities, if the offer to buy is made with a view to distribution or under an agreement made in connection with the Plan, the consummation of the Plan, or the offer or sale of securities under the Plan, or (d) are an issuer, a person directly or indirectly controlling or controlled by an issuer, or any person under direct or indirect common control with an issuer.

13. Indicative Value of the Debtors

The implied aggregate enterprise value of the Reorganized Debtors is $62.1 million based on the terms of the investment to be made by the Plan Investor. The Debtors have concluded that this represents the highest achievable value under current market conditions based on the results of an extensive marketing process conducted by Campbell.

VIII.

CERTAIN FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE PLAN

The following discussion summarizes certain U.S. federal income tax consequences of the implementation of the Plan to the Debtors and to certain holders of Claims. This discussion does not address the U.S. federal income tax consequences to holders of Claims who are unimpaired or otherwise entitled to payment in full in Cash under the Plan, or to holders of Claims or Interests who are not voting because they are deemed to accept or reject the Plan.

The discussion of certain U.S. federal income tax consequences below is based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Tax Code”), current, temporary and proposed Treasury regulations, judicial authorities, published positions of the Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”) and other applicable authorities, all as in effect on the date of this document and all of which are subject to change or differing interpretations (possibly with retroactive effect).

The U.S. federal income tax consequences of the contemplated transactions are complex and are subject to significant uncertainties. The Debtors have not requested and do not expect to request a ruling from the IRS or any other tax authority, or an opinion of counsel, with respect to any of the tax aspects of the contemplated transactions, and the discussion below is not binding upon the IRS or such other authorities. Thus, no assurance can be given that the IRS or such other authorities would not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a different position from any discussed herein.

The discussion under this heading does not address foreign, state or local tax consequences of the contemplated transactions, nor does it purport to address the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the transactions to special classes of taxpayers (e.g., foreign persons, mutual funds, small business investment companies, regulated investment companies, banks and certain other financial institutions, insurance companies, tax-exempt organizations, holders that are, or hold Claims or Interests through, pass-through entities, persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar, dealers in securities or foreign currency, and persons holding Claims or Interests that are a hedge against, or that are hedged against, currency risk or that are part of a straddle, constructive sale or conversion transaction). If a partnership (or other entity taxed as a partnership) holds a Claim or Interest, the tax treatment of a partner in the partnership will generally depend upon the status of the partner and upon the activities of the partnership. Moreover, the following discussion does not address U.S. federal taxes other than income taxes, nor does it apply to any person that acquires any of the exchange consideration in the secondary market.

This discussion also assumes that the CapitalSource Secured Claims, CSE Secured Claims, Senior Subordinated Notes, Amended Secured CapitalSource Debt, Amended Secured CSE Debt, and New LPC Common Stock are held as “capital assets” (generally, property held for investment) within the meaning of section 1221 of the Tax Code, and that the various debt and other arrangements to which the Debtors are parties will be respected for U.S. federal income tax purposes in accordance with their form.

The following summary of certain U.S. federal income tax consequences is for informational purposes only and is not a substitute for careful tax planning and advice based upon the individual circumstances pertaining to a holder of Claims or Interests. Holders of Claims or Interests are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the federal, state, local and non-U.S. tax consequence of the Plan.

IRS Circular 230 Notice: To ensure compliance with IRS Circular 230, holders of Claims and Interests are hereby notified that: (i) any discussion of U.S. federal tax issues contained or referred to in this Disclosure Statement is not intended or written to be relied upon, and cannot be relied upon, by holders of Claims or Interests for the purpose of avoiding penalties that may be imposed on them under the Tax Code; (ii) such discussion is written in connection with the promotion or marketing by the Debtors of the transactions or matters addressed herein (including the solicitation of votes accepting the Plan); and (iii) holders of Claims and Interests should seek advice based on their particular circumstances from an independent tax advisor.

A. Consequences to the Debtors

For U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Debtors are members of an affiliated group of corporations (the “Lexington Group”), of which LPC is the common parent, and file a single consolidated U.S. federal income tax return. The Lexington Group reported in the most recent Form 10-K filed by LPC and its subsidiaries consolidated net operating loss (“NOL”) carryforwards for U.S. federal income tax purposes of approximately $36 million as of the end of 2008. The Lexington Group incurred further operating losses during the taxable year ended December 31, 2009. The amount of the NOL carryforwards, including any such 2009 tax-year losses, remains subject to audit and adjustment by the IRS. The Debtors expect to have taxable income for the current taxable year through the Effective Date.

As discussed below, in connection with the implementation of the Plan, the amount of the Lexington Group’s consolidated NOL carryforwards and other tax attributes (including any 2009-tax year losses) may be reduced. In addition, the subsequent utilization of any losses and NOL carryforwards remaining following the Effective Date, if any, may be restricted.

1. Cancellation of Debt

In general, the Tax Code provides that a debtor in a bankruptcy case must reduce certain of its tax attributes – such as NOL carryforwards and current year NOLs, capital loss carryforwards, tax credits, and tax basis in assets – by the amount of any cancellation of debt (“COD”) incurred pursuant to a confirmed chapter 11 plan. The COD incurred is generally the amount by which the indebtedness discharged (reduced by any unamortized original issue discount) exceeds any consideration given in exchange therefor. Certain statutory or judicial exceptions can generally apply to limit the amount of COD incurred for U.S. federal income tax purposes (such as where the payment of the cancelled debt would have given rise to a tax deduction). If advantageous, the borrower can elect to reduce the basis of depreciable property prior to any reduction in its NOL carryforwards or other tax attributes. Where the borrower joins in the filing of a consolidated U.S. federal income tax return, applicable Treasury regulations require, in certain circumstances, that the tax attributes of the consolidated subsidiaries of the borrower and other members of the group also be reduced. Any reduction in tax attributes in respect of excluded COD income generally does not occur until after the end of the taxable year in which the COD is incurred. Alternatively, a debtor may elect to defer the inclusion of COD income resulting from its chapter 11 plan (thereby preserving the current use of its tax attributes, subject to applicable limitations), with the amount of COD income becoming includible in its income ratably over a five-taxable year period beginning in the fourth taxable year after the COD income arises, if the chapter 11 plan is consummated in 2010.

As a result of the discharge of Claims pursuant to the Plan, the Debtors will incur COD. The extent of such COD and resulting tax attribute reduction will depend, in principal part, on the fair market value of the New LPC Common Stock distributed. Based on the Enterprise Value of $62.1 million, as described in Section VI, “Financial Information, Projections and Valuation Analysis,” it is estimated that the Reorganized Debtors will incur approximately $31 million of COD (substantially all of which will be allocable to Reorganized LPC for U.S. federal income tax purposes). Consequently, subject to any election to defer the inclusion of COD as described above, it is anticipated that the consolidated NOL carryforwards and any current year NOLs of the Lexington Group will be reduced in connection with the implementation of the Plan.

2. Limitations on NOL Carryforwards and Other Tax Attributes

Following the Effective Date, any remaining NOL carryforwards and certain other tax attributes (including current year NOLs and built-in losses, if any) allocable to periods prior to the Effective Date (collectively, “pre-change losses”) may be subject to limitation under section 382 of the Tax Code as a result of the changes in ownership of the Lexington Group as described below. These limitations apply in addition to, and not in lieu of, the attribute reduction that may result from the potential COD arising in connection with the Plan.

Under section 382 of the Tax Code, if a corporation (or consolidated group) undergoes an “ownership change” and the corporation does not qualify for (or elects out of) the special bankruptcy exception discussed below, the amount of its pre-change losses that may be utilized to offset future taxable income is subject to an annual limitation. A loss corporation generally undergoes an ownership change if the percentage of stock of the corporation owned by one or more 5% shareholders has increased by more than 50 percentage points over a three-year period (with certain groups of less-than-5% shareholders treated as a single shareholder for this purpose). The Debtors anticipate that the issuance of the New LPC Common Stock pursuant to the Plan will cause an “ownership change” of the Lexington Group.

In general, the amount of the annual limitation to which a corporation (or consolidated group) that undergoes an ownership change would be subject is equal to the product of (i) the fair market value of the stock of the corporation (or, in the case of a consolidated group, the common parent) immediately before the ownership change (with certain adjustments) multiplied by (ii) the “long-term tax-exempt rate” in effect for the month in which the ownership change occurs (4.14% for ownership changes occurring in February 2010). Based on the estimated total equity value of the Debtors of $35.9 million, as described in Section VI, “Financial Information, Projections and Valuation Analysis,” the Debtors’ annual limitation for an ownership change occurring in June 2010 would be approximately $1.4 million (before taking into account any adjustment for recognized built-in gain). As discussed below, this annual limitation often may be increased in the event the corporation (or consolidated group) has an overall “built-in” gain in its assets at the time of the ownership change. For a corporation (or consolidated group) in bankruptcy that undergoes an ownership change pursuant to a confirmed bankruptcy plan, the stock value generally is determined immediately after (rather than before) the ownership change after giving effect to the surrender of creditors’ claims, but subject to certain adjustments (which can result in a reduced stock value); in no event, however, can the stock value for this purpose exceed the pre-change gross value of the corporation’s assets.

Any portion of the annual limitation that is not used in a given year may be carried forward, thereby adding to the annual limitation for the subsequent taxable year. However, if the corporation (or the consolidated group) does not continue its historic business or use a significant portion of its historic assets in a new business for at least two years after the ownership change, the annual limitation resulting from the ownership change is reduced to zero, thereby precluding any utilization of the corporation's pre-change losses, absent any increases due to recognized built-in gains discussed below. Generally, NOL carryforwards expire after 20 years.

Accordingly, the impact of an ownership change of the Lexington Group pursuant to the Plan depends upon, among other things, the amount of pre-change losses remaining, if any, after any reduction of attributes due to the COD, the value of both the stock and assets of the Debtors at or about the Effective Date, the continuation of their respective businesses, and the amount and timing of future taxable income.

a. Built In Gains and Losses

Among the pre-change losses to which section 382 applies, section 382 can operate to limit the deduction of "built-in" losses recognized subsequent to the date of the ownership change. If a loss corporation (or consolidated group) has a net unrealized built-in loss at the time of an ownership change (taking into account most assets and items of built-in income, gain, loss and deduction), then any built-in losses recognized during the following five years (up to the amount of the original net unrealized built-in loss) generally will be treated as pre-change losses and similarly will be subject to the annual limitation.

Conversely, if the loss corporation (or consolidated group) has a net unrealized built-in gain at the time of an ownership change, any built-in gains recognized (or, according to an IRS notice, treated as recognized) during the following five years (up to the amount of the original net unrealized built-in gain) generally will increase the annual limitation in the year recognized, such that the loss corporation (or consolidated group) would be permitted to use its pre-change losses against such built-in gain income in addition to its regular annual allowance.

The presence of a net unrealized built-in gain or net unrealized built-in loss position for a corporation (or consolidated group) depends, among other things, on the value of the assets of the corporation (or consolidated group) at the time of the ownership change. Although the rule applicable to net unrealized built-in losses generally applies to consolidated groups on a consolidated basis, certain corporations that join the consolidated group within the preceding five years may not be able to be taken into account in the group computation of net unrealized built-in loss. Such corporations would nevertheless be taken into account in determining whether the consolidated group has a net unrealized built-in gain. In general, a loss corporation's (or consolidated group's) net unrealized built-in gain or loss will be deemed to be zero unless it is greater than the lesser of (i) $10 million and (ii) 15% of the fair market value of its assets (with certain adjustments) before the ownership change.

Whether the Lexington Group will benefit from adjustment for "built-in" gains or be subject to the limitation for "built-in" losses will depend upon the respective value of the Lexington Group's assets immediately before the Effective Date. Although not free from doubt, the Debtors currently expect to be in a net unrealized built-in gain position.

b. Special Bankruptcy Exception

An exception to the foregoing annual limitation rules generally applies where qualified (so-called “old and cold”) creditors of a debtor receive, in respect of their claims, at least 50% of the vote and value of the stock of the reorganized debtor (or a controlling corporation if also in bankruptcy) pursuant to a confirmed chapter 11 plan. Under this exception, which applies only if an ownership change occurs pursuant to a chapter 11 plan, a debtor’s pre-change losses are not limited on an annual basis but, instead, are required to be reduced by the amount of any interest deductions claimed during the three (3) taxable years preceding the effective date of the reorganization, and during the part of the taxable year prior to and including the reorganization, in respect of all debt converted into stock in the bankruptcy proceeding. Moreover, if this exception applies, any further ownership change of the debtor within a two-year period after the consummation of the chapter 11 plan will preclude the debtor’s future utilization of any pre-change losses existing at the time of the subsequent ownership change.

Based upon the Plan, it is possible that the Debtors will not qualify for this exception. Even if the Debtors qualify for this exception, the Debtors may, if they so desire, elect not to have the exception apply and instead remain subject to the annual limitation described above. Such election would have to be made in the Debtors’ U.S. federal income tax return for the taxable year in which the change occurs.

For purposes of the Projected Financial Information, the Debtors have assumed that their use of pre-change losses will be limited to a range of approximately $2.1 million to $3.9 million (depending on the taxable year) on an annual basis under section 382 of the Tax Code after increasing the annual section 382 limitation for any expected recognized built-in gain.

3. Alternative Minimum Tax

In general, a U.S. federal alternative minimum tax (“AMT”) is imposed on a corporation’s alternative minimum taxable income at a 20% rate to the extent that such tax exceeds the corporation’s regular U.S. federal income tax. For purposes of computing taxable income for AMT purposes, certain tax deductions and other beneficial allowances are modified or eliminated. In particular, even though a corporation otherwise might be able to offset all of its taxable income for regular tax purposes by available NOL carryforwards, only 90% of a corporation’s taxable income for AMT purposes may be offset by available NOL carryforwards (as computed for AMT purposes).

In addition, if a corporation (or consolidated group) undergoes an “ownership change” within the meaning of section 382 of the Tax Code and is in a net unrealized built-in loss position (as determined for AMT purposes) on the date of the ownership change, the corporation’s (or consolidated group’s) aggregate tax basis in its assets would be reduced for certain AMT purposes to reflect the fair market value of such assets as of the change date.

Any AMT that a corporation pays generally will be allowed as a nonrefundable credit against its regular U.S. federal income tax liability in future taxable years when the corporation is no longer subject to the AMT.

B. Consequences to Holders of Certain Claims

Pursuant to the Plan, and in satisfaction of their respective Claims: (i) holders of Allowed CapitalSource Secured Claims against LPC (Class 2(a)) and against LRGI (Class 14(a)) will receive payments as provided in the Amended and Restated Secured CapitalSource Credit Agreement; (ii) holders of Allowed CSE Secured Claims against LPC (Class 2(b)) and against LRGI (Class 14(b)) will receive payments as provided in the Amended and Restated Secured CSE Loan Agreement; (iii) holders of Allowed Senior Subordinated Note Claims (Class 5) will receive Cash or New LPC Common Stock; (iv) holders of Allowed Lexington Precision General Unsecured Claims (Class 7) and Allowed Lexington Rubber Group General Unsecured Claims (Class 17) will receive Cash payments over a twenty-seven month period or a single reduced Cash payment; and (v) holders of Asbestos Related Claims (Class 9) may receive Cash payments under the Asbestos Insurance Policies, and, to the extent the proceeds of the Asbestos Insurance Policies are not sufficient, cash payments, from the Reorganized Debtors or a single reduced cash payment.

The U.S. federal income tax consequences of the implementation of the Plan to a holder of a Claim depends, in part, on whether the holder's Claim constitutes a "security" for U.S. federal income tax purposes and, if so, whether the consideration received in exchange therefor also constitutes a "security" for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The term "security" is not defined in the Tax Code or in the Treasury regulations issued thereunder and has not been clearly defined by judicial decisions. The determination of whether a particular debt obligation constitutes a "security" depends on an overall evaluation of the nature of the debt. One of the most significant factors considered in determining whether a particular debt is a security is its original term. In general, debt obligations issued with a weighted average maturity at issuance of less than five (5) years do not constitute securities, whereas debt obligations with a weighted average maturity at issuance of ten (10) years or more constitute securities. Additionally, the IRS has ruled that new debt instruments with a term of less than five (5) years issued in exchange for and bearing the same terms (other than interest rate) as securities should also be classified as securities for this purpose, since the new debt represents a continuation of the holder's investment in the corporation in substantially the same form. The following discussion assumes that CapitalSource Secured Claims and CSE Secured Claims do not constitute securities for U.S. federal income tax purposes because their original maturity was three (3) years. Each holder of an Allowed CapitalSource Secured Claim, an Allowed CSE Secured Claim, an Allowed Senior Subordinated Note Claim or an Allowed General Unsecured Claim should consult its own tax advisor to determine whether its Allowed Claim or the consideration received in exchange therefor constitutes a security for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

1. Holders of Allowed CapitalSource Secured Claims against LPC (Class 2(a)) and Allowed CapitalSource Secured Claims against LRGI (Class 14(a))

Pursuant to the Plan, each holder of Allowed CapitalSource Secured Claims against LPC and Allowed CapitalSource Secured Claims against LRGI will receive on account of its Allowed Claim payments over time as provided in the Amended and Restated Secured CapitalSource Credit Agreement plus a cash payment for certain fees, costs and expenses.

Whether changes to a debt instrument are regarded as a mere amendment for U.S. federal income tax purposes or instead, treated as, in substance, a new debt instrument received in satisfaction of the original debt obligation depends, in part, on whether the changed terms constitute a “significant modification” of the existing debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes, as determined under applicable Treasury regulations. The Amended Secured CapitalSource Debt has certain similarities and differences in terms as contrasted with the CapitalSource Secured Claims, in particular, extension of the maturity date and a change of the interest rate. The following discussion assumes that the receipt of Amended Secured CapitalSource Debt by holders of Allowed CapitalSource Secured Claims should be treated as an “exchange” for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Each holder of an Allowed CapitalSource Secured Claim generally should recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference, if any, between (i) the “issue price” (see Section VIII(B)(8) “Ownership and Disposition of Amended Secured CapitalSource Debt and Amended Secured CSE Debt”) of the Amended Secured CapitalSource Debt received (other than in respect of any Claim for accrued but unpaid interest), and (ii) the holder’s adjusted tax basis in its Claim (other than any tax basis attributable to accrued but unpaid interest or certain fees, costs and expenses). A holder of an Allowed CapitalSource Secured Claim generally should have ordinary income to the extent of the cash payment received for certain fees, costs, and expenses. Holders of an Allowed CapitalSource Secured Claim that receive a cash payment for certain fees, costs and expenses are urged to consult their own tax advisors as to the proper treatment of such payment in relation to their particular circumstances. In addition, a holder of an Allowed CapitalSource Secured Claim will have interest income to the extent of any amounts received in respect of accrued and unpaid interest not previously included in income. See Section VIII(B)(7), “Distributions in Respect of Accrued Interest.”

For a discussion of the character of any recognized gain or loss, please refer to Section VIII(B)(6), “Character of Gain or Loss.”

A holder’s tax basis in the Amended Secured CapitalSource Debt should equal the issue price of such debt on the Effective Date. A holder’s holding period in such debt should begin the day following the Effective Date.

2. Holders of Allowed CSE Secured Claims against LPC (Class 2(b)) and Allowed CSE Secured Claims against LRGI (Class 14(b))

Pursuant to the Plan, each holder of Allowed CSE Secured Claims against LPC and Allowed CSE Secured Claims against LRGI will receive on account of its Allowed Claim payments over time as provided in the Amended and Restated Secured CSE Loan Agreement plus a cash payment for certain fees, costs and expenses.

Whether changes to a debt instrument are regarded as a mere amendment for U.S. federal income tax purposes or instead, treated as, in substance, a new debt instrument received in satisfaction of the original debt obligation depends, in part, on whether the changed terms constitute a “significant modification” of the existing debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes, as determined under applicable Treasury regulations. The Amended Secured CSE Debt has certain similarities and differences in terms as contrasted with the CSE Secured Claims, in particular, an extension of the maturity date and a change in the interest rate. The following discussion assumes that the receipt of Amended Secured CSE Debt by holders of Allowed CSE Secured Claims should be treated as an “exchange” for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

A holder of an Allowed CSE Secured Claim generally should recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference, if any, between (i) the “issue price” (see Section VIII(B)(8), “Ownership and Disposition of Amended Secured CapitalSource Debt and Amended Secured CSE Debt”) of the Amended Secured CSE Debt received (other than in respect of any Claim for accrued but unpaid interest), and (ii) the holder’s adjusted tax basis in its Claim (other than any tax basis attributable to accrued but unpaid interest). A holder of an Allowed CSE Secured Claim generally should have ordinary income to the extent of the cash payment received for certain fees, costs, and expenses. Holders of an Allowed CSE Secured Claim that receive a cash payment for certain fees, costs and expenses are urged to consult their own tax advisors as to the proper treatment of such payment in relation to their particular circumstances. In addition, a holder of an Allowed CSE Secured Claim will have interest income to the extent of any amounts received in respect of accrued and unpaid interest not previously included in income. See Section VIII(B)(7), “Distributions in Respect of Accrued Interest.”

For a discussion of the character of any recognized gain or loss, please refer to Section VIII(B)(6) “Character of Gain or Loss.”

A holder’s tax basis in the Amended Secured CSE Debt should equal the issue price of such debt on the Effective Date. A holder’s holding period in such debt should begin the day following the Effective Date.

3. Holders of Allowed Senior Subordinated Note Claims (Class 5)

The U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Plan to holders of Allowed Senior Subordinated Note Claims depend, among other things, on whether the holder elects to receive New LPC Common Stock in exchange for its Claim instead of Cash. A holder that elects to receive New LPC Common Stock must make such election for its entire Allowed Claim.

a. Receives Cash Distribution

If a holder of an Allowed Senior Subordinated Note Claim receives only Cash in respect of its claims, such holder generally should recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference, if any, between (i) the amount of Cash received (other than in respect of any Claim for accrued but unpaid interest) and (ii) the holder’s adjusted tax basis in its Claim (other than any tax basis attributable to accrued but unpaid interest). As relates to any claim for accrued but unpaid interest, please refer to Section VIII(B)(7), “Distributions in Respect of Accrued Interest.”

For a discussion of the character of any recognized gain or loss, please refer to Section VIII(B)(6), “Character of Gain or Loss.”

b. Elects to Receive New LPC Common Stock

As discussed above (at the beginning of the discussion in Section VIII(D), “Consequences to Holders of Certain Claims”), the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Plan to holders of Allowed Senior Subordinated Note Claims that elect to receive only New LPC Common Stock depend, in part, on whether the holder’s existing notes constitute “securities” for U.S. federal income tax purposes. It is not clear whether the Senior Subordinated Note Claims constitute securities. Each holder is advised to consult its own tax advisors.

(i) If Existing Note Does Not Constitute a Security

If the Senior Subordinated Notes do not constitute securities, the holder of an Allowed Senior Subordinated Note Claim generally should recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference, if any, between (i) the fair market value of any New LPC Common Stock, received (other than in respect of any Claim for accrued but unpaid interest), and (ii) the holder’s adjusted tax basis in its Claim (other than any tax basis attributable to accrued but unpaid interest). As relates to any claim for accrued but unpaid interest, please refer to Section VIII(B)(7), “Distributions in Respect of Accrued Interest.”

For a discussion of the character of any recognized gain or loss, please refer to Section VIII(B)(6), “Character of Gain or Loss.”

A holder’s tax basis in any New LPC Common Stock received should equal the fair market value of such stock on the Effective Date. A holder’s holding period in such stock should begin the day following the Effective Date.

(ii) If Existing Note Constitutes a Security

The receipt of stock of Reorganized LPC in exchange for an Allowed Senior Subordinated Note Claim that constitutes a security for U.S. federal income tax purposes will qualify as a “recapitalization” for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The classification of an exchange as a recapitalization for U.S. federal income tax purposes generally serves to defer the recognition of any gain or loss by the holder. Accordingly, no gain or loss should be recognized by the holder of such Claim who receives only stock, but such holder may recognize income with respect to any amounts received in respect of accrued but unpaid interest. As relates to any claim for accrued but unpaid interest, please refer to Section VIII(B)(7), “Distributions in Respect of Accrued Interest”.

In a recapitalization exchange, a holder’s aggregate tax basis in any stock received generally should equal the holder’s aggregate adjusted tax basis in the existing notes exchanged therefor, increased by any interest or other income recognized in the exchange. In general, a holder’s holding period in any stock received will include the holder’s holding period in the existing notes exchanged (other than any stock received in respect to any accrued but unpaid interest).

4. Holders of General Unsecured Claims against LPC (Class 7) and General Unsecured Claims against LRGI (Class 17)

Pursuant to the Plan, each holder of an Allowed General Unsecured Claim against LPC (Class 7) or against LRGI (Class 17) will receive Cash payable in ten (10) payments in respect of its Allowed Claim. In the case of Class 7, the initial up front payment will be in the amount of 8% of the holder's Allowed Claim, and the remaining nine (9) equal quarterly Cash payments (hereafter, such later payment are collectively referred to as the "GUC Payment Obligation") will each be in the amount of 8.6% of such Allowed Claim, unless such holder makes the Class 7 Cash Election to receive a single Cash payment equal to 51% of its Allowed Claim. In the case of Class 17, the initial up front payment will in the amount of 10% of the holder's Allowed Claim (plus postpetition interest through the Effective Date) and each payment under the GUC Payment Obligation will be in the amount of 10.75% of such Allowed Claim, unless the holder makes the Class 17 Cash Election to receive a single Cash Payment equal to 51% of such Allowed Claim (plus postpetition interest through the Effective Date).

a. Receipt of Multiple Cash Payments

In general, unless a holder makes a Class 7 Cash Election or a Class 17 Cash Election (as applicable), a holder of an Allowed General Unsecured Claim should recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between (x) the sum of the amount of the initial Cash payment and the "issue price" (as discussed below) of the GUC Payment Obligation (other than in respect of any Claim for accrued but unpaid interest) and (y) the holder's adjusted tax basis in its Claim (other than any tax basis attributable to accrued but unpaid interest). For a discussion of the character of any recognized gain or loss, and the treatment of amounts received in respect of any Claim for accrued but unpaid interest, see Section VIII(B)(6), "Character of Gain or Loss," and Section VIII(B)(7), "Distributions in Respect of Accrued Interest."

The GUC Payment Obligation should be treated as a debt obligation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and thus should be subject to the original issue discount ("OID") rules of the Tax Code. In general, a debt instrument is treated as having OID to the extent its "stated redemption price at maturity" (in this case, the sum of the nine later payments) exceeds its "issue price," subject to a de minimis exception.

If, as expected, the GUC Payment Obligation is not considered traded on an "established market," the issue price of the GUC Payment Obligation should be the present value of all payments discounted at a rate based on the applicable federal rate for short-term instruments (which discount rate is currently in the range of 0.67% compounded semi-annually). Such rate will then be the yield to maturity in respect of the obligation. If the GUC Payment Obligation is traded on an "established market" during the 60 day period ending 30 days after the Effective Date, the issue price of the GUC Payment Obligation will be its fair market value (with the yield to maturity computed accordingly).

Each holder of an Allowed General Unsecured Claim generally will be required to accrue the OID in respect of the GUC Payment Obligation received and include such amount in gross income as interest over the term of such obligation based on the constant yield method.

Accordingly, each holder generally would be required to include amounts in gross income in advance of the payment of Cash in respect of such income. A holder's tax basis in a GUC Payment Obligation will be increased by the amount of any OID included in income and reduced by any Cash received with respect to such GUC Payment Obligation.

A holder's initial tax basis in the GUC Payment Obligation received should equal the issue price of such obligation, and the holding period of such obligation should begin the day following the Effective Date.

c. Elects to Receive Single Cash Payment

In general, each holder of an Allowed General Unsecured Claim that elects to receive a single Cash payment should recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between (x) the amount of Cash received (other than in respect of any Claim for accrued but unpaid interest) and (y) the holder's adjusted tax basis in its Claim (other than any tax basis attributable to accrued but unpaid interest). For a discussion of the character of any recognized gain or loss, and the treatment of amounts received in respect of any Claim for accrued but unpaid interest, see Section VIII(B)(6), "Character of Gain or Loss," and Section VIII(B)(7), "Distributions in Respect of Accrued Interest"

5. Holders of Asbestos-Related Claims (Class 9)

Pursuant to the Plan, each Asbestos-Related Claim will be satisfied by Cash payments from the Asbestos Insurance Policies and, to the extent the proceeds of the Asbestos Insurance Policies are not sufficient, Cash payments (which may be made over time) from the Reorganized Debtors for a holder's Insurance Proceeds Deficiency (hereafter, such payments made over time are collectively referred to as the "IPD Payment Obligation") unless the holder of an Asbestos-Related Claim makes the Class 9 Cash Election to receive a single Cash Payment equal to 51% of the Insurance Proceeds Deficiency.

The U.S. federal income tax treatment of a receipt of payments by a holder of an Asbestos-Related Claim generally will depend upon the nature of the Claim. Amounts received by a holder of a personal injury claim generally should not be taxable to such holder. Amounts received by a holder of a property damage claim may or may not be taxable to such holder depending on the nature and extent of the damage. Where cash payments are receivable over time, as under the IPD Payment Obligation, the existence of the payment obligation itself (rather than the later receipt of the cash payments represented by the obligation) may be treated as the consideration received in respect of the holder's Claim for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Because the tax treatment of any amounts received by a holder under the Plan will depend on facts peculiar to each holder, all holders of Asbestos-Related Claims are urged to consult their own tax advisors as to the proper tax treatment of such receipts, including the receipt and ownership of the IPD Payment Obligation in relation to their particular facts and circumstances. The Debtors currently intend to treat the IPD Payment Obligation in an equivalent manner to the GUC Payment Obligation, see Section VIII(B)(4), "Holders of General

Unsecured Claims Against LPC (Class 7) and General Unsecured Claims Against LRGI (Class 17).”

6. Character of Gain or Loss

Where gain or loss is recognized by a holder in respect of the satisfaction its Claim, the character of such gain or loss as long-term or short-term capital gain or loss or as ordinary income or loss will be determined by a number of factors, including, among others, the tax status of the holder, whether the Claim constitutes a capital asset in the hands of the holder and how long it has been held, whether the Claim was acquired at a market discount, and whether and to what extent the holder previously had claimed a bad debt deduction. Each holder of a Claim is urged to consult its tax advisor for a determination of the character of any gain or loss recognized in respect to the satisfaction of its Claim.

A holder that purchased its claim from a prior holder at a “market discount” (relative to the adjusted issue price of the claim at the time of acquisition) may be subject to the market discount rules of the Tax Code. Under these rules, assuming that the holder has made no election to amortize the market discount into income on a current basis with respect to any market discount instrument, any gain recognized on the exchange of such claim generally would be treated as ordinary income to the extent of the market discount accrued during the holder’s period of ownership, unless the holder elected to include the market discount in income as it accrued.

7. Distributions in Respect of Accrued Interest

In general, to the extent that any consideration received pursuant to the Plan by a holder of an Allowed Claim (whether in cash, new debt or stock) is received in satisfaction of interest or OID that accrued during its holding period, such amount will be taxable to the holder as interest income (to the extent not previously included in the holder’s gross income). Conversely, a holder generally recognizes a deductible loss to the extent any accrued interest or amortized OID was previously included in its gross income and is not paid in full. However, the IRS has privately ruled that a holder of a security of a corporate issuer, in an otherwise tax-free exchange, could not claim a current deduction with respect to any unpaid OID. Accordingly it is also unclear whether, by analogy, a holder of a Claim that does not constitute a security would be viewed by the Internal Revenue Service as required to recognize a capital loss, rather than an ordinary loss, with respect to previously included OID that is not paid in full.

The Plan provides that, except to the extent otherwise provided therein, to the extent that any Allowed Claim entitled to a distribution under the Plan is comprised of indebtedness and accrued but unpaid interest thereon, such distribution shall be allocated to the principal amount of the Claim (as determined for U.S. federal income tax purposes) first and then, to the extent the consideration exceeds the principal amount of the Claim, to accrued but unpaid interest. There is no assurance, however, that the IRS will respect this treatment and will not determine that all or a portion of amounts distributed to such holder and attributable to principal under the Plan is properly allocable to interest. Each holder of a Claim on which interest has accrued is urged to consult its tax advisor regarding the tax treatment of distributions under the Plan and the deductibility of any accrued but unpaid interest for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

8. Ownership and Disposition of Amended Secured CapitalSource Debt and Amended Secured CSE Debt

a. Stated Interest and Original Issue Discount.

A holder of Amended Secured CapitalSource Debt and Amended Secured CSE Debt (together, the “Amended Secured Debt”) will be required to include the stated interest on the debt in income in accordance with the holder’s regular method of accounting. A debt instrument generally has OID if its “stated redemption price at maturity” (in this case, the principal amount of the Amended Secured Debt) exceeds its “issue price” by more than a de minimis amount. Due to the limited number of holders of Allowed CapitalSource Secured Claims and Allowed CSE Secured Claims, the Debtors expect, and the discussion herein assumes, that the “issue price” of the Amended Secured Debt will be equal to their stated principal amount in the Amended and Restated Secured CapitalSource Credit Agreement or the Amended and Restated CSE Loan Agreement, as applicable, and, thus, that the Amended Secured Debt will not be issued with OID. If the Amended Secured Debt is issued with OID, the holder would be required to recognize the OID over the term of the Amended Secured Debt in advance of the holder’s receipt of the associated Cash.

b. Sale, Exchange or Other Disposition of the Amended Secured Debt.

Any gain or loss recognized by a holder on a sale, exchange or other disposition of the Amended Secured Debt generally should be capital gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference, if any, between the amount realized by the holder and the holder’s adjusted tax basis in the note immediately before the sale, exchange, redemption or other disposition. Any such gain or loss generally should be long-term capital gain or loss if the holder’s holding period in its note is more than one year at that time.

9. Disposition of the New LPC Common Stock

Any gain recognized by a holder upon a subsequent taxable disposition of the New LPC Common Stock received in respect of its Claim (or any stock or property received for such stock in a later tax-free exchange) would be treated as ordinary income for U.S. federal income tax purposes to the extent of (i) any bad debt deductions (or additions to a bad debt reserve) claimed with respect to the Claim for which stock was received and any ordinary loss deducted upon satisfaction of the Claim, less any income (other than interest income) recognized by the holder upon satisfaction of the Claim, and (ii) with respect to a cash-basis holder, also any amounts which would have been included in its gross income if the holder’s Claim had been satisfied in full but which was not included by reason of the cash method of accounting.

In addition, in the case of an exchange of the existing Senior Subordinated Notes that qualifies as a recapitalization for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Tax Code indicates that any accrued market discount in respect of the Senior Subordinated Notes in excess of the gain recognized in the exchange should not be currently includible in income. However, such accrued market discount would carry over to any non-recognition property received in exchange therefor, such that any gain recognized by the holder upon a subsequent disposition of the stock should be treated as ordinary income to the extent of any carryover of accrued market discount not previously included in income. To date, specific Treasury regulations implementing this rule have not been issued.

C. Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Payments of interest or dividends (including accruals of OID) and any other reportable payments, possibly including amounts received pursuant to the Plan and payments of proceeds from the sale, retirement or other disposition of new securities, may be subject to “backup withholding” (currently at a rate of 28%) if a recipient of those payments fails to furnish to the payor certain identifying information or to make certain certifications. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts deducted and withheld should generally be allowed as a credit against that recipient’s U.S. federal income tax, if any, provided that the required information is timely furnished to the IRS. Furthermore, certain penalties may be imposed by the IRS on a recipient of payments that is required to supply information but does not do so in the proper manner. Backup withholding generally should not apply with respect to payments made to certain exempt recipients, such as corporations and financial institutions. Information may also be required to be provided to the IRS concerning payments, unless an exemption applies. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding their qualification for exemption from backup withholding and information reporting and the procedures for obtaining such an exemption.

Treasury regulations generally require disclosure by a taxpayer on its U.S. federal income tax return of certain types of transactions in which the taxpayer participated, including, among other types of transactions, certain transactions that result in the taxpayer’s claiming a loss in excess of certain thresholds. Holders are urged to consult their tax advisors regarding these regulations and whether the exchanges contemplated by the Plan would be subject to these regulations and require disclosure on the holders’ tax returns.

The foregoing discussion is intended only as a summary of certain U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Plan and is not a substitute for careful tax planning with a tax professional. The above summary has been provided for informational purposes only and is not tax advice. The tax consequences are in many cases uncertain and may vary depending on a holder’s individual circumstances. Accordingly, all holders of Claims and Interests receiving a distribution under the Plan are urged to consult their tax advisors concerning the U.S. federal, state, local and foreign tax consequences applicable to them under the Plan.

IX.

SECURITIES LAW MATTERS

A. Issuance and Resale of the New LPC Common Stock under the Plan

1. Issuance and Resale of New LPC Common Stock to be Issued to Holders of Allowed Senior Subordinated Note Claims or Holders of the DIP Loan Claim

Section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code generally exempts from registration under the Securities Act the offer or sale, under a chapter 11 plan of reorganization, of a security of a debtor, of an affiliate participating in a joint plan with the debtor, or of a successor to a debtor under a plan, if such securities are offered or sold in exchange for a claim against, or equity interest in, such debtor or affiliate. In reliance upon this exemption, the New LPC Common Stock to be issued to holders of Allowed Senior Subordinated Note Claims and holders of the DIP Loan Claim generally will be exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act, and state and local securities laws. Accordingly, such shares of New LPC Common Stock may be resold without registration under the Securities Act or other federal securities laws pursuant to the exemption provided by Section 4(1) of the Securities Act unless the holder is an “underwriter” with respect to such securities as that term is defined in section 1145(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. In addition, such shares of New LPC Common Stock generally may be resold without registration under state securities laws pursuant to various exemptions provided by the respective laws of the several states.

Section 1145(b) of the Bankruptcy Code defines “underwriter” as one who (a) purchases a claim with a view to distribution of any security to be received in exchange for the claim other than in ordinary trading transactions, (b) offers to sell securities issued under a plan for the holders of such securities, (c) offers to buy securities issued under a plan from persons receiving such securities, if the offer to buy is made with a view to distribution or under an agreement made in connection with a chapter 11 plan, with the consummation of the chapter 11 plan, or with an offer or sale of securities under the chapter 11 plan, or (d) is the issuer, any person directly or indirectly controlling or controlled by the issuer, or any person under direct or indirect common control with the issuer.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, statutory underwriters may be able to sell securities without registration pursuant to the resale limitations of Rule 144 under the Securities Act which, in effect, permit the resale of securities received by statutory underwriters pursuant to a chapter 11 plan, subject to applicable volume limitations, notice and manner of sale requirements and certain other conditions. Parties who believe they may be statutory underwriters as defined in section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code are advised to consult with their own legal advisors as to the availability of the exemption provided by Rule 144.

Recipients of securities under the Plan are advised to consult with their own legal advisors as to the availability of any exemption from registration under state law in any given instance and as to any applicable requirements or conditions to such availability.

2. Issuance and Resale of New LPC Common Stock to be Issued to the Plan Investor

The Debtors are relying on Section 4(2) of the Securities Act and, with respect to state securities or “blue sky” laws, Section 18 of the Securities Act, to exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act the offer and sale of the shares of New LPC Common Stock to be issued to the Plan Investor under the Plan.

The shares of New LPC Common Stock to be issued to the Plan Investor under the Plan will be “restricted securities” within the meaning of Rule 144 under the Securities Act and may not be resold without registration under the Securities Act unless resold pursuant to an exemption from registration. The Plan Investor will have the right to demand the public registration of the New LPC Common Stock and will receive customary piggyback registration rights. See Section IV.C.1, “The Securityholders Agreement.”

B. Issuance and Resale of Amended Secured CapitalSource Debt, Amended Secured CSE Debt, GUC Payment Obligations, and any Other Deferred Cash Payment Obligations

The Amended Secured CapitalSource Debt, the Amended Secured CSE Debt, the GUC Payment Obligations, and any other deferred cash payment obligations, to the extent they constitute securities, will be issued pursuant to an exemption from registration provided by section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code.

See Section IX.A.1, “Issuance and Resale of New LPC Common Stock to be Issued to Holders of Allowed Senior Subordinated Note Claims or Holders of the DIP Loan Claim.”

C. Listing

None of the securities to be issued pursuant to the Plan are, and upon the consummation of the Plan, such securities will not be, listed on any national securities exchange. Accordingly, no assurance can be given that a holder of such securities will be able to sell such securities in the future or as to the price at which any sale may occur.

D. Legends

Certificates evidencing shares of the New LPC Common Stock received by holders of at least 10% of the New LPC Common Stock will bear a legend substantially in the form below (except no legend will be required on certificates issued in “street name” or in the name of, or by a nominee, of the Depository Trust Company):

THE SHARES OF COMMON STOCK REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE MAY NOT BE SOLD, OFFERED FOR SALE OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED UNLESS REGISTERED OR QUALIFIED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED, OR UNDER THE SECURITIES LAWS OF ANY STATE OR OTHER JURISDICTION OR UNLESS LEXINGTON PRECISION CORPORATION RECEIVES AN OPINION OF

COUNSEL REASONABLY SATISFACTORY TO IT THAT SUCH REGISTRATION OR QUALIFICATION IS NOT REQUIRED.

CONFIRMATION OF THE PLAN

A. The Confirmation Hearing

The Confirmation Hearing will commence at [] .m. prevailing Eastern Time on [], 2010.

The Plan Objection Deadline is 45:00 p.m. prevailing Eastern Time on [], 2010.

All objections and responses to the confirmation of the Plan must be filed with the Bankruptcy Court and served on the Debtors and certain other parties in accordance with the Disclosure Statement Order on or before the Plan Objection Deadline.

UNLESS AN OBJECTION TO CONFIRMATION IS TIMELY SERVED AND FILED, IT MAY NOT BE CONSIDERED BY THE BANKRUPTCY COURT.

B. General Requirements for Confirmation

At the Confirmation Hearing, the Bankruptcy Court will determine whether the following confirmation requirements specified in section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code have been satisfied:

- (i) The Plan complies with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code.

- (ii) The Debtors have complied with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code.
- (iii) The Plan has been proposed in good faith and not by any means proscribed by law.
- (iv) Any payment made or promised by the Debtors or by an Entity issuing securities or acquiring property under the Plan for services or for costs and expenses in, or in connection with, the Chapter 11 Cases, or in connection with the Plan and incident to the Chapter 11 Cases, has been disclosed to the Bankruptcy Court, and any such payment made before confirmation of the Plan is reasonable, or if such payment is to be fixed after confirmation of the Plan, such payment is subject to the approval of the Bankruptcy Court as reasonable.
- (v) The Debtors have disclosed the identity and affiliations of any individual proposed to serve, after confirmation of the Plan, as a director or officer of the Debtors, an affiliate of the Debtors participating in the Plan with the Debtors, or a successor to the Debtors under the Plan; the appointment to, or continuance in, such office of such individual is consistent with the interests of creditors and holders of equity securities and with public policy; and the Debtors have disclosed the identity of any insider that will be employed or retained by the Debtors and the nature of any compensation for such insider.
- (vi) With respect to each Class of Claims or Interests, each holder of an impaired Claim or impaired Interest either has accepted the Plan or will receive or retain under the Plan on account of such holder's Claim or Interest, property of a value, as of the Effective Date, that is not less than the amount such holder would receive or retain if the Debtors were liquidated on the Effective Date under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. See discussion of "Best Interests Test" below.
- (vii) Except to the extent the Plan meets the requirements of section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, as described in Section VII.A.2, "Non-Consensual Confirmation" on page 79,80, each Class of Claims or Interests has either accepted the Plan or is not impaired under the Plan.
- (viii) Except to the extent that the holder of a particular Claim has agreed to a different treatment of such Claim, the Plan provides that Administrative Expenses and Priority Claims other than Priority Tax Claims will be paid in full on the Effective Date and that each holder of a Priority Tax Claim will receive on account of such Claim (a) Cash equal to its Allowed Priority Tax Claim, on or as soon as practicable following the later of (i) the Effective Date or (ii) the date the such Claim is Allowed; (b) equal semi-annual Cash payments in the aggregate amount of its Allowed

Priority Tax Claim with interest at the applicable non-bankruptcy rate, commencing as soon as reasonably practicable after the later of the (i) the Effective Date or (ii) the date such Claim is Allowed and continuing over an eighteen (18) month period (but in no event exceeding five (5) years after the Commencement Date); or (c) such other treatment as will be determined by the Bankruptcy Court to provide to the holder of such Allowed Priority Tax Claim deferred Cash payments having a value, as of the Effective Date, equal to such Allowed Priority Tax Claim.

- (ix) At least one Class of impaired Claims has accepted the Plan, determined without including any acceptance of the Plan by any insider holding a Claim in such Class.
- (x) Confirmation of the Plan is not likely to be followed by the liquidation or the need for further financial reorganization of the Debtors or any successor to the Debtors under the Plan, unless such liquidation or reorganization is proposed in the Plan. See discussion of “Feasibility” below.
- (xi) The Plan provides for the continuation after the Effective Date of the payment of all “retiree benefits” (as defined in section 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code), at the level established pursuant to section 1114(e)(1)(B) or 1114(g) of the Bankruptcy Code at any time prior to confirmation of the Plan, for the duration of the period the Debtors have obligated themselves to provide such benefits.

C. Best Interests Test

As described above, the Bankruptcy Code requires that each holder of an impaired Claim or Interest either (i) accepts the Plan or (ii) receives or retains under the Plan property of a value, as of the Effective Date, that is not less than the value such holder would receive or retain if the Debtors were liquidated under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code on the Effective Date.

The first step in meeting this test is to determine the dollar amount that would be generated from the liquidation of the Debtors’ assets and properties in the context of a chapter 7 liquidation case. The gross amount of cash available would be the sum of the proceeds from the disposition of the Debtors’ assets and the cash held by the Debtors at the time of the commencement of the chapter 7 case. The next step is to reduce that total by the amount of any Claims secured by such assets, the costs and expenses of the liquidation, and any additional Administrative Expenses and priority Claims that may result from the termination of the Debtors’ business and the use of chapter 7 for the purposes of liquidation. Any remaining net cash would be allocated to creditors and shareholders in strict priority in accordance with section 726 of the Bankruptcy Code (see discussion below). Finally, taking into account the time necessary to accomplish the liquidation, the present value of such allocations may be compared to the value of the property that is proposed to be distributed under the Plan on the Effective Date.

The Debtors' costs of liquidation under chapter 7 would include the fees payable to a chapter 7 trustee in bankruptcy, as well as those that might be payable to attorneys and other professionals that such a trustee may engage, plus any unpaid expenses incurred by the Debtors during the Chapter 11 Cases and allowed in the chapter 7 cases, such as compensation for attorneys, financial advisors, appraisers, accountants and other professionals, and costs and expenses of the Creditors' Committee or any other statutorily appointed committee. Moreover, additional Claims could arise from the Debtors' breach or rejection of obligations incurred and executory contracts or leases entered into both prior to, and during the pendency of, the Chapter 11 Cases.

The foregoing types of Claims, costs, expenses, fees and such other Claims that may arise in a liquidation case would be paid in full from the liquidation proceeds before the balance of those proceeds would be made available to pay pre-chapter 11 priority and unsecured Claims. Under the absolute priority rule, no junior creditor would receive any distribution until all senior creditors were paid in full, with interest, and no equity holder would receive any distribution until all creditors were paid in full, with interest.

After consideration of the effects that a chapter 7 liquidation would have on the ultimate proceeds available for distribution to creditors in a chapter 11 case, including (i) the increased costs and expenses of a liquidation under chapter 7 arising from fees payable to a chapter 7 trustee in bankruptcy and any professional advisors to such trustee, (ii) the erosion in value of assets in a chapter 7 case in the context of the expeditious liquidation required under chapter 7 and the "forced sale" atmosphere that would prevail, and (iii) increases in Claims that would be satisfied on a priority basis, the Debtors have determined that there would be no distribution under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code to any Class of unsecured Claims or Interests and, consequently, confirmation of the Plan will provide each creditor and each holder of equity securities with a recovery that is not less than it would receive pursuant to a liquidation of the Debtors under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code.

The Debtors' liquidation analysis estimates the proceeds generated from a hypothetical chapter 7 liquidation of the Debtors' assets. The Debtors base the analysis upon a number of significant assumptions which are described therein. The liquidation analysis does not purport to be a valuation of the Debtors' assets and is not necessarily indicative of the values that may be realized in an actual liquidation.

The Debtors' chapter 7 liquidation analysis and the assumptions utilized therein are set forth in Exhibit G to this Disclosure Statement.

D. No Unfair Discrimination/Fair and Equitable Test

As provided under the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Court may confirm a chapter 11 plan over the rejection or deemed rejection of such plan by a class of claims or interests if the chapter 11 plan “does not discriminate unfairly” and is “fair and equitable” with respect to such Class:

1. No Unfair Discrimination

This test applies to classes of claims or interests that are of equal priority and are receiving different treatment under the chapter 11 plan. The test does not require that the treatment be the same or equivalent, but rather, that such treatment be “fair.”

2. Fair and Equitable Test

This test applies to classes of different priority (e.g., unsecured versus secured) and includes the general requirement that no class of claims or interests receive more than 100% of the allowed amount of the claims or interests in such class. As to the dissenting class, the test sets different standards, depending on the type of claims or interests in such class:

a. Secured Claims

The Bankruptcy Code requires that a chapter 11 plan must provide each holder of an impaired secured claim either (i) liens on the collateral or the proceeds of collateral equal in value to the amount of such allowed secured claim with deferred cash payments equal in value to the amount of such allowed secured claim, as of the effective date, or (ii) the “indubitable equivalent” of such allowed secured claim.

b. Unsecured Claims

The Bankruptcy Code requires that a chapter 11 plan must provide that either (i) each holder of an impaired unsecured claim will receive under the chapter 11 plan a distribution equal in value to the amount of the allowed unsecured claim or (ii) no distribution will be made under the Plan to any holder that is junior to the claims in the dissenting class.

c. Interests

The Bankruptcy Code requires that a chapter 11 plan must provide that either (i) each holder of an interest will receive under the chapter 11 plan a distribution equal in value to the greater of (x) the fixed liquidation preference or redemption price, if any, of the stock that is the basis for such Interest or (y) the value of such stock, or (ii) no distribution will be made to any holder of an interest that is junior to the dissenting class.

The Debtors believe that (i) the Plan satisfies the “no unfair discrimination” requirement because there is a singular treatment for all holders of Claims and Interests in each Class and (ii) the Plan satisfies the “fair and equitable” requirement notwithstanding the rejection of the Plan by any Class of Claims, because either (x) each Class of Claims or Interests will receive under the Plan a distribution equal in value to the amount of such Claims or (y) no distribution will be made to under the Plan to any holder of a claim that is junior to the dissenting class.

E. Classification of Claims and Interests

The Debtors believe that the Plan meets the classification requirements of the Bankruptcy Code which requires that a chapter 11 plan place each claim or equity interest into a class with other claims or equity interests that are “substantially similar.” The Plan establishes Classes of Claims and Interests as required by the Bankruptcy Code; these Classes are summarized above. Consistent with section 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, Administrative Expense Claims and Priority Tax Claims are not classified.

F. Feasibility

The Bankruptcy Code requires a debtor to demonstrate that confirmation of a plan of reorganization is not likely to be followed by the liquidation or the need for further financial reorganization of the debtor unless so provided by the plan of reorganization. For purposes of determining whether the Plan meets this requirement, the Debtors have analyzed their ability to meet their financial obligations as contemplated thereunder. As part of this analysis, the Debtors have prepared the Projected Financial Statements set forth in Exhibit F to this Disclosure Statement. Certain selected financial information from the Projected Financial Statements and certain key financial ratios are set forth in Section VI, “Financial Information, Projections and Valuation Analysis,” on page ~~73~~-74. These projections are based upon the assumption that the Bankruptcy Court will confirm the Plan and, for projection purposes, that the Effective Date of the Plan and its substantial consummation will take place within 90 days after entry of the Confirmation Order. Based upon the Projected Financial Statements, the Debtors believe they will be able to make all payments required to be made pursuant to the Plan.

XII.

CONCLUSION

The Debtors believe the Plan is in the best interests of all holders of Claims and Interests and urges the holders of impaired Claims in Classes 2(a), 2(b), 5, 7, 9, 14(a), 14(b) and 17 to vote to accept the Plan and to evidence acceptance by returning their ballots such that the Voting Agent will receive the ballots no later than [____], 2010.
